comic books on my way home from school until the owner would throw me out I didn't have the money to buy them my parents didn't have the money to give me I'd peek out from my bedroom at night and see my mother stressing out over a kitchen table full of bills writing out checks and stuffing them in envelopes Kiss your money goodbye I heard more than once hence my title I watched my father come home from work exhausted especially as he got older I didn't want to be the superhero who could fly be invisible shoot lasers out of my eyes or swing from building to building on spider webs I wanted to be the kind that could help people like my parents That's where the title of this book came from Instead of paying your hard earned money out to everyone under the sun watching each paycheck or retirement distribution fly away you're going to welcome it back Hello hard earned money Let's have some fun together I became that superhero and I believe I still am Let's get this party started Books in Print Supplement ,2002
