Reed,2008-04-01 A unique view on a survival story helps students to value the need for companionship The comprehension quiz works great as a study guide for a final exam Students begin by imagining the hardships with living as a pioneer on the American prairies Answer true or false questions about Sarah s letter to Anna and Caleb Complete sentences from the story with their missing vocabulary words Do some investigation to learn about mica something that Sarah says her dune sparkled with Use events from the story to inspire a tercet poem Students imagine interviewing Sarah about her experiences Aligned to your State Standards and written to Bloom s Taxonomy additional crossword word search comprehension quiz and answer key are also included About the Novel A story filled with wisdom gentle humor and the practical concerns necessary for a satisfying life This Newbery Medal winning story is based on the true adventures of a family living on the vast prairie in the early years of the 20th century The story begins when Anna and Caleb missing their mother who died wish for another woman to make their father laugh again Sarah responds to an ad stating she will come by train wearing a yellow bonnet and that she is plain and tall And into their lives comes Sarah with her own needful loneliness and searching to help them create a whole family But life on the endless prairie can be hard and unforgiving taking all a person s strength and courage just to survive

Connecting Children with Classics Meagan Lacy,Pauline Dewan,shady radical,2018-03-14 This guide identifies hundreds of books that can help children develop into engaged readers Children s librarians collection development specialists in public libraries as well as K 8 school librarians and teachers will choose from the best in children s titles This unique readers advisory and collection development guide for librarians and others who work with children focuses on readers and their needs rather than simply categorizing books by their characteristics and features as traditional literature guides do Taking this unusual perspective brings forth powerful new tools and curricular ideas on how to promote the classics and how to best engage with young readers and meet their personal and emotional needs to boost interest and engagement The guide identifies seven reader driven appeals or themes that are essential to successful readers advisory awakening new perspectives providing models for identity offering reassurance comfort strength and confirmation of self worth connecting with others giving courage to make a change facilitating acceptance and building a disinterested understanding of the world By becoming aware of and tapping into these seven themes librarians and other educators can help children more deeply connect with books thereby increasing the odds of becoming lifelong readers The detailed descriptions of each book provide plot summaries as well as notes on themes subjects reading interest levels adaptations and alternative formats translations and read alike This informative guide will also aid librarians in collection development and bibliotherapy services

The Sarah, Plain and Tall Treasury Patricia MacLachlan,2003 Great Authors of Children's Books Britannica Educational Publishing,2014-01-01 Few stories have the power to stay with us the way the tales we hear in childhood do Great children s book authors have at their disposal countless techniques to channel young imaginations and appeal directly to their audience's tender sensibilities. They craft colorful characters whose circumstances and actions resonate with readers in a way that carries through well into adulthood. The creators of some of the most whimsical, witty, thought-provoking and powerful children's books of all time, including Lewis Carroll, Dr. Seuss, Beatrix Potter, Maurice Sendak and Laura Ingalls Wilder among many others, are presented in this exciting volume. Word After Word After Word Patricia MacLachlan, 2011-01-18. An inspirational short novel for young readers about the power of writing by Newbery Medal-winning author Patricia MacLachlan. Every school day feels the same for fourth graders Lucy and Henry and Evie and Russell and May. Then Ms. Mirabel comes to their class bringing magical words and a whole new way of seeing and understanding. From beloved author Patricia MacLachlan comes an honest inspiring story about what is real and what is unreal and about the ways that writing can change our lives and connect us to our own stories. word after word after word Newbery

Award Winning Authors , Sarah, Plain and Tall Patricia MacLachlan, 1987-09-04. Did Mama sing every day? Caleb asks his sister Anna. Every single day she answers, Papa sang too. Their mother died the day after Caleb was born. Their house on the prairie is quiet now and Papa doesn't sing anymore. Then Papa puts an ad in the paper asking for a wife and he receives a letter from one Sarah Elisabeth Wheaton of Maine. Papa, Anna and Caleb write back. Caleb asks if she sings. Sarah decides to come for a month. She writes Papa, I will come by train. I will wear a yellow bonnet. I am plain and tall and Tell them I sing. Anna and Caleb wait and wonder. Will Sarah be nice? Will she like them? Will she stay. The Publishers Weekly, 2006
