Iranian Cinema with Psychoanalysis Farshid Kazemi, 2024-12-30 Combining Lacanian psychoanalytic theory Iranian Shi'ite thought and Islamicate sexualities Iranian Cinema with Psychoanalysis The Interpreter of Desires provides a groundbreaking analysis of the logic of desire and sexuality in key films of contemporary Iranian cinema arguing that there is a profound albeit surprising correlation between post revolutionary Iranian cinema and psychoanalysis that has remained unthought Looking through the prism of psychoanalysis Farshid Kazemi argues that censorship on the representation and expression of sexual desire in Iranian films has contrary to the desired effect produced a cinema of desire This book is the first to provide an analysis of the unconscious structure of desire and sexuality operative in post revolutionary Iranian cinema demonstrating that psychoanalytic literature is uniquely positioned to shed light on this aspect of film Kazemi uncovers the hidden libidinal economy of Iranian cinema by exposing the fact that despite the State censor's desire to suppress desire it has inadvertently inscribed desire in its formal structure The book offers a compelling and innovative examination of Iranian cinema through a psychoanalytic lens contributing significantly to the field of film studies Iranian Cinema with Psychoanalysis will be of great interest to academics and scholars of film studies psychoanalytic studies Lacanian theory film theory Iranian cinema global cinema Iranian studies and Middle Eastern studies

Moments of Silence Arta Khakpour, Mohammad Mehdi Khorrami, Sholeh Vatanabadi, 2016-12-06 Explores how writers filmmakers and artists have attempted to reckon with the legacy of a devastating war The Iran Iraq War was the longest conventional war of the 20th century The memory of it may have faded in the wake of more recent wars in the region but the harrowing facts remain over one million soldiers and civilians dead millions more permanently displaced and disabled and an entire generation marked by prosthetic implants and teenage martyrdom These same facts have been instrumentalized by agendas both foreign and domestic but also aestheticized defamiliarized readdressed and reconciled by artists writers and filmmakers across an array of identities linguistic Arabic Persian Kurdish religious Shiite Sunni atheist and political Iranian Iraqi internationalist Official discourses have unsurprisingly tried to dominate the process of production and distribution of war narratives In doing so they have ignored and silenced other voices Centering on novels films memoirs and poster art that gave aesthetic expression to the Iran Iraq War the essays gathered in this volume present multiple perspectives on the war s most complex and underrepresented narratives These scholars do not naively claim to represent an authenticity lacking in official discourses of the war but rather they call into question the notion of authenticity itself Finding deciding upon and creating a language that can convey any sort of truth at all collective national or private is the major preoccupation of the texts and critiques in this diverse collection

Where Is Abbas Kiarostami? Hamid Dabashi, 2025 When Abbas Kiarostami suddenly passed away in July 2016 he was already an iconic figure in world cinema and his reputation as a master filmmaker has only grown since In this book celebrated scholar Hamid Dabashi offers a new way of looking at Kiarostami s art world one that questions the very idea of film philosophy Dabashi s authoritative account of the philosophical resonances of Kiarostami s oeuvre offers an iconoclastic critique of the field s Eurocentrism and in vivid prose makes the case for a new method of appreciating the work of this essential figure The result is a provocative perspective on the totality of Kiarostami s legacy that with deep roots in Iranian aesthetic and Persian poetic and philosophical traditions overcomes film s provincial preoccupation with its Western heritage and charts a new path forward for film philosophy

Iran Hamid Dabashi, 2007

An Analysis of Hamid Dabashi's Iran Bryan Gibson, 2017-07-05 Hamid Dabashi s 2007 Iran A People Interrupted is simultaneously subtle passionate polarizing and polemical A concise account of Iranian history from the early 19th century onward Dabashi s book uses his incisive analytical skills as a basis for creating a persuasive argument against the views of Iran that predominate in the West In Dabashi s view Western approaches to Iran have been colored time and time again by the assumption that it is somehow trapped between regressive tradition and progressive modernity The reality he argues is quite the opposite Iran has its own distinctive ideology of modernity which is nevertheless opposed to many Western ideals In order to prove his point Dabashi draws on a lifetime s experience of literary criticism to analyse the relationship between Iran s intellectual and political elites over two centuries His analysis provides the key evidence for his reasoning by teasing out the implicit assumptions that underly the texts and people he examines Looking beneath the surface of the evidence Dabashi finds time and time again the traces of a uniquely Iranian notion of modernity that is quite at odds with its Western counterpart

Makhmalbaf at Large Hamid Dabashi, 2007-11-28 The name of Mohsen Makhmalbaf is almost synonymous with the dramatic rise of Iranian cinema in the aftermath of the Islamic Revolution and over the last quarter of a century his career as filmmaker and writer has reflected the tumultuous history of his homeland and the fate of its neighbours Hamid Dabashi draws from his friendship with Makhmalbaf as well as his direct involvement with Makhmalbaf's films and thought to give us this deeply engaging book on the tumultuous life and spectacular career of a great filmmaker This is also the account of Makhmalbaf's transformation from committed Muslim revolutionary who was jailed for his part in the revolution into an artistic humanist of great energy and elegance His films including The Peddler and The Time for Love Salaam Cinema Gabbeh Silence and Kandahar confound conventional genres and are always surprising They represent his own journey and take part in it in ways that Dabashi explores with great insight Makhmalbaf's cinematic career started in Iran and has since expanded into Turkey Tajikistan Afghanistan Pakistan India and into Europe Dabashi uncovers how moving across boundaries Makhmalbaf's creative genius can illuminate our contemporary world And this book is in part the story of a friendship As Mohsen Makhmalbaf writes in its Preface Hamid Dabashi this pious atheist friend of mine the man who loves cinema and hates art this political activist who abhors politics this thinking pondering critical intellect I have learned much from him Perhaps he too has learned from me The times he and I have spent together have been occasions of discovery and illumination
