Harlow In Hollywood The Blonde Bombshell In The Glamour Capital 1928 1937:

Harlow in Hollywood, Expanded Edition Darrel Rooney, Mark A. Vieira, 2022-10-18 At last the story of how Hollywood shaped a myth and determined a young woman's reality. A town, a remarkable town, became the backdrop for one of Hollywood's most incredible stories: a life rife with glamour, pleasure, power, and in the end, utter sorrow. Her story lives in the pages and breathtaking pictures of Harlow in Hollywood. When Jean Harlow became the Blonde Bombshell, it was all Hollywood's doing. She was the first big screen sex symbol, the Platinum Blonde, the mold for every famous fair-haired superstar who would emulate her. Yes, even Marilyn Monroe followed Harlow's lead. In her short decade in Hollywood, Harlow created a new genre of movie star; her fans idolized her for her peerless image, her beautiful body, and her gorgeous facade. Harlow in Hollywood is the story of how a town and an industry created her, a story that's never been told before. Harlow in Hollywood Darrell Rooney, Mark A. Vieira, 2011 When Jean Harlow became the Blonde Bombshell, she was the first big screen sex symbol and the mould for every famous fair-haired superstar who would emulate her. Renowned Harlow expert Darrell Rooney and Hollywood historian Mark Vieira join forces to create beautiful and remarkably accurate portraits of Harlow's life. With more than 280 rare images, the authors not only make a case for Harlow as an Art Deco artifact, they also showcase the fabulous places where she lived, worked, and played. Hollywood v. Beauty and the Synchronicity of the Six Kirk Henderson, 2020-05-04 Hollywood v. Beauty and the Synchronicity of the Six presents the biographies of six movie actresses from the 1920s to the 1970s, with a single actress representing her decade of activity: Louise Brooks (1920s), Jean Harlow (1930s), Hedy Lamarr (1940s), Barbara Payton (1950s), Jean Seberg (1960s), and Sondra Locke (1970s). The synchronicity between the lives of these women is phenomenal, and their stories are as dramatic and exciting as any to come from that town stretching all the way from complete ruination to thrilling triumph. Along the way, the story of movies in the Golden Age unfolds as six movie actresses try to survive in the most artificial place on Earth. The power elite of Hollywood could transform unknowns into movie stars or erase the famous into oblivion. Since beauty has its own innate power, it is inevitable these two entities would face off. Dueling Harlows Tom Lisanti, 2024-07-18 In 1965, producers Joseph E. Levine and Bill Sargent were racing to get their problem-laden biopics of Jean Harlow both titled Harlow into theaters. First, Levine's film starred Carroll Baker in a big-budget color production; Sargent's movie starred Carol Lynley in a quickie black and white production shot in a new process called Electronovision. In the press, the two producers conducted one of the nastiest feuds Hollywood had ever witnessed, nearly culminating in fistcuffs at the 1965 Academy Awards ceremony. In recounting the making of the two films, this book expanded from the original self-published edition touches on Jean Harlow's life, the failed attempts to make a Harlow biopic in the 1950s, and the reviled bestselling 1964 biography. It details the aftermath of each movie's release, from scathing reviews to disappointing box office returns to the several lawsuits. Newly discussed are the portrayals of Jean Harlow on stage shortly after the Levine and Sargent films and the making of the 1977 film Hughes and

Hollywoods Star-crossed Blonde Bombshells Charles River Editors,2017-02-23 Includes pictures Includes the actresses quotes about their lives and careers Includes online resources and a bibliography for further reading Includes a table of contents When the American Film Institute ranked its top 50 screen legends of the 20th century many of the people named had careers spanning several decades but one of them managed the feat despite living less than three decades Ranked as the 22nd greatest actress of the 20th century Jean Harlow was on the screen for less than 10 years but in that time the Blonde Bombshell became the most popular actress of the 1930s eclipsing superstars like Joan Crawford and Norma Shearer along the way In fact the platinum blonde accomplished that feat as a leading lady for just 5 years before her premature death of renal failure at just 26 years old Although Harlow is remembered today more for her tragic fate than her career she was influential well beyond the 1930s Despite being so young she managed to craft a persona as a seductive femme fatale that would critically shape how subsequent actresses approached similar roles and of course her platinum blonde hair served as a template for future blonde bombshells like Marilyn Monroe who actually watched Harlow s movies and studied her performances to model her own early career off the dead legend On January 16 1942 just a few weeks after Pearl Harbor brought the United States into World War II the nation suffered what were considered the first civilian deaths of the war when a plane crashed into the side of a mountain southwest of Las Vegas Aboard the plane were 15 servicemen but the plane was also carrying one of Hollywood s biggest stars actress Carole Lombard Although Lombard s death and her marriage to Gone With the Wind star Clark Gable have overshadowed her career her untimely death in 1942 cut short the life of one of Hollywood s most prominent stars at the time In fact Lombard s platinum look and her unique mannerisms had helped her become the biggest star of the screwball genre by the end of the 1930s and her movies were so successful that she was the highest paid actress in Hollywood by the start of the 1940s Although Lombard has been memorialized in many fitting ways as an actress one of her biggest contributions to Hollywood was the blond archetype that the film industry used successfully for decades in screwball comedies paving the way for the success of women like Marilyn Monroe Few actresses lived their lives in the public eye more than Marilyn Monroe and yet her life remains shrouded in mystery to this day While it is common knowledge that Marilyn s life is a rags to riches story her life is bookended by hazy details surrounding her early life and even more mysterious death Who was Norma Jean Baker Who was Marilyn Monroe The unknown has contributed to the mythology that has since become part of her legacy and she nurtured it Marilyn was adept at constructing a fanciful mystique about her early years and it s become all but impossible to disentangle the truth from the narrative that Marilyn helped establish Fittingly even though Marilyn is instantly recognizable and still one of film s greatest icons her films remain unfamiliar to the vast majority of the public Although she came of age in an era when Hollywood studios were looking for blonde bombshells like Marilyn Monroe and she followed that path to instant stardom Jayne Mansfield had one of the most unique Hollywood careers in the 1950s and 1960s After getting her start on Broadway Mansfield shot to fame in Hollywood during the late 50s with her platinum blonde hair and picturesque body and her life became equal parts movie star and celebrity with her appearances on film more than matched by her appearances in tabloids and Playboy
