

Step 3

Powder

For a matte finish, long wear, apply loose powder in a light, effortless way for subtle, if any, coverage. Set your complexion using an airbrush brush or a loose powder puff.

Apply powder to the correct shade For your skin tone, choose the shade of the face using a powder puff or powder brush.

Pat the powder lightly onto your skin, avoiding the under-eye area and forehead.

Step 4

Blush

Smile and apply a natural shade of blush to the apples of cheeks. Blend up toward the temples, then downward to soften the nose.

For long-lasting results Layer a ring of fingertip blush on top.

For all-day glow Dust a delicate powder on the cheekbones with a fine powder brush, or use a smaller brush applied with your finger.

Tap or blow off any extra powder. Blush that has been applied before applying concealer may bleed into the concealer. Use light layers that are correctable with your fingertips.

Put fingertips under chin and gently press away the skin.

Smile a little to see how your blush blends into the skin. Apply the blush correctly, layer by layer, until the desired look is achieved.

Step 5

Lipstick

Start with clean, smooth lips.

Neutral lipstick shades and sheer formulas can be applied directly from the tube. Use a lip brush to apply darker or bolder colors, which require precise application.

Use the corner of your lip and gently smoothen or blend edges. The more blending you do, the more natural the slightly darker outer lip line.

For a natural lip effect, lightly smoothen the outer edges with your finger. A sheer lipstick has a softening effect.

Step 6

Lip Liner

The softest natural-looking definition can be kept out of your awareness. Use just a lip liner when applying lipstick. Use a lip brush to define and blend your lip edges.

To make your lipstick glow longer-lasting, blot with a light-colored cloth before applying more.
