Great Expectations Charles Dickens, 2024-07-07 Ours was the marsh country down by the river within as the river wound twenty miles of the sea My first most vivid and broad impression of the identity of things seems to me to have been gained on a memorable raw afternoon towards evening At such a time I found out for certain that this bleak place overgrown with nettles was the churchyard and that Philip Pirrip late of this parish and also Georgiana wife of the above were dead and buried and that Alexander Bartholomew Abraham Tobias and Roger infant children of the aforesaid were also dead and buried and that the dark flat wilderness beyond the churchyard intersected with dykes and mounds and gates with scattered cattle feeding on it was the marshes and that the low leaden line beyond was the river and that the distant savage lair from which the wind was rushing was the sea and that the small bundle of shivers growing afraid of it all and beginning to cry was Pip Hold your noise cried a terrible voice as a man started up from among the graves at the side of the church porch Keep still you little devil or I ll cut your throat A fearful man all in coarse grey with a great iron on his leg A man with no hat and with broken shoes and with an old rag tied round his head A man who had been
