Authorial Echoes Catherine O'Rawe, 2017-12-02 Luigi Pirandello is best known for his experimental plays but his narrative production has not enjoyed the same degree of critical attention O'Rawe's study represents the first major reassessment of this output including the realist novels I vecchi e i giovani 1909 and the autobiographical Suo marito 1911 The book identifies in Pirandello a practice of self plagiarism constant rewriting and revision and obsessive re use of material and explores the relation of these overlooked modes of composition to the author's own theories of authorship and textuality Drawing on a wide range of critical theory O'Rawe repositions Pirandello as a major figure in the development of European narrative modernism

Symbolic Loss Peter Homans, 2000 Historically many world cultures have linked three disparate phenomena collective loss mourning and the construction of monuments and cultural symbols to represent the loss over time and render it memorable meaningful and thereby bearable In a century of great loss observers of western culture have commented on the decline of mourning practices and the absence of their associated rituals The ten essays assembled here by Peter Homans represent in a genuinely interdisciplinary way the recent work of scholars attempting to understand this trend Arranged in sections on cultural studies architecture history and psychology this accessible collection can serve as an introduction to the uses of mourning in contemporary cultures
