Kerry James Marshall Look See:

Kerry James Marshall Kerry James Marshall, Robert Storr, Angela Choon, 2015 With a career spanning almost three decades Kerry James Marshall is well known for his complex and multilayered portrayals of youths interiors nudes housing estate gardens land and seascapes all of which synthesize different traditions and genres while seeking to counter stereotypical representations of black people in society Working across various mediums from paintings to comic style drawings to sculptural installations photographs and videos the artist conflates actual and imagined events from African American history integrating a range of stylistic influences to address the limited historiography of black art Produced on the occasion of Marshall s first exhibition at David Zwirner in London and designed by JNL Design in Chicago Look See features beautiful reproductions of every painting on view in the show all of them brand new compositions as well as numerous details and preparatory drawings installation photographs and new scholarship by Robert Storr and Hamza Walker As suggested by the show s title these portraits use the etymological differences between looking and seeing as their point of departure featuring subjects whose dissociated stares seem as defiant as they are mystifying In keeping with his signature approach Marshall has painted his figures in strikingly opaque black pigments both fashioning and abstracting their presences in order to assimilate the limitations and contradictions of style subject and chronology inherent in art historical narratives written from a white Western perspective Taken all together the range of materials included in Look See constitutes a vibrant and comprehensive portrait of Marshall s original and ever evolving practice

Museums in Motion Juilee Decker,2024-08-06 This book explores the histories and functions of museums while also looking at the current standing of museums and their ongoing efforts toward relevance resiliency and future proofing Section I examines the beginnings of museums with chapters dedicated to art and design museums natural history and anthropological museums science museums museums focused history and the past and gardens zoos and children s museums Emphasis is on museums in the United States with some historical framing beyond the U S Section II explores the primary functions of museums including conservation exhibition interpretation engagement and service Section III examines museums from within by exploring critical issues and contemporary movements facing museums and our society transparency and openness labor and equity belonging and coalition building risk taking and risk aversion and sustainability and empathy Advocating for change rather than death to museums Museums in Motion demonstrates the very premise that museums have been in motion all along as they have shifted from their rather simple form of a treasury storehouse and tomb to something much more complex by deeply considering where museums have come from where they are today and where they are going Entirely new to this edition Section III Museum Aspirations features five new chapters each centered around topics rather than a museum type or museum function Each topic is meant to be a micro narrative and springboard for a conversation about museums today and their sustainability in the future The chapters examine museums from the inside museum workers and their voices especially as well as power held by people and institutions and DEIA without using those individual words as chapter headings On their own or in conjunction with the chapters in the previous sections of this book these chapters serve as vignettes that can help readers to understand where how and why we need to apply critical lenses to institutions and articulate how doing so helps us to understand this historical moment and ultimately how we can realize resiliency and sustainability for museums and those who make their existence possible Style, Mediation, and Change Janus Mortensen, Nikolas Coupland, Jacob Thogersen, 2016-11-17 Mediated talk is organised around familiar styles styles of person relationship and genre But media also consistently remake and re style these familiar patterns This book brings together original research of media styling in different national contexts and languages It highlights and theorises how creative acts of mediated styling can promote social and sociolinguistic change In American Waters Daniel Finamore, Austen Barron Bailly, 2021-05-28 Organized by the Peabody Essex Museum and Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art Page 232 African Americans in the Visual Arts Steven Otfinoski, 2014-05-14 While social concerns have been central to the work of many African American visual artists painters Kerry James Marshall Kerry James Marshall, Okwui Enwezor, Museum van Hedendaagse Kunst Antwerpen, 2013 Fugitive Testimony Janet Neary, 2016-11-01 Fugitive Testimony traces the long arc of the African American slave narrative from the eighteenth century to the present in order to rethink the epistemological limits of the form and to theorize the complicated interplay between the visual and the literary throughout its history Gathering an archive of ante and postbellum literary slave narratives as well as contemporary visual art Janet Neary brings visual and performance theory to bear on the genre's central problematic that the ex slave narrator must be both object and subject of his or her own testimony Taking works by current day visual artists including Glenn Ligon Kara Walker and Ellen Driscoll Neary employs their representational strategies to decode the visual work performed in nineteenth century literary narratives by Elizabeth Keckley Solomon Northup William Craft Henry Box Brown and others She focuses on the textual viscosity of these narratives to illustrate how their authors use the logic of the slave narrative against itself as a way to undermine the epistemology of the genre and to offer a model of viscosity as intersubjective recognition rather than objective division
