Essay Sukhendu Ray, Malavika Karlekar, Bharati Ray, 2017-07-20 This charming book The Many Worlds of Sarala Devi and The Tagores and Sartorial Styles as the titles suggest contain two separate but related writings on the Tagores. The Tagores were a pre eminent family which became synonymous with the cultural regeneration of India specifically of Bengal in the nineteenth century. The first writing is a sensitive translation of Sarala Devis memoirs from the Bengali Jeevaner Jharapata by Sukhendu Ray. It is the first autobiography written by a nationalist woman leader of India. Sarala Devi was Rabindranath Tagores niece and had an unusual life. The translation unfolds among other things what it was like to grow up in a big affluent house Jorasanko that had more than 116 inmates and a dozen cooks. The second writing by Malavika Karlekar is a photo essay creatively conceived visually reflecting the social and cultural trends of the times through styles of dress, jewellery and accoutrements. The modern style of wearing a sari was introduced by Jnanadanandini Devi, a member of the Tagore family. The introduction by the well known historian Bharati Ray very perceptively captures the larger context of family, marriage, womens education and politics of the time which touched Sarala Devis life. She points out that if memoirs are a kind of social history then womens diaries record social influences not found in official accounts and are therefore a rich source of documentation.
