Love In The Time Of Aids Love In The Time Of Aids:

Love in the Time of AIDS Mark Hunter, 2021-12-22 In some parts of South Africa more than one in three people are HIV positive Love in the Time of AIDS explores transformations in notions of gender and intimacy to try to understand the roots of this virulent epidemic By living in an informal settlement and collecting love letters cell phone text messages oral histories and archival materials Mark Hunter details the everyday social inequalities that have resulted in untimely deaths Hunter shows how first apartheid and then chronic unemployment have become entangled with ideas about femininity masculinity love and sex and have created an economy of exchange that perpetuates the transmission of HIV AIDS This sobering ethnography challenges conventional understandings of HIV AIDS in South Africa Love in a Time of AIDS Gillian Paterson, 1996 The crisis created by HIV AIDS in health services medical science and the everyday lives of families and communities is well known Yet despite growing awareness the pandemic continues and research shows that the proportion of women among those newly infected is growing everywhere in the world Young women now account for two thirds of new infections among people between 15 and 24 What is becoming ever clearer is that where women s social economic and cultural status is low they are more likely to become infected with HIV and pass the virus on to others Vividly recounting the stories of women in many countries this book shows how the AIDS crisis makes improving the status of women not only a matter of theology and ethics but of health and survival That in turn challenges churches which often justify and even collude with forces that subordinate women to change attitudes and visions and to undertake creative new initiatives in their ministries of healing and hope Love in the Time of Money Thomas Shulich, 2009 Since the late 20th century Thailand has been associated with a thriving international sexual services industry One specialized niche of this industry markets young local men as paid exhibitionists to older foreign admirers This book explores erotic love among these men It is a study of vacation boyfriends male sex workers and international gay tourism It represents ethnographic fieldwork conducted from 1997 to 2002 in Chiangmai City Going beyond academic analysis of sexuality in terms of discourses of power issues of identity politics normality perversion and deviance this work explores intimate connections and the sociology of love Three analytical perspectives cultural ideologies sexual marketplaces and erotic roles are deployed to investigate how commercial and cultural factors facilitate and frustrate enhance and distort the erotic love which men of different racial and social classes experience for one another This work contributes to the research into the patois of cultural values generated at the intersections between modern Asian and Western societies It should also be of interest to scholars of gender and sexuality

Love in the Time of Contagion Laura Kipnis, 2022-02-08 In this timely insightful and darkly funny investigation the acclaimed author of Against Love asks what does living in dystopic times do to our ability to love each other and the world COVID 19 has produced new taxonomies of love intimacy and vulnerability Will its cultural afterlife be as lasting as that of HIV which reshaped consciousness about sex and love even after AIDS itself had been beaten back by medical science Will

COVID end up making us more relationally conservative as some think HIV did within gay culture Will it send us fleeing into emotional silos or coupled cocoons despite the fact that pre COVID domestic coupledness had been steadily losing fans Just as COVID revealed our nation to itself so did it hold a mirror up to our relationships In Love in the Time of Contagion Laura Kipnis weaves often hilariously her own ambivalent coupled lockdown experiences together with those of others and sets them against a larger backdrop the politics of the virus economic disparities changing gender relations and the ongoing institutional crack ups prompted by MeToo and Black Lives Matter mapping their effects on the everyday routines and occasional solaces of love and sex

Love in the Time of Horses Charles Porter, 2021-07-31 A horse story for riders A gun story for shooters A love story for lovers A year in the life of Orin Kraybill and his wife Isabel professional dressage competitors and trainers who follow the horseshow circuit to Florida every winter They are friends with Joel Katz a highly ranked jumper rider and champion sharpshooter whose girlfriend Jane Kline is a concert pianist and fellow shooter The story winds through the big shows and hours of training along with the unusual atmosphere of gun ranges and cowboy fast draw contests where two brothers from the farms around Belle Glade are Joel's rivals and adversaries Love in the Time of Horses is an inside look at the tony cabalistic world of international horse showing and coaching that returns to Florida every winter for the ruling class and famous to entertain compete and play in the sun parlors of Palm Beach County

Love in the Time of Incarceration Elizabeth Greenwood, 2021-07-13 This evocative and gripping investigative look into romantic relationships between incarcerated people and their spouses on the outside is impossible to put down The Globe and Mail Toronto What is it like to fall in love with someone in prison Over the course of five years Elizabeth Greenwood followed the ups and downs of five couples who met during incarceration In Love in the Time of Incarceration she pulls back the curtain on the lives of the husbands and wives supporting some of the 2.3 million people in prisons around the United States In the vein of Modern Love this book shines a light on how these relationships reflect the desire and delusion we all experience in our romantic pairings Love in the Time of Incarceration infiltrates spaces many of us have only heard whispers of from conjugal visits to prison weddings to relationships between the incarcerated themselves A tour de force of empathetic nonfiction storytelling Vanessa Grigoriadis author of Blurred Lines Love in the Time of Incarceration changes the way you look at the American prison system and perhaps relationships in general Previously published as Love Lockdown

Love in the Time of Ethnography Lucinda Carspecken, 2017-11-15 Love in the Time of Ethnography explores love variously defined as an important facet of human life and a worthy focus of study The authors look at love in association with an Alevi and Sunni couple in Turkey organizers of Mexican American and immigrant youth movements Christian missionaries in China an elderly man with dementia two women coming home to queer identity a White researcher working with Black women in the US the common ground between Dogen's Zen teachings and Habermas's critical theory an Albanian Sufi community in Michigan and interactions between humans and the natural world It also includes theoretical writing on the place of love in social analysis whether this involves relationships between researchers and participants or the nature of human connection itself The authors argue that social research is an affective process as well as a cognitive one and that fellow feeling is an essential component of making sense of the world Along with more traditional scholarly forms the contributors to this book use auto ethnography life stories archival research and poetry noting that style itself conveys information and emotion Writing is always to some extent partisan While anthropologists and other social researchers have explored this idea over the last few decades they have more often explored it with an eye to critique than to the ideals underlying that critique This is a collection of essays about what ethnographers are aiming for as well as the problems they address and the authors discuss ethical principles like agape hizmet and cari o as rationales for ethnography and rationales for social change

Love in the Time of Cinema K. McKim, 2011-11-08 Kristi McKim offers close analyses of films in which attachment and detachment intimacy and distance ephemerality and endurance become more visible and meaningful Films discussed include Wim Wenders' Wings of Desire Agnès Varda's Jacquot de Nantes Doris Dörrie's Cherry Blossoms and Olivier Assayas' Summer Hours

Faith in the Time of AIDS Marian Burchardt, 2016-04-29 This book describes how Christian communities in South Africa have responded to HIV/AIDS and how these responses have affected the lives of HIV positive people youth and broader communities Drawing on Foucault and the sociology of knowledge it explains how religion became influential in reshaping ideas about sexuality medicine and modernity

Next Time I Fall in Love Chap P. Clark, 2004-05-10 Jeff and Ann had been dating for only a month but they knew they were in love Soon they were spending all of their free time together But things started going wrong They'd fight then kiss and make up only to fight some more Finally Ann told Jeff it was over She didn't love him anymore besides she wanted to date another guy She said she loved me said Jeff crushed and bitter I thought love was supposed to last How can something so right become so wrong Jeff and Ann's story is one of many told in Next Time I Fall in Love In a helpful and readable book for teenagers Chap Clark gives solid practical advice on forming and keeping healthy dating relationships He deals with questions like these What is love Why would anyone want to date me What can hurt a dating relationship Sex How far is too far How can I know when it's time to break up What can I do to improve my dating relationships If you're 13 to 25 years old or if you know anyone that age and if you're interested in learning more about how to be happy healthy and whole in a dating relationship then this book is for you Love, Money, Duty Rachel

Adams, 2025-04-29 From birth to death we care and are cared for by others Yet we rarely acknowledge care except when it fails In Love Money Duty Rachel Adams examines the stories we tell about care those who do the work and those who depend on it These narratives she argues help us better understand our complicated feelings about care and the obligations that come with it Combining insightful and compassionate readings of writers and artists among them Toni Morrison Susan Sontag Roz Chast Sally Mann and Jamaica Kincaid with stories of her own experiences Adams analyzes the work feelings and ethical dilemmas associated with care including unwelcome emotions such as boredom resentment exhaustion and disgust From the universal dependence of infancy to elder care and from the intimacy of home and family to institutions like hospitals nursing facilities and asylums Love Money Duty considers our ambivalence about vulnerability and need and how it is shaped by capitalism race and gender Drawing from moral philosophy gender and queer theory critical race and disability studies and health humanities Adams treats care as a form of work a feeling an ethic and an art Exploring the radical possibilities of care and the devastating consequences of its failure this book invites readers to appreciate care that works recognizing the creativity and resourcefulness of dependent people and their caregivers Love in Another Time Lexa

Dudley, 2022-04-28 England 1947 Ellie Montford is sent to boarding school by her cold and distant parents joining her best friend's family on their farm for the holidays Love, Money, and HIV Sanyu A. Mojola, 2014-05-10 How do modern women in developing countries experience sexuality and love Drawing on a rich array of interview ethnographic and survey data from her native country of Kenya Sanyu A Mojola examines how young African women who suffer disproportionate rates of HIV infection compared to young African men navigate their relationships schooling employment and finances in the context of economic inequality and a devastating HIV epidemic Writing from a unique outsider insider perspective Mojola argues that the entanglement of love money and the transformation of girls into consuming women lies at the heart of women's coming of age and health crises At once engaging and compassionate this text is an incisive analysis of gender sexuality and health in Africa Love in a Dark Time Colm Toibin, 2004-06-02 Colm Toibin knows the languages of the outsider the secret keeper the gay man or woman He knows the covert and overt language of homosexuality in literature In Love in a Dark Time he also describes the solace of finding like minded companions through reading Colm T ib n examines the life and work of some of the greatest and most influential writers of the past two centuries figures whose homosexuality remained hidden or oblique for much of their lives either by choice or necessity The larger world couldn t know about their sexuality but in their private lives and in the spirit of their work the laws of desire defined their expression This is an intimate encounter with Mann Baldwin Bishop and with the contemporary poets Thom Gunn and Mark Doty Through their work T ib n is able to come to terms with his own inner desires his interest in secret erotic energy his admiration for courageous figures and his abiding fascination with sadness and tragedy T ib n looks both at writers forced to disguise their true experience on the page and at readers who find solace and sexual identity by reading between the lines
