

In Loving Memory Mum

On Your Birthday

*The day you left and gained your wings my heart just broke in two
I wish you could have stayed with me
But Heaven needed you*

*You left me with the memories
And I love you dearly still No matter how much time goes by You know I always will*

*You were a very special person
With kindness in your heart
And the love we had together
Grows stronger now we're apart*

*I know I cannot bring you back Although I wish it everyday
But a piece of me went with you
The day you went away* prose McSherry documents his first few decades with four siblings very little money and two parents whose respective mental illnesses intensified as the years progress Although his story is certainly unique McSherry's book has much to say about the nobility and struggle that characterize every individual life A deeply affecting surprisingly unsentimental description of surviving and transcending a tumultuous upbringing Kirkus Discoveries To say McSherry has lived a hard knock life is an understatement but the Lehman High School teacher and Brio Award winner has crafted a Bronx version of Angela's Ashes that resonates with hope wit and perseverance Derek Woods host of the television program Bronx Magazine that's how they deal with the world. In this novel about prison and drug culture filled with brutality and injustices the compassion we feel for the narrator lends the story a moral message that nobody is so simply bad as to deserve the death sentence. As the Gazette commented the book puts a human face on convicted criminals, makes us face squarely the issue of capital punishment and assess how we judge guilt, innocence and the ambiguous space in between. The Calgary Straight called the book a love letter to those who are serving time and the families who serve with them. It's also a book about unconditional love and how far we will go for it according to Musgrave who spent eight years writing this novel and knows plenty about prison life having met and married her husband Stephen Reid during his incarceration in the 1980s. She had just finished a draft of the novel when Reid was arrested again following a bank robbery in 1999 just months after the CBC aired a Life and Times documentary about the couple. A brilliant mix of black humour, stark tragedy and poignant humanity. Cargo of Orchids is Musgrave's first novel in over ten years. She has three times been nominated for the Governor General's Award once for fiction The Charcoal Burners and twice for poetry A Man to Marry, A Man to Bury and Grave Dirt and Selected Strawberries and has published over twenty books. She likes novels with intense use of language and good plotting. I want to give readers a harrowing ride, she says. I like to think of Cargo of Orchids as a suspense novel which is also an exploration of the heart.
