The Future of Mental Health, Disability and Criminal Law Kay Wilson, Yvette Maker, Piers Gooding, Jamie Walvisch, 2023-09-15

This book brings together contributions from twenty-three world-leading scholars and commentators that address a range of contemporary and pressing international themes in mental health, disability, and criminal law. The authors use the work of internationally renowned academic Emeritus Professor Bernadette McSherry as a springboard to reflect on recent developments in these areas of law and to anticipate the future directions they may take. In doing so, they aim to inform and inspire a new generation of mental health, disability, and criminal law scholars, advocates, and reformers. The book is divided into four substantive sections: reforming mental health and disability law; regulating coercion and restrictive practices improving access to justice and the criminal law and transforming mental health law It also includes an introduction from the editors and an afterword from Emeritus Professor McSherry The book is aimed at regulators policymakers lawyers clinicians consumer advocates and academics who are interested in the urgent and contentious issues surrounding the reform and development of mental health disability and criminal law It will help them understand the key issues and problems and presents suggestions for reform The book is interdisciplinary and international in its focus Chapters 9 and 13 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
