The Pleasure of Reading Eric Macfarlane, 2019-07-23 The Pleasure of Reading reflects on the joys of owning and reading books It looks at the situations that lead people to become keen readers and the ways in which parents and teachers can encourage children s love of stories It is critical of traditional methods of studying literature that deter many children from regarding reading as a pleasurable activity The book also looks at the interests and passions that motivate novelists and the wide range of subjects on which they choose to write the kind of stories they tell the themes that they explore and the skill with which they handle their plots characters and settings Particular attention is given to the novelist's role as a protester against injustice persecution and the abuse of power

Feature Films, 1960-1969 Harris M. Lentz III, 2009-12-29 This is a filmography in two volumes of not only all of the English language movies made during the 1960s that had a U S theatrical release but major foreign films exhibited in the United States as well The following information is provided for each film year of release nation of origin if other than the U S production or distribution company black and white or color running time genre production credits cast and characters and a brief synopsis This turbulent decade is unusually interesting in the history of cinema Those films released in the early part of the decade were similar to those of the 1950s but as the years passed the offerings changed in many ways

Maternal Pasts, Feminist Futures Lynne Huffer, 1998 This book examines the relations among nostalgia gender and foundational philosophies through a critique of the lost mother as a ground for thinking about sexual difference More specifically the author critiques the nostalgic tendencies of feminist theory arguing that an emancipatory system of thought must move beyond a maternally oriented structure Through close readings of works by Maurice Blanchot Luce Irigaray Julia Kristeva and Nicole Brossard the book elucidates the many dimensions of nostalgic paradigms literary psychoanalytic epistemological ontological and sociopolitical This critique ultimately confronts postmodernism and especially the burgeoning field of performative theory as an intellectual paradigm that claims to subvert systems of meaning Analyzing the writings of J L Austin Judith Butler and Irigaray the author argues that despite its antinostalgic structure performative theory provides an inadequate model for understanding the connections among language identity and the social bonds that constitute the ethical and political sphere Asserting through the example of performative theory that a critique is not enough the book examines the possibility of a constructive model that is both non nostalgic and informed by ethical constraints One such model is offered through a reading of the Quebecois writer Nicole Brossard which explores her work in relation to the question of lesbian writing Demystifying nostalgia Brossard not only uncovers and subverts the structures through which a concept of origins is produced but also provides a different visionary way of thinking about the relationship between subjectivity and language Finally the book argues for further feminist work on the relationship between narrative and ethics a field whose future lies in the elaboration of a bridge between the moral commitments of ethical theory and the fractured realities that find their expression in literary forms

The Western Literary Tradition: Volume 2 Margaret L. King, 2022-03-01 This compact anthology the second volume in Margaret L King's masterful introduction to the Western literary tradition offers in whole or in part eighty key literary works of the eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth centuries The texts provided here represent an unusually broad array of languages and traditions ranging across a variety of genres such as verse drama philosophy short and long form fiction and non fiction including autobiography speech journalism and essay This second volume shares with the first a focus on works by women numerous texts by Latin American writers are included here as well King's clear engaging introductions and notes support an informed reading of the texts while extending students knowledge of particular authors and problems of interest The Western Literary Tradition's modest length and cost allow for the use of full length works many of which are available in Hackett Publishing's own well regarded and inexpensive translations and editions alongside the anthology without adding undue cost to a student's total textbook fees

Apparitions--of Derrida's Other Kas Saghafi, 2010 How does Derrida write of and on the other Apparitions examines exemplary instances of the relation to the other the relation of Moses to God Derrida's friendship with Jean Luc Nancy Derrida's relation to a recently departed actress caught on video to demonstrate how Derrida forces us to reconceive who or what the other may be For Derrida the singularity of the other includes not only the formal or logical sense of alterity the otherness of the human other but also the otherness of the nonliving the no longer living or the not yet alive Addressing Derrida's readings of Husserl Levinas Barthes Blanchot and Nancy this book explores the apparitions of the other by attending to the mode of appearing the phenomenality and visibility of the other The book also demonstrates that video and photography display an intimate relation to spectrality as well as a structural relation to the absolute singularity of the other

Approaches to Teaching the Works of Primo Levi Nicholas Patruno, Roberta Ricci, 2014-11-01 Primo Levi Holocaust survivor and renowned memoirist is one of the most widely read writers of post World War II Italy His works are characterized by the lean dispassionate eloquence with which he approaches his experience of incarceration in Auschwitz His memoirs as well as his poetry and fiction and his many interviews are often taught in several fields including Jewish studies and Holocaust studies comparative literature and Italian language and literature and can enrich the study of history psychology and philosophy The first part of this volume provides instructors with an overview of the available editions anthologies and translations of Levi's work and identifies other useful classroom aids such as films music and online resources In the second part contributors describe different approaches to teaching Levi's work Some in presenting Survival in Auschwitz The Reawakening and The Drowned and the Saved look at the place of style in Holocaust testimony and the reliability of memory in autobiography Others focus on questions of translation complicated by the untranslatable in the language and experiences of the concentration camps or on how Levi incorporates his background as a chemist into his writing most clearly in The Periodic Table

Avant-Garde World Creation Abigail van Alst, 2025-10-30 This book explores the widespread fascination with world creation among early twentieth century artists and examines those trends within the European avant garde The book reflects on what the world looks and feels like before and after World War One and thus also concerns creativity and destruction alike in the context of modernity Over the course of three chapters the author focusses on works in which avant garde artists combine and experiment with various arts and media to create alternative narratives of the world's creation. These works include three canonized total works of art: Der Weltbaumeister (The World's Master Builder, 1920), an illustrated book imagined as an architectural play by the Expressionist architect Bruno Taut; the Futurist opera Victory Over the Sun (1913) by Aleksei Kruchenykh, Velimir Khlebnikov, Kazimir Malevich, and Mikhail Matiushin; and the Cubist ballet La Création du monde (The Creation of the World, 1923) by Blaise Cendrars, Fernand Léger, Darius Milhaud, and Jean Bérain. Providing new readings of these classic works that dive deeply into the avant garde's inter-artistic search for new modes of mediation as well as its dialogue with science, politics, and technology, Abigail van Alst demonstrates how each of these artworks staged a cosmogony, an alternative story of the universe's creation, which simultaneously experimentally and critically recounted the story of modernity. This new book is ideal for researchers and scholars in History of Art, Modernism, and Comparative Literature.

Science Fiction from Quebec Amy J. Ransom, 2009-05-20 This first book-length study of French language science fiction from Canada provides an introduction to the subgenre known as SFQ (science fiction from Quebec). In addition, it offers in-depth analyses of SFQ sagas by Jacques Brossard, Esther Rochon, and Elisabeth Vonarburg. It demonstrates how these multivolume narratives of colonization and postcolonial societies exploit themes typical of postcolonial literatures, including the denunciation of oppressive colonial systems, the utopian hope for a better future, and the celebration of tolerant, pluralistic societies. A bibliography of SFQ available in English translation is included.
