Here though the world explode these two survive. And it is always eighteen ninety five. So wrote Sherlockian Vincent Starrett in his 1942 poem 221b soon after the United States entered World War II. Even as those years brought terrible challenges so too has 2020 been a year of great testing for so many of us as a global pandemic rages and good people are called to stand against evil. For Sherlockians comfort can be found in climbing those seventeen stairs to the Baker Street sitting room where it is always eighteen ninety five or a few decades on either side of it.
