Masters Companion The A Christian Midrash:

The Master's Companion Jerilyn E. Felton, 2007 Follows the Jewish tradition of midrash using stories to fill in gaps in the biblical narrative to tell of Jesus and a small black dog that becomes his constant companion when he rescues it from hunger and injuries

Four-Footed Ministers in Formation Jerilyn E. Felton, 2013-02-22 This work provides chaplains directors of spiritual pastoral care with a template for the setup implementation and maintenance of a comprehensive all volunteer program for the integration of canine companions into the spiritual pastoral care of patients residents in healthcare facilities Based on a qualitative research study conducted over a nine month period this self directed manual introduces a program that is preliminarily road tested safe effective and repeatable As the author continues to be involved in the Four Footed Ministers Pastoral Care Program new insights and observations will be available to enhance and improve the original publication

Christianity in Talmud and Midrash Robert Travers Herford, 1903

Tales in Context Rella Kushelevsky, 2017-11-13 A folkloric research project on Sefer ha ma asim In the thirteenth century an anonymous scribe compiled sixty nine tales that became Sefer ha ma asim the earliest compilation of Hebrew tales known to us in Western Europe The author writes that the stories encompass descriptions of herbs that cure leprosy a fairy princess with golden tresses using magic charms to heal her lover s wounds and restore him to life a fire breathing dragon a two headed creature and a giant s daughter for whom the rind of a watermelon containing twelve spies is no more than a speck of dust In Tales in Context Sefer ha ma asim in Medieval Northern France Rella Kushelevsky enlightens the stories meanings and reflects the circumstances and environment for Jewish lives in medieval France Although a selection of tales was previously published this is the first publication of a Hebrew English annotated edition in its entirety revealing fresh insight The first part of Kushelevsky s work Cultural Literary and Comparative Perspectives presents the thesis that Sefer ha ma asim is a product of its time and place and should therefore be studied within its literary and cultural surroundings Jewish and vernacular in northern France An investigation of the scribe s techniques in reworking his Jewish and non Jewish sources into a medieval discourse supports this claim The second part of the manuscript consists of the tales themselves in Hebrew and English translation including brief comparative comments or citations The third part An Analytical and Comparative Overview offers an analysis of each tale as an individual unit contextualized within its medieval framework and against the background of its parallels Elisheva Baumgarten s epilogue adds social and historical background to Sefer ha ma asim and discusses new ways in which it and other story compilations may be used by historians for an inquiry into the everyday life of medieval Jews The tales in Sefer ha ma asim will be of special value to scholars of folklore and medieval European history and literature as well as those looking to enrich their studies and shelves

A Feminist Companion to the Catholic Epistles and Hebrews Amy-Jill Levine, Maria Mayo Robins, 2004-01-01 The eighth volume in this series continues the exploration of women s representations and roles constructions of gender and attitudes toward sexuality in the early church Jim Aageson Judith Applegate Warren

Carter Pamela Eisenbaum Ruth Hoppin Luke Timothy Johnson Catherine Clark Kroeger Magda Missett van de Weg John Elliott Betsy Bauman Martin and Timothy Cargal tackle a variety of complex issues involving slavery prostitution widows church leadership suffering women s agency and Evangelical responses to the so called texts of terror This volume advances discussion on these often overlooked and misunderstood general letters Midrash and Lection in Matthew M.D. Goulder,2004-09-16 This challenging and original book questions the accepted conclusions of synoptic research It argues first that Matthew is an adaptation and expansion of Mark by midrash that is by standard Jewish expository techniques depending on no written source other than Mark and only to a very small extent on oral tradition and secondly that Matthew was written to be read in Christian worship round the year as a cycle of lessons following the Jewish festal lectionary Part I establishes the characteristics of the Matthaean manner his vocabulary his rhythms and images the form and mode of his parables With so much typical of Matthew as a gospel sources other than Mark become progressively less plausible Part II is a commentary on the gospel from this base It finds a basic Marcan text for each new unit and a reason for its development and works out in detail the correspondence between the five teaching sections of Matthew and the five Jewish festal seasons of Pentecost New Year Atonement Tabernacles Dedication and Passover A striking piece of corroborative evidence is found in the section numbers of the old Greek manuscript tradition Michael Goulder believes that lectionary schemes also underlie Mark and Luke and that at least one major part of the Old Testament the work of the Chronicler has a similar character A gospel in fact is not a literary genre at all but a liturgical one Matthew himself comes into focus as a converted Jewish scribe who possessed the substance of the Pauline teaching and who has been the dominant influence in forming the Church s image of Jesus in his adaptation of Mark by midrash and through lection Feminist Companion to the Latter Prophets Athalya Brenner,2004-12-07 The Cambridge Companion to the Talmud and Rabbinic Literature Charlotte Elisheva Fonrobert,Martin S. Jaffee,2007-05-28 This volume introduces students of rabbinic literature to the range of historical and interpretative questions surrounding the rabbinic texts of late antiquity The editors themselves well known interpreters of Rabbinic literature have gathered an international collection of scholars to support students initial steps in confronting the enormous and complex rabbinic corpus Unlike other introductions to Rabbinic writings the present volume includes approaches shaped by anthropology gender studies oral traditional studies classics and folklore studies The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Religion and Ecology John Hart,2017-05-30 In the face of the current environmental crisis which clearly has moral and spiritual dimensions members of all the world s faiths have come to recognize the critical importance of religion s relationship to ecology The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Religion and Ecology offers a comprehensive overview of the history and the latest developments in religious engagement with environmental issues throughout the world Newly commissioned essays from noted scholars of diverse faiths and scientific traditions present the most cutting edge thinking on religion s relationship to the environment Initial readings explore the ways traditional concepts of nature in Christianity

Judaism Islam Buddhism and other religious traditions have been shaped by the environmental crisis Readings then address the changing nature of theology and religious thought in response to the challenges of protecting the environment Various conceptual issues and themes that transcend individual traditions climate change bio ethics social justice ecofeminism and more are then analyzed before a final section examines some of the immediate challenges we face in caring for the Earth while looking to the future of religious environmentalism Timely and thought provoking Companion to Religion and Ecology offers illuminating insights into the role of religion in the ongoing struggle to secure the future well being of our natural world With a foreword by Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew I and an Afterword by John Cobb The Song of Songs Through the Ages Annette Schellenberg,2023-04-27 The Song of Songs is a fascinating text Read as an allegory of God's love for Israel the Church or individual believers it became one of the most influential texts from the Bible This volume includes twenty three essays that cover the Song's reception history from antiquity to the present They illuminate the richness of this reception history paying attention to diverse interpretations in commentaries sermons and other literature as well as the Song's impact on spirituality theological and intellectual debates and the arts Between Judaism and Christianity Katrin Kogman-Appel,Mati Meyer,2009 The essays collected in this volume present a multi faceted range of scholarship from late antique synagogues Jewish funerary art early Christian and Byzantine mosaics to Byzantine and Jewish book art and the representation of the Old Testament in Western manuscripts The Blackwell Companion to Judaism Jacob Neusner,Alan Avery-Peck,2008-04-15 This Companion explores the history doctrines divisions and contemporary condition of Judaism Surveys those issues most relevant to Judaic life today ethics feminism politics and constructive theology Explores the definition of Judaism and its formative history Makes sense of the diverse data of an ancient and enduring faith God's Future for Animals Raymond R. Hausoul,2021-08-16 God loves animals and gives them a special place in creation So do animals also have a place in God's work of redemption Will there be animals on the new Earth Will we see our beloved pets in the afterlife This book takes up the challenge to think in a responsible way through these questions The author focuses in particular on the physical restoration the prophetic proclamation of the coming animal peace the attitude of God and humanity towards animals and the question of the relationship between biblical life the future of animals and vegetarianism What can the Bible and Christian doctrine reveal to us about God's way with animals The Oxford Companion to Classical Civilization Simon Hornblower,Antony Spawforth,Esther Eidinow,2014-09-11 What did the ancient Greeks eat and drink What role did migration play Why was emperor Nero popular with the ordinary people but less so with the upper classes Why according to ancient authors was Oedipus with swollen foot so called For over 2 000 years the civilizations of ancient Greece and Rome have captivated our collective imagination and provided inspiration for so many aspects of our lives from culture literature drama cinema and television to society education and politics Many of the roots of the way life is lived in the West today can be traced to the ancient civilizations not only in politics law technology philosophy and science but also in social and family life language and art Beautiful illustrations clear and authoritative entries and a useful chronology and bibliography make this Companion the perfect guide for readers interested in learning more about the Graeco Roman world As well as providing sound information on all aspects of classical civilization such as history politics ethics morals law society religion mythology science and technology language literature art and scholarship the entries in the Companion reflect the changing interdisciplinary aspects of classical studies covering broad thematic subjects such as race nationalism gender ethics and ecology confirming the impact classical civilizations have had on the modern world Sexuality in the

Babylonian Talmud Yishai Kiel,2016-10-13 Within this close textual analysis of the Babylonian Talmud Yishai Kiel explores rabbinic discussions of sex in light of cultural assumptions and dispositions that pervaded the cultures of late antiquity and particularly the Iranian world By negotiating the Iranian context of the rabbinic discussion alongside the Christian backdrop this groundbreaking volume presents a balanced and nuanced portrayal of the rabbinic discourse on sexuality and situates rabbinic discussions of sex more broadly at the crossroads of late antique cultures The study is divided into two thematic sections the first centers on the broader aspects of rabbinic discourse on sexuality while the second hones in on rabbinic discussions of sexual prohibitions and the classification of permissible and prohibited partnerships with particular attention to rabbinic discussions of incest Essential reading for scholars and graduate students of Judaic studies early Christianity and Iranian studies as well as those interested in religious studies and comparative religion A Feminist Companion to Patristic Literature Amy-Jill Levine,Maria Mayo Robbins,2008-07 In its twelfth volume this text examines a number of Patristic texts and early Christian documents from a feminist perspective The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Liturgical
