Broyld,2022-05-25 Winner of the OHS Fred Landon Award In the early nineteenth century Rochester New York and St Catharines Canada West were the last stops on the Niagara branch of the Underground Railroad Both cities handled substantial fugitive slave traffic and were logical destinations for the settlement of runaways because of their progressive stance on social issues including abolition of slavery women s rights and temperance Moreover these urban centers were home to sizable free Black communities as well as an array of individuals engaged in the abolitionist movement such as Frederick Douglass Harriet Tubman Anthony Burns and Hiram Wilson dann j Broyld s Borderland Blacks explores the status and struggles of transient Blacks within this dynamic zone where the cultures and interests of the United States Canada Great Britain and the African Diaspora overlapped Blacks in the two cities shared newspapers annual celebrations religious organizations and kinship and friendship ties Too often historians have focused on the one way flow of fugitives on the Underground Railroad from America to Canada when in fact the situation on the ground was far more fluid involving two way movement and social collaborations Black residents possessed transnational identities and strategically positioned themselves near the American Canadian border where immigration and interaction occurred Borderland Blacks reveals that physical separation via formalized national barriers did not sever concepts of psychological memory or restrict social ties Broyld investigates how the times and terms of emancipation affected Blacks on each side of the border including their use of political agency to pit the United States and British Canada against one another for the best possible outcomes African American History Day by Day Karen Juanita Carrillo,2012-08-22 The proof of any group s importance to history is in the detail a fact made plain by this informative book s day by day documentation of the impact of African Americans on life in the United States One of the easiest ways to grasp any aspect of history is to look at it as a continuum African American History Day by Day A Reference Guide to Events provides just such an opportunity Organized in the form of a calendar this book allows readers to see the dates of famous births deaths and events that have affected the lives of African Americans and by extension of America as a whole Each day features an entry with information about an important event that occurred on that date Background on the highlighted event is provided along with a link to at least one primary source document and references to books and websites that can provide more information While there are other calendars of African American history this one is set apart by its level of academic detail It is not only a calendar but also an easy to use reference and learning tool The Agitators Dorothy Wickenden,2022-02-22 Harriet Tubman strategically brilliant and uncannily prescient rescued some seventy enslaved people from Maryland s Eastern Shore and shepherded them north along the underground railroad In Auburn New York she entrusted passengers to Martha Coffin Wright a Quaker abolitionist and leader of the women s rights movement and Frances A Seward whose husband served as New York s governor and senator and then as secretary of state under Abraham Lincoln The Agitators opens in the 1820s when Tubman is enslaved in Maryland and Wright and Seward are young homemakers in upstate New York bound by law and tradition and it ends after the Civil War Many of the most prominent figures of the era William H Seward Lincoln Frederick Douglass Elizabeth Cady Stanton Charles Sumner John Brown William Lloyd Garrison are seen through the discerning eyes of the protagonists So are the most explosive political debates about the civil rights of African Americans and women about the enlistment of Black troops and about opposing interpretations of the Constitution Wickenden traces the second American revolution these women fought to bring about and its lasting effects on the country Profoundly relevant to our own time The Agitators brings a vibrant original voice to this transformative period in our history Book jacket A History of African-American Leadership John

White, Bruce J. Dierenfield, 2014-06-11 The story of black emancipation is one of the most dramatic themes of American history covering racism murder poverty and extreme heroism Figures such as Malcolm X and Martin Luther King are the demigods of the freedom movements both film and household figures This major text explores the African American experience of the twentieth century with particular reference to six outstanding race leaders Their philosophies and strategies for racial advancement are compared and set against the historical framework and constraints within which they functioned The book also examines the grass roots of black protest movements in America paying particular attention to the major civil rights organizations as well as black separatist groups such as the Nation of Islam The Arts of Leading

Edward William Randolph Llywelyn Brooks, Michael Lamb, 2024 This multi author volume turns to the humanities to explore what we can learn about leadership when we shift our lens away from business politics and the social sciences to explore the rich diverse and nuanced perspectives of the liberal arts Drawing insights from leading scholars in classics philosophy religion literature history and the visual and performing arts this book considers how diverse exemplars and a wide range of disciplinary ways of knowing can illuminate complex aspects of leadership that are often obscured in a leadership discourse typically centered on business and politics It asks fundamental questions about human social life What does it mean to lead Whom do we consider to be leaders And how might diverse perspectives from the humanities expand how leadership is imagined represented and enacted Rather than instrumentalizing the humanities or reducing them to mere management resources The Arts of Leading engages diverse perspectives from the humanities on their own terms to uncover alternative ways of imagining embodying and enacting leadership across different historical moral and cultural contexts The result is a series of insightful and refreshing essays that challenge leaders scholars and citizens to consider the nuanced meaning of leadership in our complex world Encyclopedia of American Women and Religion June Melby Benowitz, 2017-08-18

Mamigonian,Karen Racine,2010 Like snapshots of everyday life in the past the compelling biographies in this book document the making of the Black Atlantic world since the sixteenth century from the point of view of those who were part of it Centering on the diaspora caused by the forced migration of Africans to Europe and across the Atlantic to the Americas the chapters explore the slave trade enslavement resistance adaptation cultural transformations and the quest for citizenship rights The variety of experiences constraints and choices depicted in the book and their changes across time and space defy the idea of a unified black experience At the same time it is clear that in the twentieth century black identity unified people of African descent who along with other minority groups struggled against colonialism and racism and presented alternatives to a version of modernity that excluded and alienated them Drawing on a rich array of little known documents the contributors reconstruct the lives and times of some well known characters along with ordinary people who rarely left written records and would otherwise have remained anonymous and unknown Contributions by Aaron P Althouse Alan Bloom Marcus J M de Carvalho Aisnara Perera D az Mar a de los ngeles Meri o Fuentes Fl vio dos Santos Gomes Hilary Jones Beatriz G Mamigonian Charles Beatty Medina Richard Price Sally Price Cassandra Pybus Karen Racine Ty M Reese Jo o Jos Reis Lorna Biddle Rinear Meredith L Roman Maya Talmon Chvaicer and Jerome Teelucksingh American Slavery on Film Caron Knauer,2023-02-14 A comprehensive and timely resource on the depictions in film of enslaved African Americans and slavery from the Antebellum Period to Emancipation American Slavery on Film highlights historical and contemporary depictions in film of the resistance rebellion and resilience of enslaved African Americans in the United States from the Antebellum period to Emancipation In her study of such films as Uncle Tom s Cabin 1914 a silent movie adaptation of Harriet Beecher Stowe s novel the groundbreaking and successful television miniseries Roots 1977 and the Harriet Tubman biopic Harriet 2019 Caron Knauer analyzes how African American slavery has been and continues to be portrayed in major studio blockbusters and independent films alike Separating the romanticized and unrealistic depictions of slavery from the more accurate but often unflinching portrayals of its horrors the author covers a wide range of topics including the impact of slavery on popular culture the Underground Railroad Maroon communities and the Los Angeles Film Rebellion of the 1960s As a result this book delivers a comprehensive readable and timely examination of enslaved African Americans and slavery in America s film
