Have You Seen Zandile:

Have You Seen Zandile? Gcina Mhlophe, Maralin Vanrenen, Thembi Mtshali-Jones, 1990 Zandile lives with her grandmother in Durban a bright child who dreams of growing up to become a teacher until her world is turned upside down when she is kidnapped by her natural mother and expected to conform to the ways of life in the harsh rural Transkei homeland Have You Seen Zandile has won the Edinburgh Festival's Fringe First Award and Gcina Mhlophe won Chicago's Jefferson Award for Best Actress

Have You Seen Zandile? Gcina Mhlophe, 2002 Zandile is snatched away from her grandmother's loving care and taken to live with her matriarcal family in rural Transkei Moving funny and convincing full of Zandile's shrewd youthful insights the play offers an illuminating window onto the 1960s with its issues of white dominance rural hardship and black female repression The Black Theatre Movement in the United States and in South Africa Olga Barrios, 2008 El creixement dels moviments sociopolítics entre els anys seixanta i noranta als Estats Units i a Sudàfrica va establir els fermes fonaments sobre els quals amb una força i ímpetu sense precedents es va forjar el teatre negre d'aquests anys Forma i contingut van sorgir a l'una del compromís polític i artístic adoptat per aquests artistes contra l'imperialisme el colonialisme i el racisme occidentals Per primera vegada en la història el teatre negre dels Estats Units i de Sudàfrica analitzava i valorava les arrels negres per a poder il·luminar la recerca d'un futur de llibertat No obstant això el context sociopolític i les circumstàncies específiques de cada país han generat igualment els trets distintius del teatre afronord-americà i negre sud-africà incloses les diferències de gènere manifestos en ramificacions artístiques totalment heterogènies i niques

Nawa, 2019-01-23 Are artists seismographs during processes of transformation Is theatre a mirror of society And how does it influence society offstage To address these questions this collection brings together analyses of cultural policy in post apartheid South Africa and actors of the performing arts discussing political theatre and cultural activism Case studies grant inside views of the State Theatre in Pretoria the Market Theatre in Johannesburg and the Baxter Theatre in Cape Town followed by a documentation of panel discussions on the Soweto Theatre The texts collected here bring to the surface new faces and voices who advance the performing arts with their images and lexicons revolving around topics such as patriarchy femicide and xenophobia African Women Playwrights Kathy A. Perkins, 2009 For the first time a distinctive collection of plays by African women published in English Decolonising African Theatre Samuel Ravengai, 2024-04-11 Decolonisation can be pursued in different ways After many years of developing a critical language to engage coloniality the most urgent need in African theatre is to develop new theories and methods in our manufactories This Element uses Afrosocnology as a theory to read and comment on African theatre The Element particularly focuses on the history of laboratories in which it was tested and emerged the historicization of rombic theatre and the crafting of a theory of the playtext which has been named theatric theory to distinguish it from the Aristotelian dramatic theory The second dimension of the theory is the performatic technique This Element also explain Afrosonic mime through examples drawn from the workshops conducted in training performers The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary South African Theatre Martin Middeke, Peter Paul Schnierer, 2015-11-19 South Africa has a uniquely rich and diverse theatre tradition which has responded energetically to the country's remarkable transition helping to define the challenges and contradictions of this young democracy This volume considers the variety of theatre forms and the work of the major playwrights and theatre makers producing work in democratic South Africa. It offers an overview of theatre pioneers and theatre forms in Part One before concentrating on the work of individual playwrights in Part Two. Through its wide ranging survey of indigenous drama written predominantly in the English language and the analysis of more than 100 plays, a detailed account is provided of post-apartheid South African theatre and its engagement with the country's recent history. Part One offers six overview chapters on South African theatre pioneers and theatre forms. These include consideration of the work of artists such as Barney Simon, Mbongeni Ngema, Phyllis Klotz, the collaborations of William Kentridge and the Handspring Puppet Company, the work of Magnet Theatre and of physical and popular community theatre forms. Part Two features chapters on twelve major playwrights including Athol Fugard, Reza de Wet, Lara Foot Zakes, Mda, Ya I Farber, Mpumelelo Paul Grootboom, Mike van Graan and Brett Bailey. It includes a survey of emerging playwrights and significant plays and the book closes with an interview with Aubrey Sekhabi, the Artistic Director of the South African State Theatre in Pretoria. Written by a team of over twenty leading international scholars, The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary South African Theatre is a unique resource that will be invaluable to students and scholars from a range of different disciplines as well as theatre practitioners.

Actresses' Audition Speeches Jean Marlow, 2014-05-20. Finding good interesting audition pieces is a demanding and difficult process for actresses. This revised edition of Actresses' Audition Speeches contains over 40 speeches and includes a wide selection of pieces taken from plays written or produced recently such as Losing Louis, Whose Life is it Anyway? and His Dark Materials. There are speeches for a variety of accents and ages taken from both classical and modern plays to suit all audition requirements. There is also an introductory section containing advice from directors and casting directors on how to audition successfully.

Trends in Twenty-First-Century African Theatre and Performance Kene Igweonu, 2011. Trends in Twenty First Century African Theatre and Performance is a collection of regionally focused articles on African theatre and performance. The volume provides a broad exploration of the current state of African theatre and performance and considers the directions they are taking in the 21st Century. It contains sections on current trends in theatre and performance studies, on applied community theatre and on playwrights. The chapters have evolved out of a working group process in which papers were submitted to peer group scrutiny over a period of four years at four international conferences. The book will be particularly useful as a key text for undergraduate and postgraduate courses in non-western theatre and performance where this includes African theatre and performance and would be a very useful resource for theatre scholars and anyone interested in African performance forms and cultures.
