Sceptical Paths Giuseppe Veltri, Rachel Haliva, Stephan Schmid, Emidio Spinelli, 2019-09-02 Sceptical Paths offers a fresh look at key junctions in the history of scepticism Throughout this collection key figures are reinterpreted key arguments are reassessed lesser known figures are reintroduced accepted distinctions are challenged and new ideas are explored The historiography of scepticism is usually based on a distinction between ancient and modern The former is understood as a way of life which focuses on enquiry whereas the latter is taken to be an epistemological approach which focuses on doubt The studies in Sceptical Paths not only deepen the understanding of these approaches but also show how ancient sceptical ideas find their way into modern thought and modern sceptical ideas are anticipated in ancient thought Within this state of affairs the presence of sceptical arguments within Medieval philosophy is reflected in full force not only enriching the historical narrative but also introducing another layer to the sceptical discourse namely its employment within theological settings The various studies in this book exhibit the rich variety of expression in which scepticism manifests itself within various context and set against various philosophical and religious doctrines schools and approaches

Who Needs Arab-Jewish Identity? Reuven Snir, 2015-02-24 In Who Needs Arab Jewish Identity Interpellation Exclusion and Inessential Solidarities Professor Reuven Snir Dean of Humanities at Haifa University presents a new approach to the study of Arab Jewish identity and the subjectivities of Arabized Jews Against the historical background of Arab Jewish culture and in light of identity theory Snir shows how the exclusion that the Arabized Jews had experienced both in their mother countries and then in Israel led to the fragmentation of their original identities and encouraged them to find refuge in inessential solidarities Following double exclusion intense globalization and contemporary fluidity of identities singularity not identity has become the major war cry among Arabized Jews during the last decade in our present liquid society In Who Needs Arab Jewish Identity Reuven Snir brings out an important contribution to studies of the history literature and identity of Arabized Jews showing the significant shifts these communities have undergone in the ways their identities have been defined and constructed in the modern period Lisa Bernasek University of Southampton in Journal of Modern Jewish Studies 18 2 2019

After Revelation Marc Herman, 2025-08-05 Reveals how medieval Jews developed religious law through contact with their Muslim neighbors After Revelation is the first study to integrate Jewish legal thought in the medieval Islamic world into its larger environment Here Marc D Herman demonstrates that Jews were fully conversant in their contemporaries ideas about revelation law and legal interpretation Bookended by the two luminaries of medieval Judaism Saadia Gaon and Moses Maimonides After Revelation is a comprehensive analysis of the legal theory that medieval Jews produced in Islamic lands mostly in Arabic and reveals previously unrecognized commonalities between Jewish and Islamic constructions of religious law Herman tackles one of the central doctrines of post biblical Judaism that God had supplemented the written Hebrew Bible with an Oral Torah a claim that remains central to Judaism to this day Following this idea from Baghdad to Kairouan to Cordoba and then to Cairo he shows that the Oral Torah took many new forms in the medieval Islamic world The variegated and fluid presentations of the Oral Torah Herman argues were inexorably embedded in society wide discourses that blithely crossed religious borders He proposes a highly regional perspective on Jewish history in place of the closed communities so often imagined in the histories of Jews and Muslims one that centers contacts with Muslims as much as continuities with earlier Jewish communities He emphasizes too that medieval Judaism is unimaginable without Jewish interactions with Muslims Ultimately After Revelation makes plain that medieval Judaism took the shapes that it did largely because of forces far outside of itself

Abrahamic Religions Aaron W. Hughes, 2012-12-06 Although many perceive him as the common denominator of Judaism Christianity and Islam Abraham remains deceptively out of reach An ahistorical figure some contend he holds the seeds for historical reconciliation Touted as a symbol of ecumenism Abraham can just as easily function as one of division and exclusivity

The Talmud in Dispute During the High Middle Ages Fidora, Alexander, Hasselhoff, Gorge, 2019-12-17 The Christian discovery of the Babylonian Talmud is a significant landmark in the long and complex history of anti Jewish polemic While the Talmudic corpus developed in the same period as early Christianity this post biblical text was largely unknown to the Christians Full awareness of the Talmud among Christian authors did not arise until the late 1230s when the Jewish convert Nicholas Donin presented a Latin translation of Talmudic fragments to Pope Gregory IX Though the Talmud was subsequently put on trial 1240 and burnt 1241 2 in Paris the controversy surrounding it continued over the following years as Pope Innocent IV called for a revision of its condemnation The textual basis for this revision is the Extractiones de Talmud that is a Latin translation of 1 922 Talmudic fragments The articles in this volume shed new light on this monumental translation and its historical context They also offer critical editions of related texts such as Donin s anti Talmudic polemic Authors of the contributions are Wout van Bekkum Piero Capelli Ulisse Cecini Enric Cort s scar de la Cruz Palma Federico Dal Bo Alexander Fidora G rge K Hasselhoff Mois s Orfali Ursula Ragacs and Eul

Staying Human Harris Bor, 2021-11-17 Futurists speculate that we are heading towards a singularity where AI will outsmart human beings and humanity will coalesce into a single ever expanding mind for which data is everything The idea mirrors conceptions of God as everything singular and all knowing But is this idea of the singularity or God good for humanity Oneness has its attractions But what space does it leave for individuality and difference In this book British Jewish theologian Harris Bor explores these questions by applying approaches to oneness and difference found in the thought of philosophers Benedict Spinoza 1632 1677 and Martin Heidegger 1889 1976 to the challenges of religious belief and practice in the era of AI What emerges is a dynamic religion of the everyday capable of balancing all aspects of being while holding tight to a God who is both singular and wholly other and which urges us above all to stay human

Learned Ignorance James L. Heft, Reuven Firestone, Omid Safi, 2011-08 Constructive interreligious dialogue is only a recent phenomenon Until the nineteenth century most dialogue among believers was carried on as a debate aimed either to disprove the claims of the other or to convert the other to one's own tradition At the end of the nineteenth century Protestant Christian missionaries of different denominations had created such a cacophony amongst themselves in the mission fields that they decided that it would be best if they could begin to overcome their own differences instead of confusing and even scandalizing the people whom they were trying to convert By the middle of the twentieth century the horrors of the Holocaust compelled Christians especially mainline Protestants and Catholics to enter into a serious dialogue with Jews one of the consequences of which was the removal of claims by Christians to have replaced Judaism and revising text books that communicated that message to Christian believers Now at the beginning of the twenty first century many branches of Christianity not least the Catholic Church are engaged in a world wide constructive dialogue with Muslims made all the more necessary by the terrorist attacks of September 11 In these new conversations Muslim religious leaders took an important initiative when they sent their document A Common Word Between Us to all Christians in the West It is an extraordinary document for it makes a theological argument various Christians in the West including officials at the Vatican have claimed that a theological conversation with Muslims is not possible based on texts drawn from the Hebrew Bible the New Testament and the Qur'an that Jewish Christian and Muslim believers share the God given obligation to love God and each other in peace and justice The Institute for Advanced Catholic Studies brought together an international group of sixteen Jewish Catholic and Muslim
