The Politics and Governance of Blame Matthew Flinders, Gergana Dimova, Markus Hinterleitner, R. A. W. Rhodes, R. Kent Weaver, 2024-06-24 From coping with Covid 19 through to manging climate change from Brexit through to the barricading of Congress from democratic disaffection to populist pressures from historical injustices to contemporary social inequalities and from scapegoating through to sacrificial lambs the common thread linking each of these themes and many more is an emphasis on blame But how do we know who or what is to blame How do politicians engage in blame avoidance strategies How can blaming backfire or boomerang Are there situations in which politicians might want to be blamed What is the relationship between avoiding blame and claiming credit How do developments in relation to machine learning and algorithmic governance affect blame based assumptions By focusing on the politics and governance of blame from a range of disciplines perspectives and standpoints this volume engages with all these questions and many more Distinctive contributions include an emphasis on peacekeeping and public diplomacy on source credibility and anthropological explanations on cultural bias and on expert opinions on polarisation and de politicisation and on trust and post truth politics With contributions from the world s leading scholars and emerging research leaders this volume not only develops the theoretical disciplinary empirical and normative boundaries of blame based analyses but it also identifies new research agendas and asks distinctive and original questions about the politics and governance of blame

Place Based Approaches to Sustainability Volume I Mara Del Baldo, Maria-Gabriella Baldarelli, Elisabetta Righini, 2024-02-22 Without respecting and nurturing place we cannot achieve a state of ecological sustainability Place based organizations are not run on a purely materialistic basis The non materialistic features of a place its aesthetics cultural heritage community feelings transcendence should be integrated into sustainability management This far reaching two volume work breaks with the economic logic of efficiency and profit maximization and suggests that organizations should inform their sustainability by encompassing feelings of identity with and attachment to place According to this vision the editors have compiled scholarly contributions aimed to support the ecological transformation of humankind by exploring both theoretical and practical models that integrate the sense of the place ethics and spirituality in new ways of organizing of economic and social life This first volume sets the theoretical direction of the volumes asking broad aesthetic questions around the ethical and spiritual foundations of sustainability It will be of interest to scholars practitioners and students of sustainability business ethics and spirituality

Qualitative Analysis Using ATLAS.ti Nicholas H. Woolf, Christina Silver, 2017-09-11 Software is cut and dried every button you press has a predictable effect but qualitative analysis is open ended and unfolds in unpredictable ways This contradiction is best resolved by separating analytic strategies what you plan to do from software tactics how you plan to do it Expert ATLAS.ti users have unconsciously learned to do this The Five Level QDA method unpacks the process so that you can learn it consciously and efficiently The first part of the book explains how the contradiction between analytic strategies and software tactics is reconciled by translating between them The second part provides both an in depth description of how ATLAS ti works and comprehensive instruction in the five steps of translation these steps are illustrated with examples from a variety of research projects The third part contains real world qualitative research projects from a variety of disciplines methodologies and kinds of qualitative analysis all illustrated in ATLAS ti using the Five Level QDA method The book is accompanied by three sets of videos demonstrations on the Companion Website While this book uses screenshots from the current ATLAS ti Version 8 it is still fully applicable to users of older versions The book and accompanying videos illustrate the Windows version of ATLAS ti As there are some differences in screen and interface design between the Mac and Windows versions please watch the video The ATLAS ti Mac Interface in the Component Orientation series of videos available September 2017 The Five Level QDA method is based on the authors combined 40 years of experience teaching ATLAS ti and other software packages used as platforms for conducting qualitative analysis After many years observing their students challenges they developed the Five Level QDA method to describe the process that long time ATLAS ti experts unconsciously adopt The Five Level QDA method is independent of software program or methodology and the principles apply to any type of qualitative project Please see the following URL to access the accompanying materials for this book <https://www.qdaservices.co.uk/five-level-qda/>

The Politics of Researching Multilingually Prue Holmes, Judith Reynolds, Sara Ganassin, 2022-02-21 This book offers a unique understanding of how researchers linguistic resources and the languages they use in the research process are often politically and structurally shaped and constrained with implications for the reliability of the research The chapters are written by both experienced and novice researchers who examine how they negotiated the use of their own and others linguistic and communicative resources when undertaking their research in politically charged and linguistically and culturally diverse contexts The contributing authors are either from the Global South or engaged in work which is contextualised within the Global South or they face linguistic structural hegemonies in the Global North which challenge their research processes They utilise diverse theoretical methodological and disciplinary approaches to produce a collection of engaging and accessible accounts of researching multilingually in their contexts These accounts will help readers to make theoretically and methodologically informed choices about the political dimensions of languages in their own research when researching multilingually
