Making External Experts Work:

Making External Experts Work Thomas F. Evert, Amy E. Van Deuren, 2011-12-23 School board members and superintendents face the reality of providing all students access to a quality education and carefully requesting and allocating public funds to finance excellent educational opportunities One of the key resources available to boards and superintendents are external experts consultants This book uses a case study of one district s experiences with external experts over a 14 year span The district s experiences with the six external experts are described in detail covering a wide range of topics including governance and decision making cultural diversity finance and school safety Special emphasis is placed on lessons learned from each external expert and about the ways school leaders can facilitate the effectiveness of external experts Relevant aspects of effective district leadership are discussed in depth including the importance of understanding values and context assessing need using available internal resources and superintendent professional development Suggestions for board members current superintendents and aspiring superintendents are included which focus on ways district leaders can improve their own performance and improve collaborative work between board members and administrators

The Board and Superintendent Handbook Amy E. Van Deuren, Thomas F. Evert, Bette A. Lang, 2015-09-10 The Board and Superintendent Handbook Current Issues and Resources is a practical guide for both board members and superintendents The book includes contributions from experienced and new superintendents and board members on a wide range of topics that boards and superintendents must navigate together successfully in order to move districts in a positive direction for students staff parents and communities

Making Accountability Work Marie-Louise Bemelmans-Videc, Jeremy Lonsdale, Burt Perrin, 2017-12-02 Like honesty and clean water accountability is invariably seen as a good thing Conversely the absence of accountability is associated with most of the greatest abuses in human history Accountability is thus closely linked with the exercise of power and the legitimacy of policies and those pursuing them This book looks at the role of evaluation and of audit as key elements in democratic accountability processes The contributors explore the apparent paradox of there being more accountability related activities today than ever before at the same time as much public debate laments what is seen as a lack of actual accountability Such a situation raises a number of questions Is there a need for different approaches to establishing accountability or can current arrangements be modified to make them more effective Are present practices part of the problem and are they preventing a mature debate about performance improvement taking place How can systems awash with performance information ensure that at least some of it makes sense to a wide range of potential users How is it that greater accountability and transparency can so quickly have become associated with concerns about perverse incentives and be seen by some as a costly burden The volume includes detailed case studies and synthesizes up to date research evidence drawn from very different governmental systems ending with practical advice for those involved in the accountability processes In doing so it attempts to address both conceptual ambiguities about the notion of accountability and the practical uncertainties over its implications for democratic government This book is aimed at serious people who think about trends in the use of evaluation and audit in seeking to hold governments accountable for their actions and performance

Eliciting and Analyzing Expert Judgment Mary A. Meyer, Jane M. Booker, 2001-01-01 Expert judgment is invaluable for assessing products systems and situations for which measurements or test results are sparse or nonexistent Eliciting and Analyzing Expert Judgment A Practical Guide takes the reader step by step through the techniques of eliciting and analyzing expert judgment with special attention given to helping the reader develop elicitation methods and tools adaptable to a variety of unique situations and work areas The analysis procedures presented in the book may require a basic understanding of statistics and probabilities but the authors have provided detailed explanations of the techniques used and have taken special care to define all statistical jargon Originally published in 1991 this book is designed so that those familiar with the use of expert judgment can quickly find the material appropriate for their advanced background The Making of the Civil Codes Michele Graziadei,Lihong Zhang,2022-11-21 The book provides in depth analysis of the new perspectives on codifications and of the related reforms that give recognition to new ideas new needs and new techniques The contributions from several jurisdictions collected in this book provide a much needed evaluation of the current impact of codification on the law and are a first essential reference for assessing the importance of civil law codifications in the contemporary world Being an Effective Programme Leader in Higher Education Sarah Naylor,2022-08-16 Being an Effective Programme Leader in Higher Education is a practical guide designed to help navigate the complex academic pastoral and administrative challenges that come with working in this position This book looks at topics such as leadership personal tutoring and academic and student support mechanisms from the unique perspective of the programme leader It gives suggestions for effective ways to lead a programme incorporates practical advice on some key leadership skills and offers proven strategies from across various contexts within the role Vignettes which include descriptions of authentic situations provided by programme leaders sit alongside probing questions to prompt reflection for professional development This practical text is a must read for programme leaders working in higher education and provides the guidance necessary to help them create an environment that is inclusive caring compassionate and supportive Politics Beyond the State Kris Deschouwer,2007 The essays in this examination analyze the consequences of globalization and offer a thorough analysis of the changes in the way international politics must be understood in light of such globalization Capturing the morphing nature of politics both within and beyond the state this volume details the centrifugal migration of politics away from state based institutions which occurs in an upward fashion toward the international level and endows decentralized and private actors with policy making powers The resulting picture is that of a central state that continues to guide politics but needs to be complemented with attention to the sub and the supranational tiers of government New Zealand International Monetary Fund. Monetary and Capital Markets Department,2017-05-10 This paper presents an assessment of Observance of the Basel Core Principles for Effective Banking Supervision BCP in New Zealand The supervisory approach of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand RBNZ reflects the characteristics of the local banking industry and the authorities goal to limit moral hazard by relying on market discipline and not offering deposit insurance Banks offer traditional products in a highly concentrated market Since the most recent Financial Sector

Assessment Program the RBNZ has increased attention to strengthening regulatory discipline The current approach to supervision is limited by the heavy weight the RBNZ places on market discipline compared with regulatory discipline Better compliance with the BCP and enhanced effectiveness of the RBNZ three pillar approach are recommended From Ethical Review to Responsible Research and Innovation Sophie Pellé, Bernard Reber, 2016-06-16 The scientific and technological upheavals of the 20th Century and the questions and difficulties that went along with them climate change nuclear energy GMO etc have increased the necessity of thinking about and formalizing technoscientific progress and its consequences Expert evaluations and ethics committees today cannot be the only legitimate sources for understanding the social acceptability and desirability of this progress Responsibility must be shared out on a wider scale as much in society as in the process of research and innovation projects This book presents the main works of Responsible Research and Innovation RRI from a moral responsibility point of view for which it calls upon no fewer than 10 understandings to bring out those which are positive and to support an interpretive and combinatory pluralism In this sense it demonstrates moral innovation It analyzes numerous cases and proposes perspectives that are rarely discussed in this emerging field current practices of ethical evaluation concerns of the integrity of research means for participatory technological evaluation etc It contributes to the pledges of RRI which largely remains theoretically undetermined even though it reorganizes the relationships between science innovation and society A Practical Guide to Competencies Steve Whiddett, Sarah Hollyforde, 2003 Improving performance is the number one goal of any manager HR or line Whiddett and Hollyforde show how to create and implement a competencies framework that will help you to improve performance levels within your organisation Consulting on the Inside, 2nd ed. Beverly Scott, B. European Regulatory Agencies in EU Decision-Making Christoph Ossege,2016-01-06 European Regulatory Agencies ERAs have become increasingly important features in EU decision making They aim to provide expert advice independent of political or economic considerations This book explains whether and under what conditions ERAs comply with this scientific mandate Expanding on rational institutionalism Ossege provides novel insights into the behaviour of ERAs their autonomy from undue external influence and their impact on EU policy making The empirical comparison of three major ERAs the European Medicines Agency the European Food Safety Authority and the European Chemicals Agency not only shows that agencies capitalise on their expertise and rule making competences to protect their autonomy Rather in making strategic use of their expertise the ERAs also guard their autonomy in areas of high political salience though their policy influence in these areas is partially circumscribed Based on these insights European Regulatory Agencies in EU Decision Making locates its subject in the wider system of European Governance and considers the perennial question of how to reconcile the need for expert advice with democratic decision making

Working in High Risk Environments Douglas Paton,2012-01-01 The impact of events such as the 9 11 terrorist attacks and Hurricane Katrina were felt across the spectrum of organizations Such events provide vivid illustrations of the exceptional circumstances that emergency and protective service agencies and businesses alike can encounter The goal of this book is to broaden the perspectives on the populations that need to be included when thinking about high risk groups and from whom insights into resilience and how it is enacted can be sought The first chapter discusses high risk environments sustained resilience and stress risk management Chapter 2 explores family first responders and resilient mothers of special needs children including case examples Chapter 3 examines the resilience of Antarctic expeditioners relationship dynamics social support and organizational climate Information sharing trust empowerment and staying cool under pressure is also discussed Chapter 4 covers business resilience preventing loss versus facilitating survival and the role of continuity planning In Chapter 5 scientific advice for critical decision making natural hazards and emergency management uncertainty team decision making advice taking and shared mental models is presented Chapter 6 covers COP Shot and the seeds of resiliency Chapter 7 defines resiliency in high risk groups and provides a qualitative analysis of law enforcement and elite military personnel The Johns Hopkins Perspective is explored focusing on the results and methods of structural modeling Chapter 8 describes the psychological stress factors in modern military operations mental hardiness and leader influence Chapter 9 pursues the ecological theory of resilience and adaptive capacity in emergency services Ultimately the book meets a need on how to respond effectively in a high risk environment and the information contained will assist agencies and businesses to develop their capacity to adapt to unpredictable and challenging circumstances This Student Workbook for Radiography in the Digital Age is specifically designed for in classroom use with the series PowerPoint Slides for Radiography in the Digital Age Together with the textbook itself and the Instructor Resources CD these products complete a full package of educational resources tailored for radiography courses in the Physics of Radiography Principles of Imaging Digital Image Acquisition and Display and Radiation Biology and Protection The Workbook is organized throughout in a concise fill in the blank format focusing on key words to reinforce students retention of the material The wording and sequencing of questions closely mirrors the PowerPoint Slide series for each course This Workbook strikes a perfect balance between allowing the student to concentrate on the lecture by doing minimal writing while still challenging the student to participate in classroom learning An effective note taking tool it also doubles as a reinforcement tool for homework and individual study

Food Industry R&D Helmut Traitler, Birgit Coleman, Adam Burbidge, 2016-11-14 Research and development represents a vast spread of topics and can be an arena for controversy In academia such controversy may stem from conflicting interpretations of data and subsequent conclusions the question of who was first to discover a particular finding and whether or not the said finding is of any value to the scientific community R D in corporate environments is mostly defined and driven by costs and clearly identified consumer focused targets There is however common ground between these two approaches as both strive to maximize knowledge though for different reasons and in different ways The equipment and scientific rigor may be similar or identical however their usage approach and interpretation are different This book discusses the history and background of today's food industry R D as seen by consumers academia and the industry itself with several chapters dedicated to new and disruptive approaches A must read for all professionals in the packaged goods industry as well as students who aspire to contribute to this new industry forcefully driven by R D

Sustainability and Short-term Policies Stefan Sjöblom, Kjell Andersson, Sarah Skerratt, 2016-04-01 There has been a profound change within the sphere of government and societal regulation in recent years Traditional hierarchical government has been challenged by new governance instruments relying on negotiations instead of command and control Alongside this development there has been a change in the time framing of politics and steering Traditional politics implicitly has been based on stability and permanence while new forms of governance explicitly are based on just in time actions such as projects and issue based collaborations in networks and programs This book analyses the implications of this shortening of time frames focusing particularly on spatial policy interventions Spatial policies have a special relevance when it comes to governance and new forms of societal steering On the one hand the local geographical level in politics is the principal battleground for the struggle between top down and bottom up approaches and aspirations On the other hand many of the most burning issues of our time require a global strategic approach for example climate change resource depletion population growth are anchored in space and the physical world Whether and how short term spatial approaches can achieve sustainable development outcomes is thus a critical question and forms the focus of this volume The book examines the characteristics of temporary policy measures across a range of rural urban and regional contexts in four continents Europe North America Oceania and Africa The outcomes and effects of these policies and interventions are analysed particularly focusing on the tension between short term interventions and long term effects Making Coaching Work David Clutterbuck, David Megginson, 2005

Coaching can work brilliantly It can help you improve your employee retention levels succession planning and organisational creativity In a supportive culture managers coaches and coachees all trust each other and work together Sadly even the best managed coaching programme with the best coaches will fail in the real world where the coaching takes place doesn't match the fine words from HR Spending money on coaching without first ensuring that the groundwork has been done is a fast track to failure Make sure your training and development budget delivers what you need by first creating a culture that supports coaching
