

Great Expectations Stage III Study Guide

Ch. 40

1. What does Pip call his convict? Why?
He calls him a dreaded visitor/guest. This is because he is still a prisoner and Pip still thinks that the way he acted at the churchyard was unacceptable.
2. What is his convict's name? What is the significance of this name?
His name is Magwitch. I think it is significant because it has the word "witch" in it.
3. How did Magwitch get to know Mr. Jaggers?
Mr. Jaggers was his lawyer in his last trial.
4. Describe the man on the stairs. Who do you think it is?
He was a worker; he had dusty colored clothes, under a dark coat. He thinks this is Compeyson because he wants to get Magwitch in even more trouble.
5. Magwitch's "teeth had failed" is a euphemism for what?
They had rotted because he doesn't take care of his teeth. He is not the type of person who would care about his appearance.
6. How is Magwitch like an "old bird"?
He has really seen the world and has experienced the good and bad of life. A bird really gets to see the world in every different view.
7. Explain what Jaggers means when he says, "Take nothing on its look; take everything on evidence"
He means only believe something if there is evidence to prove it.
8. How has Magwitch's attitude changed from when Pip first met him at the churchyard?
Magwitch is now very laidback and friendly (positive). When Pip first met him at the churchyard he was mean and aggressive. He is now in a comfortable environment.
9. Why does Pip hate Magwitch, after all he's the one who gave him the fortune?

Theodossopoulos,2011-10-01 The negotiation of expectations in tourism is a complex and dynamic process one that is central to the imagination of cultural difference Expectations not only affect the lives and experiences of tourists but also their hosts and play an important part in the success or failure of the overall tourism experience It is for this reason the authors argue that special attention should be given to how expectations constitute and sustain tourism The case studies presented here explore what fuels the desires to visit particular places to what degree expectations inform the experience of the place and the frequent disjunctions between tourist expectations and experiences Careful attention is paid to how the imagination of the visitor inspires the imagination of the host and vice versa how tourists and host communities actively imagine re imagine and shape each other s lives This realization has profound consequences not solely for academic analysis but for all those who participate in and work within the tourism industry     Dyslexia in the Secondary School Jenny Cogan,Mary Flecker,2004-01-16 This book explains why dyslexic students frequently underachieve and demonstrates that adjustments in teaching and learning methods can make all the difference provided that underlying problems are identified After reading Dyslexia in Secondary School teachers will be able to identify children with specific learning problems and know better how to help them with their school work Examples are based on the curriculum and used to show how to advise students on essay writing note taking memorising vocabulary and reading to remember Parents and specialist teachers will find that the book helps them translate educational psychologists theory into practical action The students themselves will be encouraged to look carefully at how they learn and using their strengths rather than their weaknesses try out alternative strategies This book contains diagrams mind maps and worksheets as well as many ideas for teachers Focusing as it does on the way we learn Dyslexia in Secondary School will interest all teachers and students not just those with specific learning difficulties
