

The background of the book cover is a photograph of an ancient Mesopotamian stone relief. It depicts a goddess with four arms, wearing a tall, tiered headdress and a long, pleated skirt. She holds a mirror in her upper right hand and a bowl in her upper left hand. Her lower arms are at her sides. The relief is carved into a light-colored stone and is surrounded by other carved elements, including two owl heads on either side of the goddess's waist and two lion heads at the bottom. The title 'Mathematics in Ancient Iraq' is superimposed in large, bold, blue letters over the central part of the relief.
