Kentucky Maverick Carlton Jackson, 2015-07-14 An absorbing story about how the Lincoln veteran George Watt managed to escape from Nazi occupied Belgium San Francisco Review of Books November 1943 American flyer George Watt parachutes out of his burning warplane and lands in rural Nazi occupied Belgium Escape from Hitler s Europe is the incredible story of his getaway how brave villagers spirited him to Brussels to connect with the Comet Line a rescue arm of the Belgian resistance This was a gravely dangerous mission especially for a Jewish soldier who had fought against Franco in the Spanish Civil War Watt recounts dodging the Gestapo entering Paris via the underground and finally crossing the treacherous Pyrenees into Spain In 1985 he returned to Belgium and discovered an astonishing postscript to his wartime experiences A story of what is best in human beings triumphing over what is worst John Sayles author of Yellow Earth One of those rare little narratives that engage the reader from the first page to the last It is about the human spirit and those willing to risk their lives for a stranger Library Journal A hell of an adventure story Ring Lardner Jr author of The Ecstasy of Owen Muir This is one of my favorite books about World War II and the first I have read that is about the Comet Line and the people who helped with running it Armchair Interviews This is an interesting and exciting account that provides a first person examination of the plight of an individual airman and insights into the scope risks and techniques of the Belgian and French underground movements Col Stetson M Siler USAF Ret

Excerpt from Life and Adventures of Colonel Daniel Boon The First White Settler of the State of Kentucky It was on the first of May 1769 that I resigned my domestic happiness and left my family and peaceable habitation of the Yadkin river in North Carolina to wander through the wilderness of America in quest of the country of Kentucky in company with John Finley John Stuart Joseph Holden James Money and William Cool On the 7th of June after travelling through a mountainous wilderness in a western direction we found ourselves on Red River where John Finley had formerly been trading with the Indians and from the top of an eminence saw with pleasure the beautiful level of Kentucky For some time we had experienced the most uncomfortable weather We now encamped made a shelter to defend us from the inclement season and began to hunt and reconnoitre the country We found abundance of wild beasts in this vast forest The buffaloes were more numerous than cattle on other settlements browsing on the leaves of the cane or cropping the herbage on those extensive plains We saw hundreds in a drove and the numbers about the salt springs were amazing In the forest the habitation of beasts of every American kind we hunted with great success until December On the 22d of December John Stuart and I had a pleasing ramble but fortune changed the day at the close of it About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
