Kissed By A Fox And Other Stories Of Friendship In Nature:

Kissed by a Fox Priscilla Stuckey, 2012-09-01 Drawing inspiration from sources as varied as ancient philosophers and contemporary biologists Kissed by a Fox challenges readers to enact a different story of nature one in which people and place are not separate where other creatures respond to human need and where humans and all others together create the world Dissatisfaction with nature flows throughout Western civilization as deep as its blood as abiding as its bones Convinced to the marrow that something is deeply wrong with nature the Western world tries to remake it into something better For Priscilla Stuckey this is a fundamental and heartbreaking misconception that nature can be fixed exploited or simply ignored Modern societies try to bend nature to human will instead of engaging in give and take with a living breathing land community Using her personal experiences as the cornerstone Stuckey explores the depth of relationship possible with the birch tree in our backyard the nearby urban creek the dog who settles on our bed each night With the eloquence of the great nature writers before her Stuckey encourages us to open ourselves to the unlimited possibilities of a truly connected life Our Wild

Calling Richard Louv, 2020-11-10 A book that offers hope The New York Times Book Review A wondrous tapestry Carl Safina author of Beyond Words What Animals Think and Feel Audubon Medal winner Richard Louv's landmark book Last Child in the Woods inspired an international movement to connect children and nature Now he redefines the future of human animal coexistence In Our Wild Calling Louv interviews researchers theologians wildlife experts indigenous healers psychologists and others to show how people are connecting with animals in ancient and new ways and how this serves as an antidote to the growing epidemic of human loneliness how dogs can teach children ethical behavior how animal assisted therapy may yet transform the mental health field and what role the human animal relationship plays in our spiritual health He reports on wildlife relocation and on how the growing populations of wild species in urban areas are blurring the lines between domestic and wild animals Our Wild Calling makes the case for protecting promoting and creating a sustainable and shared habitat for all creatures not out of fear but out of love Includes a new interview with the author discussion questions and a resource guide Tamed By a Bear Priscilla Stuckey, 2018-07-10 Priscilla Stuckey shines a brilliant light on the relationship we long to cultivate with the deepest wellsprings of our wisdom and love This is a groundbreaking book written with extraordinary clarity beauty and radical honesty Gail D Storey author of I Promise Not to Suffer A Fool for Love Hikes the Pacific Crest Trail winner of the National Outdoor Book Award In an age of materialism language of spirit or spirits seems at best suspect and at worst alien or naïve When Priscilla Stuckey begins hearing Bear's voice she is a writer and religious studies professor in her fifties Though she enjoys communing with trees and birds and the land she intellectually knows better than to try talking directly with spirit Yet searching for the truth of her own identity leads her directly toward what she is most skeptical of As Stuckey opens to her spirit animal helper and his affectionate jovial wisdom she begins to realize the slow dawning of faith Tamed by a Bear shows one person responding to the call of her heart which is also the call of Earth to all human beings today to listen to a more than human wisdom so people can address the social and environmental crises facing the world At this moment when the future of life on Earth as we know it hangs in the balance threatened by climate change species extinctions and extreme economic inequality the key to survival is found in answering one question How can humans live more peaceably and sustainably with the rest of nature The heart opening conversations between Bear and Stuckey suggest a reinvigorating of nature spirituality in everyday life Their dialogues show an educated thoughtful person grappling with her skepticism about Earth spirits and gradually saying yes to a call from beyond her intellectual understanding
