American Literature in Transition, 1990-2000

Stephen J. Burn, 2017-12-28 Written in the shadow of the approaching millennium American literature in the 1990s was beset by bleak announcements of the end of books the end of postmodernism and even the end of literature Yet as conservative critics marked the century's twilight hours by launching elegies for the conventional canon American writers proved the continuing vitality of their literature by reinvigorating inherited forms by adopting and adapting emerging technologies to narrative ends and by finding new voices that had remained outside that canon for too long By reading 1990s literature in a sequence of shifting contexts from independent presses to the AIDS crisis and from angelology to virtual reality American Literature in Transition 1990 2000 provides the fullest map yet of the changing shape of a rich and diverse decade's literary production It offers new perspectives on the period's well known landmarks Toni Morrison Thomas Pynchon David Foster Wallace but also overdue recognition to writers such as Ana Castillo Evan Dara Steve Erickson and Carole Maso

Anthology of Australian Prose Poetry Cassandra Atherton, Paul Hetherington, 2020-09-29 Prose poetry is a resurgent literary form in the English speaking world and has been rapidly gaining popularity in Australia Cassandra Atherton and Paul Hetherington have gathered a broad and representative selection of the best Australian prose poems written over the last fifty years The Anthology of Australian Prose Poetry includes numerous distinguished prose poets Jordie Albiston Joanne Burns Gary Catalano Anna Couani Alex Skovron Samuel Wagan Watson Ania Walwicz and many more and documents prose poetry's growing appeal over recent decades from the poetic margins to the mainstream This collection reframes our understanding not only of this dynamic poetic form but of Australian poetry as a whole

The Unfinished Atomic Bomb

Cassandra Atherton, David Lowe, Alyson Miller, 2017-12-26 In its diversity of perspectives The Unfinished Atomic Bomb Shadows and Reflections is testament to the ways in which contemplations of the A bomb are endlessly shifting rarely fixed on the same point or perspective The compilation of this book is significant in this regard offering Japanese American Australian and European perspectives In doing so the essays here represent a complex series of interpretations of the bombing of Hiroshima and its implications both for history and for the present day From Kuznick's extensive biographical account of the Hiroshima bomb pilot Paul Tibbets and contentious questions about the moral and strategic efficacy of dropping the A bomb and how that has resonated through time to Jacobs reflections on the different ways in which Hiroshima and its memorialization are experienced today each chapter considers how this moment in time emerges persistently in public and cultural consciousness The discussions here are often difficult sometimes controversial and at times oppositional reflecting the characteristics of A bomb scholarship more broadly The aim is to explore the various ways in which Hiroshima is remembered but also to consider the ongoing legacy and impact of atomic warfare the reverberations of which remain powerfully felt

Habermas and Literature Geoff Boucher, 2021-06-03 Although Habermas has written about the cultural role of literature and about literary works he has not systematically articulated a literary critical method as a component of either communicative reason or post metaphysical thinking Habermas and Literature brings Habermasian concepts and categories into contact with aesthetic and cultural theories in and around the Frankfurt School and beyond Its central claim is that Habermas contribution to literary and cultural criticism is the concept of literary rationality and the notion that literature performs a key role in the formation of the modern social imaginary Habermas and Literature maintains that literary works have two faces discursive intervention in the public sphere and personal integration of imaginative disclosures that depend upon two modalities of literary reception critique and identification It develops the resulting literary theory through detailed discussion of the theories advanced by Habermas followed in each case by synthetic and reconstructive argumentation that brings the framework of communicative reason into dialogue with literary methods aesthetic theories and psychoanalytic categories It does so through close engagement with debates around aesthetic rationality world disclosure social imaginaries post secular society and the utopian demand for happiness articulated by artworks In the process the Habermasian position is critically reconstructed when necessary with reference to psychoanalytic and literary theories and tested in relation to demanding fiction and popular works

Haunted by Words Alyson Miller, 2013 Including controversial works such as Bret Easton Ellis American Psycho James Frey s A Million Little Pieces Salman Rushdie s The Satanic Verses and Philip Pullman s His Dark Materials trilogy this book analyses why literature continues to provoke public debate and what scandalous works suggest about literature the literary and the world
