In the Realm of the Senses Johannah Fahey,Howard Prosser,Matthew Shaw,2015-04-08 This book charts new territory both theoretically and methodologically Drawing on MacDougall s notion of social aesthetics it explores the sensory dimensions of privilege through a global ethnography of elite schools The various contributors to the volume draw on a range of theoretical perspectives from Lefebvre Benjamin Bourdieu Appadurai Kress and van Leeuwen to both broaden and critique MacDougall s original concept They argue that within these elite schools there is a relationship between their complex sensory and aesthetic environments and the construction of privilege within and beyond the school gates Understanding the importance of the visual to ethnography the social aesthetics of these elite schools are captured through the inclusion of a series of visual essays that complement the written accounts of the aesthetics of privilege The collection also includes a series of vignettes that further explore the sensory dimension of these aesthetics touch taste though metaphorically understood sight and sound These varying formats illustrate the aesthetic nature of social relations and the various ways in which class permeates the senses The images from across the different schools and their surroundings immerse the reader in these worlds and provide poignant ethnographic data of the forces of globalisation within the context of elite schooling

Slipping the Line Amelia Curran,2023-08-30 This book brings a new spatial analysis to gang territories through the concept of the gang assemblage the variety of actors contexts and practices that create and maintain these spaces This conceptualization helps overcome the tendency of gang literature to succumb to the gang territorial trap the tendency to assume gang territories are fixed and static containers of gang life Drawing on multi sited qualitative fieldwork in central Canada interviews with gang and non gang affiliated residents police and administrators show gang territories being made material through a wide variety of daily embodied practices Recognizing the role of multiple actors encourages a relational ethics of accountability between bodies practices and place that challenges the often naturalized connections between race space and crime Understanding gang space as enacted through embodied material practices provides an alternative way to think through trace and disrupt these associations

Urban Social Geography Paul Knox, Steven Pinch, 2014-09-15 The 6th edition of this highly respected text builds upon the successful structure engaging writing style and clear presentation of previous editions Examining urban social geography from a theoretical and historical perspective it also explores how it has developed into the modern day Taking account of recent critical work whilst simultaneously presenting well established approaches to the subject it ensures students are well informed about all the issues The result is a topical book that is clear and accessible for students

The Rise of the English Regions? Irene Hardill, Paul Benneworth, Mark Baker, Leslie Budd, 2006-10-03 A critical look at regional development and governance examining the causes of the South East domination and comparing each region in terms of its characteristics and its experience of devolution

The Chinese Communist Youth League Konstantinos Tsimonis, 2025-10-01 The Chinese Communist Youth League is the largest youth political organization in the world with over 80 million members Former Chinese President Hu Jintao was a firm supporter of the League and believed that it could play a bigger role in winning the hearts and minds of Chinese youth by actively engaging with their interests and demands Accordingly he provided the League with a new youth work mandate to increase its capacity for responsiveness under the slogan keep the Party assured and the youth satisfied This original investigation of the hitherto unexamined organization uses a combination of interviews surveys and ethnography to explore how the League implemented Hu s mandate at both local and national levels exposing the contradictory nature of some of its campaigns By doing so it also sheds light on the reasons for Xi Jinping s turn against the League during his first term in office The Chinese Communist Youth League Juniority and Responsiveness in a Party Youth Organization develops the original concept of juniority to capture the complex ways that generational power is institutionalized alienating young people from official political processes with significant implications for China s political development The book will be of interest to researchers and students of Chinese politics as well as to scholars of comparative youth politics and sociology

Coming Together Attila Gyucha, 2019-02-28 Archaeologists anthropologists and classicists discuss how urbanization first emerged in strikingly different sociopolitical contexts in North America Europe and the Near East The pursuit for universally applicable definitions of the terms urban and city has frequently distracted scholars from scrutinizing processes of how ancient nucleated settlements evolved and developed Based on the premise that similar social dynamics to a great extent governed nucleation trajectories throughout human history Coming Together focuses on both prehistoric aggregated and early urban settlements Drawing from a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches archaeologists anthropologists and classicists discuss how nucleation unfolded in strikingly different sociopolitical contexts in North America Europe and the Near East The major themes of the volume are nucleation s origins pathways to sustainability and the transformative role of these sites in sociopolitical and cultural change

islamophobia with reference to Muslim diaspora communities in a post migration Western European context It argues that islamophobia is the product as well as carries the agency of Muslim diaspora enclave/exclave phenomenon These socio-spatial encounters are not to be seen as divisive but are to be understood as productive to seek to negotiate a transnational multi-cultural public space for integration It is in this context that this study has sought to relocate European Islamophobia in Muslim diaspora enclaves Dissertation Series Islam in the Existence of Europe Islam in der Lebenswelt Europa Vol 11 Subject Islamic Studies Middle East Studies Muslim Studies Drinking Dilemmas Thomas Thurnell-Read, 2015-12-14 Drinking and drunkenness have become a focal point for political and media debates to contest notions of responsibility discipline and risk yet at the same time academic studies have highlighted the positive aspects of drinking in relation to sociability belonging and identity These issues are at the heart of this volume which brings together the work of academics and researchers exploring social and cultural aspects of contemporary drinking practices These drinking practices are enormously varied and are spatially and culturally defined The contributions to the volume draw on research settings from across the UK and beyond to demonstrate both the complexity and diversity of drinking subjectivities and practices Across these examples tensions relating to gender social class age and the life course are particularly prominent Rather than align to now long established moral discourses about what constitutes good and bad drinking sociological approaches to alcohol foreground the vivid lived nature of alcohol consumption and the associated experiences of drunkenness and intoxication In doing so the volume illuminates the controversial yet important social and cultural roles played by drink for individuals and groups across a range of social contexts Emerging Technologies in Computing Mahdi H.
