Rebound, Grades K-12 Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, Dominique Smith, John Hattie, 2021-03-20 For more than a year now we educators have been tested and tested again We ve been stretched we ve been pulled we ve been put through the wringer But now it s time to rebound It s time to bounce back come back better and benefit from the many lessons learned to reignite engagement accelerate learning and move forward with fresh optimism and better systems for schooling Enter Doug Fisher Nancy Frey Dominique Smith and John Hattie whose Distance Learning Playbooks have supported more than a half million educators across pandemic teaching and who are here now to advise you on this next absolutely critical leg of our ongoing journey Complete with tools and strategies prompts and exercises Rebound A Playbook for Rebuilding Agency Accelerating Learning Recovery and Rethinking Schools will help you Address the collective traumas we have experienced during the pandemic and rebuild our sense of agency and self so that we can attribute student success to both teachers and students efforts Evaluate what we have learned about remote teaching and learning to determine what to carry forward and what to leave behind Shift the narrative from learning loss to learning leaps and implement instructional and assessment practices that ensure our students reclaim lost knowledge build skills develop agency and accelerate gains Redefine classrooms learning experiences the ways schools operate and the very idea of schooling itself The greatest travesty that can arise for schools after 2020 21 Doug Nancy Dominique and John write is to rush back to the old normal and learn nothing or little about what worked well That s why this book has focused on rebounding and taking the opportunity to create an even better schooling system one that serves even more students and focuses more on what matters most Let s agree not to reduce the impact that our expectations have on students learning What if we talk about learning leaps instead of learning loss What if we identify where students are in their learning and identify critical content that they must learn now to accelerate their performance in the future And what if we raise our expectations for students rather than lower them Douglas Fisher Nancy Frey Dominique Smith and John Hattie

Visible Learning for Mathematics, Grades K-12 John Hattie, Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, Linda M. Gojak, Sara Delano Moore, William Mellman, 2016-09-15 Rich tasks collaborative work number talks problem based learning direct instruction with so many possible approaches how do we know which ones work the best In Visible Learning for Mathematics six acclaimed educators assert it's not about which one it's about when and show you how to design high impact instruction so all students demonstrate more than a year's worth of mathematics learning for a year spent in school That's a high bar but with the amazing K-12 framework here you choose the right approach at the right time depending upon where learners are within three phases of learning surface deep and transfer This results in visible learning because the effect is tangible The framework is forged out of current research in mathematics combined with John Hattie's synthesis of more than 15 years of education research involving 300 million students Chapter by chapter and equipped with video clips planning tools rubrics and templates you get the inside track on which instructional strategies to use at each phase of the learning cycle

Surface learning phase When through carefully constructed experiences students explore new concepts and make connections to procedural skills and vocabulary that give shape to developing conceptual understandings

Deep learning phase When through the solving of rich high cognitive tasks and rigorous discussion students make connections among conceptual ideas form mathematical generalizations and apply and practice procedural skills with fluency

Transfer phase When students can independently think through more complex mathematics and can plan investigate and elaborate as they apply what they know to new mathematical situations To equip students for higher level mathematics learning we have to be clear about where students are where they need to go and what it looks like when they get there
