Emperors Once More Duncan Jepson, 2015-06-02 From the author of All the Flowers in Shanghai strong on detail and emotional intensity Kirkus Reviews Duncan Jepson comes a new crime thriller that captures the sights and sounds of Hong Kong and propels the reader into a world of international financial intrigue Senior Inspector Alex Soong of the Hong Kong police is a contradictory character a student of traditional martial arts and Chinese history he drives an imported Mustang loves American jazz and is married to a beautiful high maintenance wife Jun who cannot understand why he doesn't take a more highly paid and prestigious job On the same day as he is drafted in to help Inspector Mike De Souza with the investigation of the motiveless murder of two Chinese Methodists in the financial district the police are tipped off to an apparently unrelated murder in a deserted Kowloon warehouse five people dead in a scene of horror which echoes the ritualistic killings of the Boxer Rebellion a century before. As the first officer on the scene, Alex is shocked to be greeted by the concealed perpetrator and invited to join him in reasserting China's global supremacy. After dismissing this and a second approach, he recruits historian Professor Elizabeth Yi to help him research the cases, parallels with the Boxer killings. With Hong Kong about to host an economic summit between the Chinese and the faltering G8 powers who are massively in debt to them, the same Western powers who allied successfully against China in the days of the Boxers, the stage is set for an explosive rewriting of history. When Alex will not join the shadowy conspirators seeking to manipulate public opinion against the West, they seize his wife and the professor. He is forced to run a desperate race against time that will lead him into the pitiless heart of the ancient conspiracy and pit him against the final, ruthless stage of its campaign to alter the balance of power between East and West forever.

The Works of George Berkeley George Berkeley, 2024-09-26. Reprint of the original first published in 1837. Research of Martial Arts Shifu Jonathan Bluestein, 2014-07-27. Jonathan Bluestein's Research of Martial Arts is a book about the true essence of martial arts. It includes neither instruction on deadly killing techniques nor mystical tales of so-called super human masters. Rather, it is a vast compilation of seriously thought-out observations made on the subject by the author as well as many other martial artists and scientists with a slight touch of history and humour. The goal of this project had from the start been to surpass the current standard in the martial arts literary market and offer readers worldwide something which they have never seen before. In essence, a book in which are found countless answers for martial arts practitioners which they cannot be read elsewhere, which address commonly discussed martially related topics with breadth and depth unparalleled in other works to this day in any language. It holds among its pages no less than 220,000 words containing knowledge which would be coveted by many. The aim of this book is to present the reader a coherent, clear-cut and in-depth view of some of the most perplexing and controversial subjects in the world of martial arts, as well as providing a healthy dose of philosophical outlook on these subjects from various individuals. At its core is the author's aspiration to build a stronger theoretical foundation for the discussion of martial arts while addressing matters in innovative ways which I have come to believe would help people to better grasp the nature of these arts. There are books by authors who will tell you that some aspects of the martial arts are too complex for concrete, coherent and defined explanations. Others have used ambiguous terminology to explain what they could not pronounce otherwise. This is no such book. This book was written to provide you with the solid, applicable answers and ideas that you could actually understand and take away with you. This book is mainly comprised of three parts: Part I: From the Inside Out: External and Internal Gong Fu. This is essentially mostly a very long, thorough discussion of martial arts theory and practice. Traditional and modern concepts and methods are discussed through the mediums of Physiology, Biology, Anatomy, Psychology, Philosophy. Western and Oriental alike, sports science and the author's personal experiences. The Internal Martial Arts of China receive a special, lengthier treatment in this part of the book. Part II: Contemplations on

Controlled Violence This one is of a Philosophical and Psychological nature and contains the author s thoughts on the martial arts and their manifestation in our daily lives with guest articles by various martial arts teachers Part III The Wisdom of Martial Spirits Teachers and the Things They Hold Dear This part includes various interesting and comprehensive interviews with distinguished martial arts masters spanning dozens of pages each Every one of the interviewees is a person whose views and ideas are thought provoking and well worth reading The teachers interviewed in this book are Master Chen Zhonghua Chen Taiji Quan Master Yang Hai Xing Yi Quan Bagua Zhang and Chen Taiji Quan Shifu Strider Clark Tongbei Quan Wu style Taiji Shuai Jiao and more Shifu Neil Ripski Traditional Drunken Fist and many others Sifu James Cama Buddha Hand Wing Chun and Southern Praying Mantis Itzik Cohen Sensei Shito ryu Karate No matter the age rank status or experience this book was written for everyone who see themselves part of the martial arts community It is my sincere hope that any person who reads this book will benefit from the time he or she had spent doing so May this work encourage others to continue intelligent writing and research in the field as I was pushed forth and built upon the knowledge others have shared before me May you have a pleasant reading experience

The reality is that few tasks are more challenging and demanding than building and managing a job search. It is indeed a job. In fact, it's really a business and we are the business, the brand, and the product. To maximize success in today's ultra-competitive environment, we can no longer view ourselves simply as a job candidate. Transforming ourselves into a highly professional marketer of our brand and product is essential. And as with all successful marketing, it requires a well-defined strategy, exceptional planning, and flawless execution.

Branding You: Marketing You is a concise, informative, and practical guide that shows you how.

TREATING MISCELLANEOUS DISEASES BY REGULATING THE SPLEEN-STOMACH SYSTEM Xie Haiqing, 2024-07-26. This book is a compilation of clinical experience in diagnosing and treating critical and complex diseases by Xie Haiqing, a closed-door disciple of Professor Li Zhenhua, a National TCM Master and the Director of Foshan University Hospital. The book is divided into two parts. The first section begins in a dialogue format, addressing commonly held concerns about the scientific and precise nature of traditional Chinese medicine, the relevance of the Yin Yang and Five Elements Theory in guiding TCM practice, the preservation of medical practices while eliminating outdated methods, handling the toxic side effects of Chinese herbal medicine, the similarities and differences between Western and Chinese medicine, the importance of intuition in learning TCM, doctor-patient relationships, and more. The section strongly advocates for the cultivation of TCM practitioners who specialize in treating severe, acute, and difficult diseases. The second section mainly comprises details of the author's approaches of focusing on the regulation of the spleen-stomach system as a fundamental method. These approaches are woven through the author's clinical experiences in treating various critical and complex diseases, including emergencies, severe conditions, tumors, internal medicine, surgery, dermatology, gynecology, pediatrics, and otolaryngology. This book is suitable for graduate and undergraduate students of TCM medical schools, clinical TCM practitioners, integrative TCM practitioners, TCM researchers, as well as enthusiasts of traditional Chinese medicine who are interested in health preservation, wellness, and longevity.
