Finding Shelter Jesse Freidin, 2017-04-01 The healing beauty and joy of the animal shelter system Without volunteers our nation's animal shelter system simply would not exist Volunteers speak for those that cannot speak pick up the pieces for abandoned animals that have been let down by previous owners or unfortunate circumstances and do whatever it takes to heal the deepest of wounds In Finding Shelter award winning photographer Jesse Freidin shows the softer side of this story He witnessed firsthand how many of the volunteers were able to mend their own emotional hurts with the love the shelter animals gave back to them and how the power of these relationships transforms shelters into places where humans and animals can heal together This realization propelled him to take a two year journey across the country to document the tenderness and healing beauty and joy he encountered within the shelter system The result is a heartwarming inspiration for people to look differently at how to save shelter pets In Finding Shelter Freidin sparks a new discussion about animal rescue and what it feels like to truly love an animal
