Kiss Me Softly Amy Turtle:

Kiss Me Softly, Amy Turtle Paul McDonald, 2004 A story about poignant and comic routes out of banality the prose is refreshing surprising and comfortable in its own lucid unpretentious skin Times Literary Supplement Dialect Writing and the North of England Patrick Honeybone, 2020-09-04 Investigates how dialect variation in the North of England is represented in writing A World of Local Voices Klaus Martens, Paul Duncan Morris, Arlette Warken, 2003 The present volume contains papers and poems presented at Saarland University's international conference A World of Local Voices Poetry in English Today October 22-23 1999 and the Day of International Poetry October 24 1999 both organised by the university's Department of North American Literature and Culture The conference set out to explore how the modernist tendency towards overarching concepts and a poetry of ideas is slowly being superseded by a more modest poetry of place which at the same time seems to be loosely subsumed within the unifying medium of English in its various forms The Day of International Poetry was meant to put into operation some of the poetic issues discussed during the conference by asking poets from several English speaking countries Canada India Jamaica and the USA to contribute their individual voices to an international reading of poetry This volume comprises critical contributions which deal with the interplay of aesthetic cultural and political forces in contemporary poetry The common reference of this collection is poetry written in varieties of the English language including translations The essays show awareness of the current critical debates concerning postcolonialism and intercultural literary relations while also suggesting new paradigms of critical understanding based on the analyses of individual poetic expression As a supplement selected poets and translators have submitted individual poetic texts with accompanying commentaries International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007, 2008-02 Dreams of Paradise, Visions of Apocalypse J. Verheul, 2004 The book explores the fundamental and multifaceted dialectic between utopian dreams and dystopian nightmares within American culture The utopian mindset in constructing and imagining different futures for society is reflected in a wide range of differential cultural texts and narratives such as novels short stories political discourses and treatises journalism and scholarly and intellectual debates Often these combine social criticism and satire political rhetoric religious belief systems and biblical metaphors Approaching the topic from various angles and throughout different historical periods the essays in this volume collectively show how fascinating and rewarding the exploration of this utopian discourse of for an understanding of American culture
