Guardians Of The Flutes Volume 1 Guardians Of The Flutes Volume 1:

Guardians of the Flutes, Volume 1 Gilbert Herdt,1994-12-15 This unique study of boy inseminating rituals among the Sambia of New Guinea challenges our deepest assumptions about the role of culture in understanding homosexuality and gender identity development

Playing with Things Mary Weismantel,2021-08-17 More than a thousand years ago on the north coast of Peru Indigenous Moche artists created a large and significant corpus of sexually explicit ceramic works of art They depicted a diversity of sex organs and sex acts and an array of solitary and interconnected human and nonhuman bodies To the modern eye these Moche sex pots as Mary Weismantel calls them are lively and provocative but also enigmatic creations whose import to their original owners seems impossible to grasp In Playing with Things Weismantel shows that there is much to be learned from these ancient artifacts not merely as inert objects from a long dead past but as vibrant Indigenous things alive in their own human temporality From a new materialist perspective she fills the gaps left by other analyses of the sex pots in pre Columbian studies where sexuality remains marginalized and in sexuality studies where non Western art is largely absent Taking a decolonial approach toward an archaeology of sexuality and breaking with long dominant iconographic traditions this book explores how the pots play jokes make babies give power and hold water considering the sex pots as actual ceramic bodies that interact with fleshly bodies now and in the ancient past A beautifully written study that will be welcomed by students as well as specialists Playing with Things is a model for archaeological and art historical engagement with the liberating power of queer theory and Indigenous studies

Culture and Madness Inga-Britt Krause,Begum Maitra,2014-12-21 An authoritative engaging training resource for professionals working with people of different cultures designed to deepen understanding of culture and mental health It comprises a book and 150 minute film for individual or group learning

Sex, Risk, and Society Sarah H. Pollock,2025-05-01 When is sex abnormal and when is it dangerous A multi disciplinary approach that includes sociology anthropology history and philosophy provides an understanding of how cultural norms have shifted over time and the implications of these shifts Proposed definitions of abnormal and dangerous and their impact on public policies and practices are evaluated as are our contemporary assumptions about sex and sexuality and the consequences of those assumptions This should also serve as a toolkit for how to answer questions about sexuality such that readers can apply this model as new questions and social concerns about sex arise in the future

Childhood and Adolescence Uwe P. Gielen,Jaipaul L. Roopnarine,2016-01-11 This comprehensive reference analyzes psychological and anthropological studies concerning child and adolescent development across cultures digging into often forgotten topics like street children child soldiers and parenting in war torn countries Traditionally research on child and adolescent development has focused on American youth inadvertently neglecting 96 percent of the world s children This all encompassing volume introduces global perspectives on young people across the globe focusing on such topics as parenting and childcare gender roles violence against girls adolescence in poor and rich countries and developmental psychopathology across cultures Recently updated the second edition includes the latest findings in the field additional content and new photos and charts With contributions from leading psychological and anthropological scholars chapters address worldwide changes in children s lives parent child relationships sibling relationships immigrant children and their families and adolescents in both industrialized and developing nations A special section discusses children living in difficult circumstances including street children child soldiers global nomads and children suffering from various internalizing and externalizing disorders This book is the perfect introduction to the latest trends in developmental psychology Foreign Bodies Alphonso Lingis,2014-06-11

Foreign Bodies analyzes how our culture elaborates for us the bodies we have by natural evolution Calling on the new means contemporary thinkers have used to understand the body Alphonso Lingis explores forms of power pleasure and pain and libidinal identity The book contrasts the findings of theory with the practice of the body as formulated in quite different kinds of language the language of plastic art the artwork body builders make of themselves biography anthropology and literature Lingis explains how we experience our own powers of perception our postures attitudes gestures and purposive action how our susceptibility to pain and excitability by pleasure acquiesce in and resist the ways they are identified and manipulated today how cultures code our sensuality with phallic and with fluid identities how others dress appeals to and puts demands on us The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theory Lisa

Disch,Mary Hawkesworth,2018-02-01 The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theory provides a rich overview of the analytical frameworks and theoretical concepts that feminist theorists have developed to analyze the known world Featuring leading feminist theorists from diverse regions of the globe this collection delves into forty nine subject areas demonstrating the complexity of feminist challenges to established knowledge while also engaging areas of contestation within feminist theory Demonstrating the interdisciplinary nature of feminist theory the chapters offer innovative analyses of topics central to social and political science cultural studies and humanities discourses associated with medicine and science and issues in contemporary critical theory that have been transformed through feminist theorization The handbook identifies limitations of key epistemic assumptions that inform traditional scholarship and shows how theorizing from women s and men s lives has profound effects on the conceptualization of central categories whether the field of analysis is aesthetics biology cultural studies development economics film studies health history literature politics religion science studies sexualities violence or war Camp All-American, Hanoi Jane, and the High-and-tight Carol Burke,2004

A folklorist who taught as a civilian professor at the Naval Academy in Annapolis Maryland for seven years Carol Burke analyzes the military as an occupational folk group arguing that every detail of military culture from the high and tight haircut to the chants sung in basic training is laden with significance Exploring the minute ways that the cult of masculinity persists in all branches of the United States military today Burke unearths fascinating details and offers eye opening anecdotes about basic training military dress and speech the history of the marching chant the disdain some veterans still harbor for Jane Fonda and the colorful and sometimes questionable rituals of military manhood Postulating that culture is made not born Burke urges the military to consciously change its policy of gendered apartheid so it can evolve into the gender race and sexuality neutral democratic institution it needs to be Social Analysis ,1982 Money and Moralities in Contemporary Asia Lan Anh Hoang,Cheryll Alipio,2025-10-01 Money and Moralities in Contemporary Asia provides original nuanced insights into social meanings of money and wealth in moral economies of Asia Through case studies from South and Southeast Asia the collection sheds important light on how the new mobilities and wealth created by neoliberal globalization transform people s ways of life notions of personhood and their meaning making of the world It highlights the moral dilemmas and anxieties emerging from the profound socio economic transformations that are taking place across the region and deepens our understanding of local cultures as well as the inner contradictions of global capital in Asian contexts With rich ethnographic insights and a diverse range of empirical contexts chapters in this volume reveal multifaceted complexities and contradictions in the relationship between money and moralities Money they affirm is not an impersonal objective economic instrument with homogenizing powers but a culturally constructed and socially mediated currency in which meanings are constantly contested and re negotiated across time and space Chinese Male Homosexualities Travis S. K. Kong,2010-07-13 This book presents a groundbreaking exploration of masculinities and homosexualities amongst Chinese gay men It provides a sociological account of masculinity desire sexuality identity and citizenship in contemporary Chinese societies and within the constellation of global culture Kong reports the results of an extensive ethnographic study of contemporary Chinese gay men in a wide range of different locations including mainland China Hong Kong and the Chinese overseas community in London showing how Chinese gay men live their everyday lives Relating Chinese male homosexuality to the extensive social and cultural theories on gender sexuality and the body postcolonialism and globalisation the book examines the idea of queer space and numerous queer flows of capital bodies ideas images and commodities around the world The book concludes that different gay male identities such as the conspicuously consuming memba in Hong Kong the urban tongzhi the money boy in China and the feminised golden boy in London emerge in different locations and are all caught up in the transnational flow of queer cultures which are at once local and global Handbook of Adolescent Psychology, Volume 2 Richard M. Lerner,Laurence Steinberg,2009-04-06 The study of and interest in adolescence in the field of psychology and related fields continues to grow necessitating an expanded revision of this seminal work This multidisciplinary handbook edited by the premier scholars in the field Richard Lerner and Laurence Steinberg and with contributions from the leading researchers reflects the latest empirical work and growth in the field Understanding and Teaching U.S. Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender History Leila J. Rupp,Susan K. Freeman,2014-12-17 Understanding and Teaching U S Lesbian Gay Bisexual and Transgender History is the first book designed for teachers of U S history at all levels who want to integrate queer history into the standard curriculum Bringing together inspiring narratives from teachers in high schools and universities informative topical chapters about significant historical moments and themes and innovative essays about sources and interpretive strategies well suited to the history classroom this volume is a valuable resource for anyone who thinks history should be an inclusive story

Sexual Antagonism, Gender, and Social Change in Papua New Guinea Fitz John Porter Poole, Gilbert H. Herdt, 1982

Sex, Sexuality, and the Anthropologist Fran Markowitz, Michael Ashkenazi, 1999

Sex in the field the dilemma of whether to cover up or display sexual identities and desires during the course of anthropological fieldwork is one of the best kept secrets in the discipline Contending that the conventional pose of a genderless asexual ethnographic researcher is impossible to sustain this volume brings sex and sexuality into the open as essential components of ethnographic study that must be overtly recognized and proactively addressed

Sex Sexuality and the Anthropologist recounts the real life experiences of anthropologists who are forced to acknowledge that their hosts in the field view them as gendered beings in a social context not as asexual objective observers Far from controlling the research environment and defining the terms of interviewer informant relationships these researchers find they must engage in a process of negotiating their position including their sexual position within the communities they study Ranging from public baths in Austria to lesbian bars in Taiwan and from Mexico to Nigeria to Finland to Japan

Sex Sexuality and the Anthropologist raises critical questions about ethnographers reflexivity subjectivity and detachment confronting the challenge of a holistic approach to the anthropological enterprise

Mangrove Man David Lipset, 1997-11-13

The first modern ethnography of the Murik a relatively large and important community settled on the Sepik River estuary in Papua New Guinea

Pacific Youth Helen Lee, 2019-10-31

Pacific populations are becoming younger and this youth bulge is often perceived as a dangerous precursor to civil unrest Yet young people are also a valuable resource holding exciting potential for the future of island nations Addressing these conflicting views of youth this volume presents ethnographic case studies of young people from across the Pacific and the diaspora Moving beyond the typical focus on youth problems in reports by Pacific governments and development agencies the authors examine the highly diverse lives and perspectives of young people in urban and rural locations They celebrate the contributions of youth to their communities while examining the challenges they face The case studies explore the impacts of profound local and global changes and cover a wide sweep of youth experiences across themes of education employment and economic inequalities political and civil engagement and migration and the diaspora Contributors to this volume bring many decades of experience of research with Pacific people as well as fresh perspectives from early career and graduate researchers Most are anthropologists and their chapters contribute to the interdisciplinary fields of youth studies and Pacific studies offering thought provoking insights into the possibilities for Pacific youth as they face uncertain futures

Stuck Moving Peter Benson, 2023-04-11

AUTHOR S NOTE

This book is unconventional A self conscious experiment in form that draws together two vernaculars anthropological thought and the pop culture of my youth It is a fraught exercise I write as a White guy about angst and alienation in the privileged spaces of anthropology and higher education I appreciate the irony I hope nonetheless that my experiences with and critical perspectives on social conventions the culture of liberalism and ableism in academia might be useful I seek to expand possibilities of anthropological representation while challenging epistemological aesthetic and professional norms in my discipline It bothers me that anthropology can be so sanctimonious I take aim at the ableist conceit that anthropologists are non characters studying a messy world Much of my life has been a mess My work has been undertaken amid struggles with pregnancy loss bipolar disorder and drug addiction I have deep regrets about my participation in an exploitative field I have deep regrets about many things I have hurt people and been hurt by people I hope my stories and reflections add to what others have already written about a more open honest and self deprecating anthropology

Rational Rules Shaun Nichols, 2021-02-11 Moral systems like normative systems more broadly involve complex mental representations Rational Rules proposes that moral learning can be understood in terms of general purpose rational learning procedures Nichols argues that statistical learning can help answer a wide range of questions about moral thought Why do people think that rules apply to actions rather than consequences Why do people expect new rules to be focused on actions rather than consequences How do people come to believe a principle of liberty according to which whatever is not expressly prohibited is permitted How do people decide that some normative claims hold universally while others hold only relative to some group The resulting account has both empiricist and rationalist features since the learning procedures are domain general the result is an empiricist theory of a key part of moral development and since the learning procedures are forms of rational inference the account entails that crucial parts of our moral system enjoy rational credentials Moral rules can also be rational in the sense that they can be effective for achieving our ends given our ecological settings Rational Rules argues that at least some central components of our moral systems are indeed ecologically rational they are good at helping us attain common goals Nichols argues that the account might be extended to capture moral motivation as a special case of a much more general phenomenon of normative motivation On this view a basic form of rule representation brings motivation along automatically and so part of the explanation for why we follow moral rules is that we are built to follow rules quite generally
