Olivier Philip Ziegler, 2013-09-12 Hollywood superstar Oscar winning director greatest stage actor of the twentieth century The era abounded in great actors Gielgud Richardson Guinness Burton O Toole but none could challenge Laurence

Olivier's range and power By the 1940s he had achieved international stardom His affair with Vivien Leigh led to a marriage as glamorous and as tragic as any in Hollywood history He was as accomplished a director as he was a leading man his three Shakespearian adaptations are among the most memorable ever filmed And yet at the height of his fame he accepted what was no more than an administrator's wage to become the founding Director of the National Theatre In 2013 the theatre celebrates its fiftieth anniversary without Olivier's leadership it would never have achieved the status that it enjoys today Off stage Olivier was the most extravagant of characters generous yet almost insanely jealous of those few contemporaries whom he deemed to be his rivals charming but with a ferocious temper With access to more than fifty hours of candid unpublished interviews Philip Ziegler ensures that Olivier's true character at its most undisguised shines through as never before
