The Future of the Occupation of the Palestinian Territories after Gaza Erwin van Veen, 2025-08-19 This open access book outlines four scenarios for the future of Israeli occupation of the Palestinian Territories as a broad canvas on which the interests roles and perspectives of the key stakeholders involved in occupation are subsequently painted An indirect result of 58 years of Israeli occupation of the Palestinian Territories the Hamas attack on Israel of 7 October 2023 and the ensuing Israeli military campaign have greatly worsened Palestinian security in the short term and Israeli security in the long term Durable prospects for achieving reconciliation and peace are now shrouded in uncertainty as political forces and views on both sides are likely to polarize and radicalize even further October 7 and its aftermath have also introduced new uncertainties about the future nature of Israeli annexation and the modalities as well as extent of Palestinian resistance Old frames have lost much of their validity such as the Oslo agreements or even the logic underpinning security cooperation between the Palestinian Authority and the Israeli military The book aims to improve our understanding of the post October 7 context of occupation and the initiatives required to end it in the future Ultimately the book's intention is to shake up complacent policies and debates about the occupation of the Palestinian Territories by providing a more realistic basis for both reflection and action While short form analysis e.g. blogs essays and briefs of October 7 and the ensuing events have proliferated there has been little to no comprehensive analysis of the significance of these events for the future of occupation Using the method of scenario planning to develop an analytical baseline the added value of this book is that it offers a multi dimensional consideration of this question both through the range of stakeholders it covers and the variety of its authors with respect to their research focus and perspective

The Islamic Threat John L. Esposito, 1999-10-07 Are Islam and the West on a collision course From the Ayatollah Khomeini to Saddam Hussein the image of Islam as a militant expansionist and rabidly anti American religion has gripped the minds of Western governments and media But these perceptions John L Esposito writes stem from a long history of mutual distrust criticism and condemnation and are far too simplistic to help us understand one of the most important political issues of our time In this new edition of The Islamic Threat Myth or Reality Esposito places the challenge of Islam in critical perspective Exploring the vitality of this religion as a global force and the history of its relations with the West Esposito demonstrates the diversity of the Islamic resurgence and the mistakes our analysts make in assuming a hostile monolithic Islam This third edition has been expanded to include new material on current affairs in Turkey Afghanistan Palestine and Southeast Asia as well as a discussion of international terrorism illustration of Hamas mixed strategy and tactics of governance and resistance Between Resistance, Sharia Law, and Demo-Islamic Politics Michael Schulz, 2020-11-03 Despite the fact that many researchers have focused on Hamas armed resistance activities surprisingly few have theorised about the political choices and dilemmas that Hamas has faced in the context of the changing overarching conflict between Israelis and Palestinians This study aims to show theoretically how context dependent Hamas is when formulating its resistance and Demo Islamic practise and that this occurs in interrelations with key actors of the conflict This study also presents important new empirical data that in part also challenges previous research Hamas is one of the very few Islamist organisations that has reached a governance position via democratic and fair elections Thus Hamas can serve as a case study of how Islamist may act in quasi democratic surroundings At the same time Hamas is a key actor in the overarching conflict which has several unique characteristics Hamas armed resistance is described as an instrument for the Jihad against the Israeli occupation However the Dawa work at the grassroots level can also be seen as a resistance practice that can be identified as constructive resistance The internal discussion in Hamas as to what strategies to apply as will be shown are also formed and impacted by various interrelations with external actors of the conflict The Palestinian public in particular is a key actor that influences Hamas in various ways although Fatah PLO Israel and other external actors also have their specific roles to play
