Response to Guiding Question:

The expectations that pip has for himself are that he does not do wrong. He is worried and afraid of stealing from Joe, who is someone he looks up to. He is worried about hurting Joe. This shows that pip is a very good person deep down inside, and that helps the reader to like pip. He feels bad for him, and to identify with him. The expectations other people have for him are different and varied. The convict's expectations for pip are that pip is for pip to bring "wittles" (food) and a file. Pip's sister's expectations for him are that he does what he is told, is grateful and doesn't ask questions. Joe is more of a friend and brother than Joe is a father to him.
