Only in New Orleans Luis Mirón, Brian R. Beabout, Joseph L. Boselovic, 2015-07-22 With 2015 marking the 10th commemoration of Hurricane Katrina education reform in New Orleans continues to garner substantial local national and international attention Advocates and critics alike have continued to cite test scores new school providers and different theories of governance in making multiple arguments for and against how contemporary education policy is shaping public education and its role in the rebuilding of the city Rather than trying to provide a single unified account of education reform in New Orleans the chapters in this volume provide multiple ways of approaching some of the most significant questions around school choice and educational equity that have arisen in the years since Katrina This collection of research articles essays and journalistic accounts of education reform in New Orleans collectively argues that the extreme makeover of the city's public schools toward a new market based model was shaped by many local historically specific conditions In consequence while the city's schools have been both heralded as a model for other cities and derided as a lesson in the limits of market based reform the experience of education reform that has taken place in the city and its impacts on the lives of students families and educators could have happened only in New Orleans Testing Our Children Monty Neill, 1997 A Praxis of Presence in

Curriculum Theory William F. Pinar, 2022-08-31 Building on his seminal methodological contribution to the field here William F Pinar posits a praxis of presence as a unique form of individual engagement against current cultural crises in education Bringing together a series of updated essays articles and new writings to form this comprehensive volume Pinar first demonstrates how a praxis of presence furthers the study of curriculum as lived experience to overcome self enclosure restart lived and historical time and understand technology through a process of regression progression analysis and synthesis Pinar then further illustrates how this practice can inform curricular responses to countering presentism narcissism and techno utopianism in educators work with digital natives Ultimately this book offers researchers scholars and teacher educators in the fields of curriculum theory the sociology of education and educational policy more broadly the analytical and methodological tools by which to advance their understanding of currere and in doing so allows them to tackle the main cultural issues that educators face today The Times-picayune Index, 2001 Misplaced Blame Bonnie Johnson, 2021-10-14 Misplaced Blame Decades of Failing Schools Their Children and Their Teachers examines the underlying causes of why schools fail The book describes the challenges that teachers and their pupils encounter in an environment that is dictated by poverty and harsh unfunded mandates The volume illustrates that school failure reflects a lack of opportunities nothing more The book also discusses the changing role of teachers over the years and teacher led efforts to improve their students circumstances
