Gravity And Grace Routledge Classics Edition New Ed By Weil Simone Paperback:

Gravity and Grace Simone Weil, 2002 On the fiftieth anniversary of the first English edition this Routledge Classics edition offers the English reader the complete text of this landmark work for the first time ever The Life of Love: An Invitation: Fifty-two Reflections on Emotional and Spiritual Healing Sharon Southwell, 2014-10-26 Is love the place where psychological observation and spiritual wisdom about healing meet If love is associated with healing of all sorts how do I more consciously set about to grow in love seeking healing for myself and for my neighbours community and world How do I encourage others in their journeys into love Drawing on a broad Christian heritage a deep respect for the insights of other religious and spiritual traditions and two decades of work in welfare and clinical settings psychologist Sharon Southwell encourages spiritual seekers of all backgrounds to consider these questions for themselves Structured in 52 Reflections each followed by Invitations The Life of Love invites you to grow in love by embracing life giving connection to yourself to others your community to art nature and to your ultimate context whether you experience this as God or as some other immanent or transcendent spiritual connection

Seamus Heaney and the Adequacy of Poetry John Dennison, 2015-10-15 Seamus Heaney's prose poetics return repeatedly to the adequacy of poetry its ameliorative restorative response to the violence of public historical life It is a curiously equivocal ideal and as such most clearly demonstrates the intellectual origins the humanist character and the inherent strains of these poetics the work of one of the world's leading poet critics of the last thirty years Seamus Heaney and the Adequacy of Poetry is the first study of the development of Heaney's thought and its central theme Eschewing the tendency of Heaney critics to endorse or expand on the poet's poetics in largely adulatory terms it draws on archival as well as print sources to trace the emerging dualistic shape redemptive logic and post Christian nature of Heaney's thought from his undergraduate formation to the expansive affirmations of his late cultural poetics Through a meticulous and wholly new examination of Heaney's revisions to previously published prose it reveals the logical strain of his conceptual constructions so that it becomes acutely apparent just how appropriate that ambivalent ideal adequacy is This book takes seriously the post Christian frequently religious tenor of Heaney's language explicating the character of his thought while exposing its limits Heaney's belief in poetry's adequacy ultimately constitutes an Arnoldian substitute for indeed an afterimage of Christian belief This is the deep significance of the idea of adequacy to Heaney's thought it allows us to identify precisely the late humanist character and the limits of his troubled trust in poetry

A Double-Edged Sword Brenda E. Novack, 2014-05-19 On first consideration one might not be inclined to view Adolf Hitler and Dietrich Bonhoeffer in relation to Jehanne d'Arc Joan of Arc but Brenda E Novack does just that She demonstrates how these three prominent figures who influenced world history all acted in accordance with what they claimed or perceived to be divine sanction of their participation in violence Taking the reader on a unique exploration of their lives and deaths Novack identifies significant similarities and differences in notions of divine call and human response conveyed by these personalities and determines how they align or fail to align with the biblical prophetic tradition Taking Jehanne d Arc as her foundational study the author engages important theological issues such as the nature of revelation evil and morality The process culminates in the construction of a model of righteous warfare and human agency presented as a tool for evaluating claims to divinely sanctioned violence and as a potentially effective alternative to an outmoded and currently inadequate just war model Case studies of Hitler and Bonhoeffer tentatively establish the model s ability to steer humanity away from unnecessary destruction toward justice compassion and peace Beguiled by Beauty Wendy Farley,2020-12-01

Contemplative disciplines such as centering prayer and meditation have been part of Christian life for centuries They seem hard to practice now not simply because our distracted and hyperstimulated age makes them difficult but also because they can appear irrelevant to the needs of a fractured and ugly historical moment Yet these practices are more essential now than ever claims Wendy Farley These practices essentially awaken and attune us to the beauty both of the created order and of human relationships Farley helps readers discover being made for both kinds of beauty with contemplative disciplines immersing us in it Tying these disciplines with contemplation allows us to engage with the struggle for justice in an unjust society Beguiled by Beauty includes practical advice for readers to learn several contemplative meditation practices

Divine Enticement:Theological Seductions Karmen Mackendrick,2013 Divine Enticement argues for a reconception of theology and its subject matter as modes of seduction of both body and mind Theological language as evocation opens onto rereadings of faith sacrament ethics prayer and scripture The conclusion argues for a sense of theology as calling upon infinite possibility The Little Book Of Philosophy Andre Comte-Sponville,2011-11-30 In this remarkable little book Andre Comte Sponville introduces the reader to the western philosophical tradition in a series of sparkling chapters on the big questions In doing so he reveals the essential bones of philosophical thought and shows why philosophy is relevant in our day to day lives In his brilliant and concise writing on morality politics love death knowledge freedom God atheism art time Man and wisdom he inspires the central question of philosophy how should we live and provides the reader with signposts towards a happier wiser life Prayer and Embodiment in Nineteenth-Century Women's Writing Elizabeth

Ludlow,2025-02-20 In the 19th century an era that saw a reconfiguration of the relationship between the self the world and the divine women writers probed the theological depths of embodied faith in new ways through poetry fiction devotional prose and life writing Elizabeth Ludlow explores how through this process they articulated what it means to pray and thereby understand one s place in a world of individual and communal bodies The eight women writers discussed Elizabeth Barrett Browning Josephine Butler George Eliot Elizabeth Gaskell Dora Greenwell Felicia Hemans Adelaide Procter and Christina Rossetti provide accounts of prayer that stress that the only way to experience and respond to something of the transcendent is through embracing lived experience and through a recognition of the connectedness of all bodies In detailing how these writers engage with new ways of thinking about faith desire and the material world Ludlow argues that they offer models for ethical modes of being in the world and pave the way for later theologies of embodiment

Ronald E. Rowe, 2003 An extensive discussion of false absolutes culminating in humanism

Jersak, 2022-11-22 Deconstruction Trendy brand name for falling away from belief in God Or a process essential to authentic faith Liberation or trauma Prison break or exile It s complicated Just like you Christian history records a Great Reformation and a Great Awakening But today s Great Deconstruction will surely leave an equally profound impact In Out of the Embers Bradley Jersak explores the necessity perils and possibilities of the Great Deconstruction how it has the potential to either sabotage our communion with God or infuse it with the breath of life the light and life of Christ himself In this collection of vulnerable memoirs philosophical memos and candid provocations Jersak resists both the hand wringing urge to corral stray sheep and the exultant desire to play the happy clappy Ex vangelical cheerleader He employs the wisdom and expertise of the great deconstructionists Christianity s ancient influences Moses Plato Paul and the Patristics beloved frenemies from Voltaire to Nietzsche and the masters of deconstruction Dostoevsky Kierkegaard and Weil to double down and deconstruct deconstruction itself Where is faith after deconstruction The author s heart is to engage and empathize with the bereft and disoriented stoking the brittle ashes for live embers In this quest for the resilient gospel of the martyrs the marginal and those outside the threshold inexplicably in this liminal space life stirs A Light shines through the ashes We find often for the first time that living connection Jersak calls presence in communion There is a sea change occurring across the Western church and civilization Whether we re watching a radical course correction or a complete collapse remains to be seen and how it pans out will likely depend on how we see what s happening who we are becoming how we live in response and most important where we find Christ situated in this storm

New Forms of Environmental Writing Timothy C. Baker, 2022-05-19 Surveying a wide range of contemporary poetry fiction and memoir by women writers this book explores our most pressing environmental concerns and shows how these texts find innovative new ways to respond to our environmental crisis Arguing for the centrality of individual encounter and fragmentary form in 21st century literature as well as themes of attention care and loss Baker highlights the ways that fragmentary texts can be seen as a mode of resistance These texts provide new ways to consider the role of individual agency and enmeshment in a more than human world The author proposes a new model of gleaning to encompass ideas of collection assemblage and relinquishment and draws on theoretical perspectives such as ecofeminism new materialism and posthumanism Examining works by writers including Sara Baume Ali Smith Elizabeth Jane Burnett Bhanu Kapil and Kathleen Jamie Baker provides important new insights into understanding our planetary predicament

Why Be Good? Duncan Richter, 2008 Why Be Good is an introduction to ethics whose guiding theme is the question posed by Thasymachus in Plato s iRepublic Historically organized the text presents a series of responses to the title question from Plato Aristotle thinkers in Christianity Aquinas Hobbes Hume Kant Mill Nietzsche and several twentieth century philosophers Duncan Richter explains each philosophers thoughts on ethics virtue and character and discusses ensuing objections to each philosopher's arguments. Along the way, students are encouraged to think about their own lives, what it meant to be good, and why, or rather, if they should be good. Key terms appear for the first time in boldface questions at the end of each chapter, and suggestions for further reading are provided throughout. Publisher's description

The Esoteric in Religious and Spiritual Traditions Patrick Laude, 2025-06-28 This book offers a comparative examination of the esoteric dimension across diverse religions including Buddhism, Christianity, Hinduism, and Islam. It seeks to answer the question of whether the concept of the esoteric can be applied across traditions and explores intersections, convergences, and differences in its use and presence therein. The book provides new avenues for research by moving beyond the study of Western esotericism and examining how the category of the esoteric can be applied in the contexts of Abrahamic faiths and Asian traditions. The book is organized into six centers of reflection including the esoteric dialectics of hiding and revealing, the claim of esoteric traditions to restore wholeness, and provide a comprehensive understanding of reality, the character of immediacy and directness, the intrinsic esoteric distinction between two truths, and the non-dualistic leanings of esoteric schools in terms of the unity of reality and the subjective immanence of an all-embracing Divine Selfhood. Overall, the book provides a comprehensive phenomenology of the esoteric in religions. It will be of interest to researchers and students of theology and religious studies.

Violence, Desire, and the Sacred, Volume 2 Scott Cowdell, Chris Fleming, Joel Hodge, 2014-01-30 This collection of state-of-the-art interpretations of the thought of René Girard follows on from the volume Violence, Desire, and the Sacred: Girard's Mimetic Theory Across the Disciplines (2012). The previous collection has been acclaimed for demonstrating and showcasing Girard's mimetic theory at its interdisciplinary best by bringing together scholars who apply Girard's insights in different fields. This new volume builds on and extends the work of that earlier collection by moving into new areas such as psychology, politics, classical literature, national literature, and practical applications of Girard's theory in pastoral, spiritual care, peace-making, and religious thought and practice.

Second Chance Ruth Rosengarten, 2022-08-23 In this intimate memoir, Ruth Rosengarten explores the subject of evocative objects through a series of interconnected essays. Evocative objects reflect our attitudes to our own lives and how we seek to display ourselves to ourselves. They are therefore closely linked to our memories and how we filter, process, and reconstruct them. Rosengarten explores the themes and associations invoked by her own evocative objects, which are frequently shabby things of no material value. They are importantly often objects that in their materiality bear traces of actions of something having been. Through the associative pathways that these objects have paved, she discusses her experiences with the losses she has undergone: her family's migrations and what it means to be a childless woman. This leads her to address the question of what will become of her storied objects and the memories attached to them when she is no longer in existence. This memoir offers an interdisciplinary approach to collecting and compiling fragments of one's life, paying close attention to the evocative objects that embody us. In doing so, these essays explore loss, memory, childlessness, longing, family history, literature, and art theory.

through material entities which reveal the immaterial things at the heart of this study This book is sure to be of interest to anyone stimulated by memory work and the relationship between humans and their possessions Charles Simic and the Poetics of Uncertainty Donovan McAbee,2020-01-09 Charles Simic and the Poetics of Uncertainty provides the first full account of the poetics of the former US Poet Laureate who is one of the most popular and critically acclaimed English language poets writing today The book argues for uncertainty as the center of Simic s poetics and addresses the ways that his poetry grows from and navigates various forms of uncertainty Donovan McAbee addresses uncertainty regarding the national character of Simic s poetry and how this is complicated by Simic s identity as a Yugoslavian refugee to the United States The book assesses the theological and linguistic uncertainties of Simic s poetry and explores the ways that Simic articulates the aesthetic space created by poems as a safe place of encounter for the reader The book argues for the role of humor as a primary mode that holds together the uncertainties of Simic s poetry and finally it articulates the way that within these uncertainties Simic develops a deeply humane political poetry of survival Along the way Simic s work is placed in conversation with key influences and other important American and international poets and writers including James Tate Mark Strand Charles Wright Nicanor Parra Vasko Popa and others Spontaneity Gemma Corradi Fiumara,2009-03-25 In this book Gemma Corradi Fiumara suggests that poor mental health can be a result of our incapacity to respond to internal and external stimuli and indicates that spontaneity is essential in the development of many aspects of the self

Phenomenology and Mysticism Anthony J. Steinbock,2009-12-22 Exploring the first person narratives of three figures from the Christian Jewish and Islamic mystical traditions St Teresa of Avila Rabbi Dov Baer and R zbih n Baql Anthony J Steinbock provides a complete phenomenology of mysticism based in the Abrahamic religious traditions He relates a broad range of religious experiences or verticality to philosophical problems of evidence selfhood and otherness From this philosophical description of vertical experience Steinbock develops a social and cultural critique in terms of idolatry as pride secularism and fundamentalism and suggests that contemporary understandings of human experience must come from a fuller more open view of religious experience Deleuze and the Immanent Sublime Louis Schreel,2024-06-13 What becomes of the sublime today in a philosophy that discards the old oppositions between body and mind and embeds human reason in the creative evolution of life In this book Louis Schreel shows how Gilles Deleuze s life long engagement with the Kantian sublime grappled with just this question Its core argument centres on Deleuze s understanding of the sublime in terms of psychic individuation a creative self organizing process that animates cognitive systems from within Exploring Deleuze s transcendental philosophy through central concepts of self organization psychic individuation passibility and infinity this book shows how a new notion of the sublime emerges in a timely and novel way In this way Deleuze and the Immanent Sublime opens up an innovative perspective on transcendental philosophy shedding new light on Deleuze s transcendental empiricism both in relation to Kant and to contemporary cognitive science Engagement with previously untranslated writings from thinkers including Jean Petitot Gilbert Simondon Henri Maldiney and Erwin Straus adds further breadth to the development of Deleuze's ideas on the sublime in this systematic study      Out of this World Peter Hallward, 2006 A controversial critique of an iconic philosopher
