Green Tigers Illustrated Stories From Shakespeare:

Green Tiger's Illustrated Stories from Shakespeare William Shakespeare, Edith Nesbit, 2011 Prose retellings of some of Shakespeare's famous plays for children Literature-Based Teaching in the Content Areas Carole Cox, 2011-01-12 Grounded in theory and best practices research this practical text provides teachers with 40 strategies for using fiction and non-fiction trade books to teach in five key content areas: language arts and reading, social studies, mathematics, science, and the arts. Each strategy provides everything a teacher needs to get started: a classroom example that models the strategy, a research-based rationale, relevant content standards, suggested books, reader response questions and prompts, assessment ideas, examples of how to adapt the strategy for different grade levels (K, 2, 3, 5, and 6, 8) and ideas for differentiating instruction for English language learners and struggling students. Throughout the book, student work samples and classroom vignettes bring the content to life. 100 Years of the Best American Short Stories Lorrie Moore, Heidi Pitlor, 2015-10-06 Witness the ever-changing history and identity of America in this collection of 40 stories collected from the first 100 years of this bestselling series. For the centennial celebration of this annual series, The Best American Short Stories master of the form Lorrie Moore selects forty stories from the more than two thousand that were published in previous editions. Series editor Heidi Pitlor recounts behind-the-scenes anecdotes and examines decade by decade the trends captured over a hundred years. Together, the stories and commentary offer an extraordinary guided tour through a century of literature with what Moore calls all its wildnesses of character and voice. These forty stories represent their eras but also stand the test of time. Here is Ernest Hemingway's first published story and a classic by William Faulkner who admitted in his biographical note that he began to write as an aid to love-making. Nancy Hale's story describes far-reaching echoes of the Holocaust. Tillie Olsen's story expresses the desperation of a single mother. James Baldwin depicts the bonds of brotherhood and music. Here is Raymond Carver's minimalism, a term he disliked, and Grace Paley's secular Yiddishkeit. Here are the varied styles of Donald Barthelme, Charles Baxter, and Jamaica Kincaid. From Junot Díaz to Mary Gaitskill, from ZZ Packer to Sherman Alexie, these writers and stories explore the different things it means to be American. Children's Literature Awards and Winners, 1994 The Early Stories John Updike, 2007-12-18 Winner of the PEN Faulkner Award for Fiction. A harvest and not a winnowing, this volume collects 103 stories, almost all of the short fiction that John Updike wrote between 1953 and 1975. How rarely it can be said of any of our great American writers that they have been equally gifted in both long and short forms. Reads the citation composed for John Updike upon his winning the 2006 Rea Award for the Short Story: Contemplating John Updike's monumental achievement in the short story, one is moved to think of Nathaniel Hawthorne, Henry James, Ernest Hemingway, and perhaps William Faulkner, writers whose reputations would be as considerable or nearly as if short stories had been all that they had written. From his remarkable early short story collections through his beautifully nuanced stories of family life and the bittersweet humors of middle age and beyond, John Updike has created a body of work in the notoriously difficult form of the short story to set beside those of these distinguished American predecessors Congratulations and heartfelt thanks are due to John Updike for having brought such pleasure and such illumination to so many readers for so many years The Annotated Hans Christian Andersen Hans Christian Andersen, 2015-05-27 A richly entertaining and informative collection of Hans Christian Andersen's stories annotated by one of America's leading folklore scholars In her most ambitious annotated work to date Maria Tatar celebrates the stories told by Denmark's perfect wizard and re-envisions Hans Christian Andersen as a writer who casts his spell on both children and adults Andersen's most beloved tales such as The Emperor's New Clothes, The Ugly Duckling and The Little Mermaid are now joined by The Shadow and Story of a Mother mature stories that reveal his literary range and depth Tatar captures the tales unrivaled dramatic and visual power showing exactly how Andersen became one of the world's ten most translated authors along with Shakespeare Dickens and Marx Lushly illustrated with more than one hundred fifty rare images many in full color by artists such as Arthur Rackham and Edmund Dulac The Annotated Hans Christian Andersen will captivate readers with annotations that explore the rich social and cultural dimensions of the nineteenth century and construct a compelling portrait of a writer whose stories still fascinate us today
