Johann Sebastian Bach Philipp Spitta, 1992-01-01 This monumental study of Johann Sebastian Bach ranks among the great classics of musicology Since its first publication in 1873 80 it has remained the basic work on Bach and the foundation of later research and study The three part treatment describes in chronological sequence practically everything that is known of the composer s life his ancestry his immediate family his associations his employers and the countless occasions on which his musical genius emerged Author Philipp Spitta accompanies this biographical material with quotations from primary sources correspondence family records diaries official documents and more In addition to biographical data Spitta reviews Bach's musical production with analyses of more than 500 pieces covering all the important works More than 450 musical excerpts are included in the main text and a 43 page musical supplement illustrates longer passages Despite the scholarly nature of this work it also has the rare distinction of being a study that can be read with considerable enjoyment and great profit by every serious music lover with or without a substantial background in the history of music or musical theory The Art of Accompaniment from a Thorough-bass Franck Thomas Arnold, 2003-01-01 A solid grounding in musical techniques of the 17th and 18th centuries is essential to a complete understanding of Baroque music As scholar Denis Stevens says in his introduction to this work Full enjoyment will come only when the soloist learns the gentle art of tasteful embellishment of a melodic line and when continuo players learn that their role is perhaps the most important in the entire ensemble Arnold's legendary work is a comprehensive survey of its topic covering every issue of significance to today's performer The text is fully amplified with numerous musical examples authoritative citations scholarly interpretations and syntheses and the author's own conclusions An inexhaustible collection of source material for the musicologist as well as an indispensable companion for conductor editor or performer Volume 2 of a 2 volume set Interpretation of the Music of the 17th and 18th Centuries Arnold Dolmetsch, R. Alec Harman, 2005-01-01 One of the most influential figures in the twentieth century revival of early music Arnold Dolmetsch 1858-1940 was the first to apply academic attention to the issue of authentic historical performance His groundbreaking study The Interpretation of the Music of the 17th and 18th Centuries first appeared in 1915 and remains a landmark of musicology An outstanding musician teacher and maker of Baroque style instruments Dolmetsch sought the correct interpretation of Baroque music in order to heighten its expressive intent and emotional impact In this study he quotes extensively from both familiar and lesser known treatises of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries adding enlightening comments to each quotation and providing illuminating conclusions Topics include tempo rhythm ornamentation figured bass realization wrist positioning and fingering and musical instruments of the period A rare appendix of musical examples originally published separately appears in this new edition of the first book to address in a comprehensive and scholarly manner the problems of performing Baroque music More than a text on performance practices this classic offers glimpses of what Baroque music meant both as an art and a science to musicians of the era Musical Structure and Design Cedric T. Davie, 2014-05-05 Clear elementary explanation of basic forms Renaissance to 1900 with many works analyzed Nature and function of concerto sonata etc clarified with nonmusical analogies illustrated in detailed analysis of specific piece of music The Clarinet and Clarinet Playing David Pino, 1998-01-01 Features suggestions about technique musicianship and musical interpretation as well as guidelines for teaching making your own reeds and preparing for public performance Discusses the history of the clarinet Appendixes Includes 7 black and white illustrations Puccini: A Listener's Guide John Bell Young, 2016-03-15 This Dover edition first published in 2016 is a slightly altered republication of the work originally published by Amadeus Press New York in 2008 Gustav Mahler Bruno Walter, Ernst Krenek, 2014-01-15 Recollections of Mahler written in 1936 by the composer's assistant conductor in Hamburg and at the Vienna Opera plus Ernst Krenek's biographical sketch of Mahler and a new Introduction The Evolution of Organ Music in the 17th Century John R. Shannon, 2014-01-10 The 17th century was the century of the organ in much the same way the 19th century was the century of the piano Almost without exception the major composers of the century wrote for the instrument and most of them were practicing organists themselves This historical book surveys analyzes and discusses the major national styles of 17th century European organ music Due to the extraordinarily extensive body of literature produced during this 100 year period this text includes 350 musical examples to illustrate the various styles The book also includes brief discussions of the various national styles of organ building an appendix about the various notational methods used in the 17th century and a chapter on Spain and Portugal written by Andre Lash an expert on the subject Choral Orchestration Cecil Forsyth, 2013-11-21 A noted musicologist takes readers bar by bar through a complete choral orchestration in this excellent and inexpensive tutorial on scoring Cecil Forsyth considers and contrasts the orchestral possibilities of each passage explaining the difficulties and details of orchestral execution Organists pianists and composers will appreciate this complete study of orchestration Symphony no. 5 in B-flat major Anton Bruckner, 2001-01-01 Featuring strikingly original harmonies and an extended structure and tonal range this staple of the orchestral repertoire is a landmark of the Austro-Germanic symphonic tradition Authoritative Breitkopf & Härtel edition Teaching Approaches in Music Theory Michael R. Rogers, 1984 Drawing on decades of teaching experience and the collective wisdom of dozens of the most creative theorists in the country Michael R Rogers's diverse survey of music theory one of the first to comprehensively survey and evaluate the teaching styles techniques and materials used in theory courses is a unique reference and research tool for teachers theorists secondary and postsecondary students and for private study This revised edition of Teaching Approaches in Music Theory An Overview of Pedagogical Philosophies features an extensive updated bibliography encompassing the years since the volume was first published in 1984 In a new preface to this edition Rogers references advancements in the field over the past two decades from the appearance of the first scholarly journal devoted entirely to aspects of music theory education to the emergence of electronic advances and devices that will provide a supporting if not central role in the teaching of music theory in the foreseeable future With the updated information the text continues to provide an excellent starting point for the study of music theory pedagogy Rogers has organized the book very much like a sonata Part one Background delineates principal ideas and themes acquaints readers with the author's views of contemporary musical theory and includes an orientation to an eclectic range of philosophical thinking on the subject part two Thinking and Listening develops these ideas in the specific areas of mindtraining and analysis including a chapter on ear training and part three Achieving Teaching Success recapitulates main points in alternate contexts and surroundings and discusses how they can be applied to teaching and the evaluation of design and curriculum Teaching Approaches in Music Theory emphasizes thoughtful examination and critique of the underlying and often tacit assumptions behind textbooks materials and technologies Consistently combining general methods with specific examples and both philosophical and practical reasoning Rogers compares and contrasts pairs of concepts and teaching approaches some mutually exclusive and some overlapping The volume is enhanced by extensive suggested reading lists for each chapter The Music Listener's Guide Meyer Martin Cahn,1961 The New Blue Music Richard J. Ripani,2006 A study that finds African influences of melody harmony rhythm and form in the top 25 songs from each decade of R B Science and the Arts Jacob Oppenheimer,1973 Deals with the philosophical implications of natural science in the various humanistic disciplines during the 17th 18th and 19th centuries Remarkable in combining and relating numerous disparate disciplines in the arts and sciences
