Listening To The Land Conversations About Nature Culture And Eros:

Listening to the Land Derrick Jensen, 2004-03-01 In this far ranging and heartening collection Derrick Jensen gathers conversations with environmentalists theologians Native Americans psychologists and feminists engaging some of our best minds in an exploration of more peaceful ways to live on Earth Included here is Dave Foreman on biodiversity Matthew Fox on Christianity and nature Jerry Mander on technology and Terry Tempest Williams on an erotic connection to the land With intelligence and compassion Listening to the Land moves from a look at the condition of the environment and the health of our spirit to a beautiful evocation of eros and a life based on love

Listening to the Land Derrick Jensen, 2004-03-01 In this far ranging and heartening collection Derrick Jensen gathers conversations with environmentalists theologians Native Americans psychologists and feminists engaging some of our best minds in an exploration of more peaceful ways to live on Earth Included here is Dave Foreman on biodiversity Matthew Fox on Christianity and nature Jerry Mander on technology and Terry Tempest Williams on an erotic connection to the land With intelligence and compassion Listening to the Land moves from a look at the condition of the environment and the health of our spirit to a beautiful evocation of eros and a life based on love

Dreams Derrick Jensen, 2011-01-04 Jensen's furthest reaching book yet Dreams challenges the destructive nihilism of writers like Richard Dawkins and Sam Harris who believe that there is no reality outside what can be measured using the tools of science He introduces the mythologies of ancient cultures and modern indigenous peoples as evidence of alternative ways of understanding reality informed by thinkers such as American Indian writer Jack Forbes theologian and American Indian rights activist Vine Deloria Shaman Martin Prechtel Dakota activist and scholar Waziyatawin and Okanagan Indian writer Jeannette Armstrong He draws on the wisdom of Dr Paul Staments author of Mycelium Running How Mushrooms Can Help Save the World sociologist Stanley Aronowitz who discusses science's lack of accountability to the earth and many more As in his other books Jensen draws heavily from his own life experience living alongside the frogs redwoods snails birds and bears of the upper northwest about which he writes with exquisite tenderness Having taken on the daunting task of understanding one's dreams as a source of knowledge Jensen achieves the near impossible in this breathtakingly brave and ambitious new work

Monsters Derrick Jensen, 2017-10-01 Monsters is an illustrated collection of wild weird and whimsical tales with a twist These stories are not about mythical creatures here the creatures speak for themselves There's an orc who hates Tolkien a young demon awash in teenage angst an angel abandoned by Jesus who finds the Fates Jensen creates a world both delicately dreamlike and all too real where the villain is sometimes the victim and evil is not always what we thought If stories teach us how to be human then the stories in Monsters are the ones we need now These are fractured fairy tales for grown ups where the roots of sadism are laid bare and the horrors of human supremacism are firmly faced But as in all of Jensen's work love is both always possible and also a call to action By turns macabre melancholy and magical these stories and their accompanying images will leave you wondering who the real monsters are and how they can be defeated What We Leave Behind Derrick Jensen, Aric McBay, 2011-01-04 What We Leave Behind is a piercing impassioned guide to living a truly responsible life on earth Human waste once considered a gift to the soil has become toxic material that has broken the essential cycle of decay and regeneration Here award winning author Derrick Jensen and activist Aric McBay weave historical analysis and devastatingly beautiful prose to remind us that life human and nonhuman will not go on unless we do everything we can to facilitate the most basic process on earth the root of sustainability one being's waste must always become another being's food Sourcebook of Experiential Education Thomas E. Smith, Clifford E. Knapp, 2011-01-20 Experiential education is a philosophy and methodology for building knowledge developing skills and clarifying values by engaging learners in direct experience and focused reflection To understand experiential education what should one be reading This sourcebook introduces philosophers educators and other practitioners whose work is relevant to anyone seeking answers to this question Following brief snapshots of John Dewey and Kurt Hahn the book is organized in four sections Philosophers and Educational Theorists Nature Educators and Outdoor Educators Psychologists and Sociologists School and Program Founders Each chapter focuses on an individual whose philosophy and practice exemplify a biographical and historical model for reaching a deeper understanding of experiential education An appendix includes short biographical sketches of forty five additional people whose contributions to experiential education deserve a closer look This volume provides a much needed overview and foundations for the field for students in courses addressing experiential education challenge education outdoor experiential education recreation education and related fields for learning theorists and curriculum specialists for experiential educators and for educational philosophers Down Along the Haw Anne Melyn Cassebaum, 2014-01-10 North Carolina's Haw River has a rich geographic ecological and cultural history tracked here from its source to its confluence with the Atlantic Ocean From grinding mills to algae science this popular history features interviews with mill owners and workers archaeologists environmentalists farmers water treatment managers and many others whose lives have been connected to this river Additionally it explores life on the river's banks and humans place in its rich ecology Between the Layers: Spiderwoman Theater, Storyweaving, and Survivance Jill Carter, Research Handbook on Fundamental Concepts of Environmental Law Douglas Fisher, 2022-11-25 This expanded and updated Research Handbook delivers an authoritative and in depth guide to the conceptual foundations of environmental law It offers a nuanced reflection on the underlying principles by exploring issues such as human rights constitutional rights sustainable development and environmental impact assessment within the context of environmental law Redeeming the Time Stephen Bede Scharper, 1998-06-01 A thoughtful and interesting contribution to environmental theology literature Choice Richly informative and provocative Review for Religious Stephen Bede Scharper has added a significant new book to the growing collection of Christian ecotheological offerings an admirable job of summarizing the main strands of Christian environmental theologies and highlighting the most valuable contributions of each heartfelt There is much to celebrate in this book presents a comprehensible and accessible guide to the major varieties of what Scharper calls Christian ecological theology In this book he succeeds not just in coherently summarizing a number of the most important voices in ecotheology but also in giving us a blueprint for the changed consciousness necessary to motivate a conversion from our destructive earth damaging behavior to a more earth friendly way of living Worldviews

Green Sisters Sarah McFarland Taylor,2009-09-15 Green sisters environmentally active Catholic nuns work to heal the earth as they cultivate new forms of religious culture Inviting us into their world Taylor offers a firsthand understanding of the experiences of women whose lives bring together orthodoxy and activism and whose lifestyle provides a compelling view of sustainable living

Hope's Edge Frances Moore Lappe,Anna Lappe,2003-04-28 Journey to five continents and see the world of sustainability and conscious eating with new eyes featuring 100 pages of plant based recipes to better nurture ourselves and the planet Thirty years ago Frances Moore Lapp started a revolution in the way Americans think about food and hunger Now Frances and her daughter Anna pick up where Diet for a Small Planet left off Together they set out on an around the world journey to explore the greatest challenges we face in the new millennium Traveling to Asia Africa Latin America and Europe they discovered answers to one of the most urgent issues of our time whether we can transcend the rampant consumerism and capitalism to find the paths that each of us can follow to heal our lives as well as the planet Featuring nearly seventy recipes from celebrated vegetarian culinary pioneers including Alice Waters Mollie Katzen Laurel Robertson Nora Pouillon and Anna Thomas Hope s Edge highlights true trailblazers engaged in social environmental and economic transformations

Earth Jurisprudence Peter D. Burdon,2014-09-19 The idea of human dominion over nature has become entrenched by the dominant rights based interpretation of private property Accordingly nature is not attributed any inherent value and becomes merely the matter of a human property relationship Earth Jurisprudence Private Property and the Environment explores how an alternative conception of property might be instead grounded in the ecocentric concept of an Earth community Recognising that human beings are deeply interconnected with and dependent on nature this concept is proposed as a standard and measure for human law This book argues that the anthropocentric institution of private property needs to be reconceived drawing on international case law indigenous views of property and the land use practices of agrarian communities Peter Burdon considers how private property can be reformulated in a way that fosters duties towards nature Using the theory of earth jurisprudence as a guide he outlines an alternative ecocentric description of private property as a relationship between and among members of the Earth community This book will appeal to those researching in law justice and ecology as well as anyone pursuing an interest more particularly in earth jurisprudence

Communities of Difference P. Trifonas,2005-05-05 This book will look at the implications of educational practices in communities that are differentiated by issues of language culture and technology Trifonas argues that a community is at once a gathering of like minded individuals in solidarity of purpose and conviction and also a gathering that excludes others The chapters in this collection will reveal this tension between theory and practice in order to engage the models of community and the theories of difference that support them as a way to teach to learn and to know The Art of Free Travel Patrick Jones, Meg Ulman, 2015-10-01 Patrick Meg and their family had built a happy sustainable life in regional Victoria But in late 2013 they found themselves craving an adventure a road trip But theirs was a road trip with a difference With Zephyr 10 Woody 1 and Zero their Jack Russell they set off on an epic 6 000km year long cycling journey along Australia's east coast from Daylesford to Cape York and back Their aim was to live as cheaply as possible guerrilla camping hunting foraging and bartering their permaculture skills and living on a diet of free food bush tucker and the occasional fresh road kill They spent time in Aboriginal communities joined an anti fracking blockade documented edible plants and dodged speeding cars and trucks on the country's most dangerous highways The Art of Free Travel is the remarkable story of a rule breaking year of ethical living Landscape Below Bruce C Ball, 2015-02-10 Aimed at all concerned about the environment this book presents a radical vision of the future of farming and community life based on hidden insights from the life and spirit of the soil and on the author's experiences of growing up in the small agricultural community of Clatt in North East Scotland Bruce Ball is a soils specialist with a research and consultancy career spanning 35 years His regular contact with soil in the field and with farmers has led to a deep understanding of the critical importance of soil to our future survival Indigenous and Decolonizing Studies in Education Linda Tuhiwai Smith, Eve Tuck, K. Wayne Yang, 2018-06-14 Indigenous and decolonizing perspectives on education have long persisted alongside colonial models of education yet too often have been subsumed within the fields of multiculturalism critical race theory and progressive education Timely and compelling Indigenous and Decolonizing Studies in Education features research theory and dynamic foundational readings for educators and educational researchers who are looking for possibilities beyond the limits of liberal democratic schooling Featuring original chapters by authors at the forefront of theorizing practice research and activism this volume helps define and imagine the exciting interstices between Indigenous and decolonizing studies and education Each chapter forwards Indigenous principles such as Land as literacy and water as life that are grounded in place specific efforts of creating Indigenous universities and schools community organizing and social movements trans and Two Spirit practices refusals of state policies and land based and water based pedagogies Manifestation of Self Within Place Kumari Patricia Soellner, 2018-07-18 This auto ethnographic work examines interdisciplinarity in the written and visual sense It is a story of migration to a new place and the acceptance of self in that place It is about the essence of self manifested in the visual landscape and taking pride in the authentic voice that emerges through paintings photography and the written story This work has been about acceptance of self and the celebration of a place based artistic practice that reflects an understanding of community individuality ownership and pride A Language Older Than Words Derrick Jensen, 2004-03-01 At once a beautifully poetic memoir and an exploration of the various ways we live in the world A Language Older Than Words explains violence as a pathology that touches every aspect of our lives and indeed affects all aspects of life on Earth This chronicle of a young man s drive to transcend domestic abuse offers a challenging look at our worldwide sense of community and how we can make things better

The Resurgence of the Real Charlene Spretnak, 2012-09-10 In this insightful beautifully written work one of America s most important feminist ecological thinkers reflects on the roots of modernity in Renaissance humanism the Reformation the Scientific Revolution and the Enlightenment Spretnak argues that an ecological postmodern ethos is emerging in the 1990s the creative cosmos and the complex sense of place Both a sharp critique and a graceful performance of the art of the possible The Resurgence of the Real changes the way we think about living in the modern world
