Read, Rhyme, and Romp Heather McNeil, 2012-06-26 Designed to promote literacy in young children and to empower parents educators and librarians this guide is filled with simple strategies creative activities and detailed instructions that help make reading fun Encouraging a love of reading in young children can be a source of both great frustration and immense joy This handy resource provides essential tips techniques and strategies for making early literacy development fun and inspiring a lifelong love of reading Read Rhyme and Romp Early Literacy Skills and Activities for Librarians Teachers and Parents explores the six basic pre literacy skills that experts agree are necessary for a young child to be ready to learn to read Special sections within each chapter are dedicated to the specific needs of preschool teachers parents and librarians making the content relevant to different settings Recommended book lists personal anecdotes and literacy rich activities combine to create an effective and accessible plan for implementing an early literacy program

Ex Libris Anne Fadiman, 2011-04-01 Perfectly balanced between humor and erudition Ex Libris establishes Anne Fadiman as one of our finest contemporary essayists Anne Fadiman is by her own admission the sort of person who learned about sex from her father's copy of Fanny Hill whose husband buys her 19 pounds of dusty books for her birthday and who once found herself poring over her roommate's 1974 Toyota Corolla manual because it was the only written material in the apartment that she had not read at least twice This witty collection of essays recounts a lifelong love affair with books and language For Fadiman as for many passionate readers the books she loves have become chapters in her own life story Writing with remarkable grace she revives the tradition of the well crafted personal essay moving easily from anecdotes about Coleridge and Orwell to tales of her own pathologically literary family As someone who played at blocks with her father's 22 volume set of Trollope's My Ancestral Castles and who only really considered herself married when she and her husband had merged collections Marrying Libraries she is exquisitely well equipped to expand upon the art of inscriptions the perverse pleasures of compulsive proof reading the allure of long words and the satisfactions of reading out loud There is even a foray into pure literary gluttony Charles Lamb liked buttered muffin crumbs between the leaves and Fadiman knows of more than one reader who literally consumes page corners
