River is the last and most dangerous uncharted whitewater passage. It is also a place of extraordinary beauty coursing through snow capped mountain ranges and ripping through verdant jungle. It is no wonder that local legend has this place as the sacred site of Shangri La. And according to kayaking legend the Tsanpo Gorge is the Holy Grail of rafting. In October 1998 a team sponsored by National Geographic set out to conquer it. En Route they found that NG had also sponsored another team whose descent was timed just after their own. The chance of success was slim but the race was officially on. This is a breathtaking story of trial and tragedy which simultaneously gives inspiring insight into the self illumination and growth experienced by people who match their skill strength stamina and inner resources against the most formidable of obstacles. With his riveting account of the trip Balf has supplied a smart introduction to the daredevil lifestyle of river runners. Fortune
