Reading John through Johannine Lenses

Stan Harstine, 2022-02-04 Reading John through Johannine Lenses demonstrates that the model an interpreter chooses for examining the Gospel of John significantly impacts the resulting interpretation The Fourth Evangelist uses key words in the prologue in order to guide the reader toward key moments in the gospel Stan Harstine shows how four words life word receive and believe converge at transition points in John 5:12 and 17 Their close relationship is not random rather it guides the reader to recall what the Gospel has presented in the preceding section providing a road map for understanding the narrative By using interpretive models from both diachronic and synchronic methodologies Harstine's comparison of traditional historical methods with more recent narrative and rhetorical methods demonstrates the wide disparity of results from prior approaches thus accentuating the importance of reading the Fourth Gospel through the lenses it provides its readers Exegesis and History of Reception Régis Burnet, 2021-01-26 Why should we take into account the history of reception in biblical methods It is because as exegetes we have no choice Recognizing our dependence on interpretations of the past is not a new method but it is the very way we understand texts Régis Burnet shows how this allows us to put our current interpretations into perspective but also to dialogue with those of the past
