Teaching Global Literature in Elementary Classrooms Kelly K. Wissman, Maggie Naughter Burns, Krista Jiampetti, Heather O'Leary, Simeen Tabatabai, 2016-07-15 Demonstrating the power of teaching global literature from a critical literacy perspective this book explores the ways that K 6 educators can infuse diverse texts into their classrooms and find support for their endeavours in teacher inquiry communities Through carefully analyzed ethnographically informed portraits of classroom life alternating with teachers own accounts of their teaching and learning experiences it demonstrates how students are moved to question debate and take action in response to global texts This multi vocal work both emerges from and responds to tensions and debates related to the purpose and practice of literature education in a time of Common Core State Standards Teaching with Text Sets Mary Ann Cappiello, Erika Thulin Dawes, 2012-10-01 Looking for a way to increase engagement differentiate instruction and incorporate more informational text and student writing into your curriculum Teaching with Text Sets is your answer This must have resource walks you through the steps to create and use multi genre multimodal text sets for content area and language arts study It provides detailed information to support you as you choose topics locate and evaluate texts organize texts for instruction and assess student learning This guide is an excellent resource to help you meet the College and Career Readiness and other state standards Teaching History with Film Alan S. Marcus, Scott Alan Metzger, Richard J. Paxton, Jeremy D. Stoddard, 2018-07-04 Teaching History with Film provides a fresh engaging and clear overview of teaching with film to effectively enhance social studies instruction Using cases of experienced teachers to illustrate accomplished history teaching through movies this text provides pre and in service teachers with ideas for implementing film based lessons in their own classrooms and offers a deeper understanding of the thorny issues involved in using film to teach history The second edition is completely revised and updated including two entirely new case studies a new chapter focusing on using international film and incorporating a more global view in the classroom and additional material on using film to tackle difficult and controversial issues as well as updates to all of the cases Each section of the book focuses on how teachers can effectively support the development of students historical film literacy through topics such as using film to develop interpretive skills to explore controversial issues and to develop historical empathy By developing the skills students need to think critically about the past or what they think they know about history the lessons in this book illustrate how to harness the pedagogical power of film to provide the tools necessary for rigorous inquiry and democratic citizenship Special features include Reflection on the Case following each chapter analyzing and discussing the strengths and limitations of the teacher s approach as well as providing strategies for using and choosing films specific to the educational outcome Sample unit outlines descriptions of class texts and films worksheets essay questions viewer guides and exercises for the classroom throughout Discussion of the practical considerations facing classroom teachers including juggling time restraints issues of parental permission and meeting standards Teaching Outside the Lines Doug Johnson, 2015-03-12 Make Creativity The Center Of The Curriculum In our fast changing world the ability to think independently and innovatively is no longer a nice extra it s a survival skill This book delivers surefire strategies for equipping learners across all grades and subjects with the motivation and critical thinking skills to thrive in our high tech future Content includes Why one right answer instruction paradigms discourage critical thinking and risk taking Why merely using the latest technology class does not equate to teaching creatively Projects and prompts that ask the question So what does this mean in the classroom today Teaching Social Studies in an Era of Divisiveness Wayne Journell, 2016-09-14 Teaching controversial social issues can be a daunting and oftentimes terrifying prospect for social studies teachers In many ways this fear is warranted given the politically polarized nature of American society in the 21st century However effective social studies instruction requires that students begin to grapple with difficult issues in tolerant ways The chapters in this book many of which are written by leading scholars within the field of social studies education cover a range of 21st century social issues including politically volatile issues such as gun control marriage equality the Black Lives Matter movement and immigration This book offers both a theoretical justification for engaging students with controversial social issues and practical suggestions for how to successfully implement discussions of these types of issues in K 12 classroom settings Social Studies for the Twenty-First Century Jack Zevin,2015-01-09 Now in its 4th edition this popular text offers practical interesting exciting ways to teach social studies and a multitude of instructional and professional resources for teachers Theory curriculum methods and assessment are woven into a comprehensive model for setting objectives planning lessons units and courses choosing classroom strategies and constructing tests for some of the field s most popular and enduring programs The reflective and integrative framework emphasizes building imagination insight and critical thinking into everyday classrooms encourages problem solving attitudes and behavior and provokes analysis reflection and debate The text includes separate chapters on teaching each of the major areas of the social studies curriculum Throughout the text all aspects of curriculum and instruction are viewed from a tripartite perspective that divides social studies instruction into didactic factual reflective analytical and affective judgmental components These three components are seen as supporting one another building the groundwork for taking stands on issues past and present At the center is the author s belief that the heart and soul of social studies instruction perhaps all teaching lies in stimulating the production of ideas looking at knowledge from others viewpoints and formulating for oneself a set of goals values and beliefs that can be explained and justified in open discussion New in the Fourth Edition Clear links to the The National Council for the Social Studies College Career and Civic Life C3 Framework for Social Studies State Standards Attention to impact of high stakes testing Common Core State Standards and related ongoing developments Expanded and critical review of the use of internet web and PowerPoint technologies Coverage of how to incorporate the many social science humanities and STEM fields to enrich the social studies Updates and revisions throughout including new research reports reflecting current findings new examples more media and materials resources particularly digital resources new and updated pedagogical features Companion Website new for this edition Elementary Science Methods Lauren Madden,2022-01-12 As teachers and parents we often hear that children are the best scientists Great science teachers tune in to children s interests and observations to create engaging and effective lessons This focus on the innate curiosity of children or humans overall is celebrated and used to justify and support efforts around STEM teaching and learning Yet when we discuss elementary school teachers we often hear many inside and outside the classroom report that these teachers dislike fear and feel uncomfortable with science This is exactly the opposite approach from what is universally recommended by science education scholars This practical textbook meets the immediate contextual needs of future and current elementary teachers by using an assets based approach to science teaching showing how to create inquiry based lessons differentiate instruction and lesson design based on children s developmental ages and needs and providing easy to use tools to advocate for scientific teaching and learning guided by the Next Generation Science Standards NGSS Teaching Social Studies S.
