Riveted: The Science of Why Jokes Make Us Laugh, Movies Make Us Cry, and Religion Makes Us Feel One with the Universe Jim Davies, 2014-08-05 Why do some things pass under the radar of our attention but other things capture our interest Why do some religions catch on and others fade away What makes a story a movie or a book riveting Why do some people keep watching the news even though it makes them anxious The past 20 years have seen a remarkable flourishing of scientific research into exactly these kinds of questions Professor Jim Davies fascinating and highly accessible book Riveted reveals the evolutionary underpinnings of why we find things compelling from art to religion and from sports to superstition Compelling things fit our minds like keys in the ignition turning us on and keeping us running and yet we are often unaware of what makes these keys fit What we like and don't like is almost always determined by subconscious forces and when we try to consciously predict our own preferences we're often wrong In one study of speed dating people were asked what kinds of partners they found attractive When the results came back the participants' answers before the exercise had no correlation with who they actually found attractive in person We are beginning to understand just how much the brain makes our decisions for us we are rewarded with a rush of pleasure when we detect patterns as the brain thinks we've discovered something significant the mind urges us to linger on the news channel or rubberneck an accident in case it might pick up important survival information it even pushes us to pick up People magazine in order to find out about changes in the social structure Drawing on work from philosophy anthropology religious studies psychology economics computer science and biology Davies offers a comprehensive explanation to show that in spite of the differences between the many things that we find compelling they have similar effects on our minds and brains

Holistic Leadership Satinder Dhiman, 2017-01-11 This book suggests that the solution to the current leadership crisis lies in leaders self cultivation process emanating from their deepest values and culminating in their contribution to the common good Traditional approaches to leadership rarely provide any permeating or systematic framework to garner a sense of higher purpose or nurture deeper moral and spiritual dimensions of leaders Learning to be an effective leader requires a level of personal transformation on the continuum of self spirit and service Synthesizing the best of contemporary approaches to leadership in a holistic manner this book presents a unique model of leadership that is built on the sound principles of Self Motivation Personal Mastery Creativity and Flow Emotional Intelligence Optimal Performance Appreciative Inquiry Authentic Leadership Transformational Leadership Positive Psychology Moral Philosophy and Wisdom Traditions of the world This broad interdisciplinary approach is well suited to effectively address the multifaceted issues faced by contemporary organizations and leaders It will be of great interest to graduate business and organizational leadership students and faculty as well as corporate leaders

How to Become Famous Cass R. Sunstein, 2024-05-21 Fame is like lightning Taylor Swift Bob Dylan Leonardo da Vinci Jane Austen Oprah Winfrey all of them were struck Why What if they hadn't been Consider the most famous music group in history What would the world be like if the Beatles never existed This was the question posed by the playful thought provoking 2019 film Yesterday in which a young completely unknown singer starts performing Beatles hits to a world that has never heard them Would the Fab Four's songs be as phenomenally popular as they are in our own Beatle infused world The movie asserts that they would but is that true Was the success of the Beatles inevitable due to their amazing matchless talent Maybe It's hard to imagine our world without its stars icons and celebrities They are part of our culture and history seeming permanent and preordained But as Harvard law professor and passionate Beatles fan Cass Sunstein shows in this startling book that is far from the case Focusing on both famous and forgotten or simply overlooked artists and luminaries in music literature business science politics and other fields he explores why some individuals become famous and others don't and offers a new understanding of the roles played by greatness luck and contingency in the achievement of fame Sunstein examines recent research on informational cascades network effects and group polarization to probe the question of how people become famous He explores what ends up in the history books and in the literary canon and how that changes radically over time He delves into the rich and entertaining stories of a diverse cast of famous characters from John Keats William Blake and Jane Austen to Bob Dylan Ayn Rand and Stan Lee as well as John Paul George and Ringo How to Become Famous takes you on a fun captivating and at times profound journey that will forever change your perspective on the latest celebrity's fifteen minutes of fame and on what vaults some to the top and leaves others in the dust
