Believing That You Belong After Having a Mastectomy

Lindsey Morgan, Linda Washington, 2009-05 Lindsey Morgan is a single mom in her forties raising four children and attending Kaplan University for her associate's degree in medical office management. She is trying to live her life as normal as it can be. This book is about a journey that she has been taking since she became sick with cancer and how one can come to understand what hope and love and life is really about. It is told through the eyes of someone with breast cancer. My Journey Through Breast Cancer Eve Preste, 2012-10-19 Eve Preste aka Eve Dolansky grew up in a small town in Appleton, New York, on a large fruit farm. She went to college at Niagara University and Buffalo State College to study journalism. After meeting her first husband, she moved to Florida and had two daughters, Alexis and Sierra. She then embarked on a 20-year journey in the financial industry. At 45, she was diagnosed with breast cancer. Journaling became her vehicle of deliverance from a bottomless abyss. Writing in her journal allowed her to spend time and make some sense of this surreal dream. By exploring deep within her, she began to develop clarity in the midst of a storm. After yielding to the higher power, it helped her welcome the beauty of the entire situation. As Dr. Wayne Dyer says, "When you change the way you look at things, the things you look at change." Perfect health is balanced by a life-threatening disease. Once an equilibrium is maintained, we can understand that opposites are joined together. When suffering comes our way, it is how we respond to it that determines who we become. It was her choice to make a calamity or true gift out of her illness. Rather than lamenting, Eve chose to be grateful for each sunrise, sunset, person, and circumstance in her life. After being diagnosed with breast cancer, Eve embarked on a new journey of wellness. She hopes to establish a wellness center to help people balance their mind, body, and spirit. One major event can turn one's life around for the better; we hold true to the saying, "Things happen for a reason." My Breast Life Sarah Altman, 2019-09-26 Born out of her own experience, My Breast Life chronicles Sarah Altman's experience with breast cancer in a candid, authentic, transparent, and humorous way. From diagnosis, surgery, chemo, and recovery, you'll feel like you're going through the experience with a friend as Sarah openly shares her challenges and insights. She even discusses some of those things you've always wondered about cancer but never wanted to ask, like what does chemo really feel like and what happens to your boobs during a mastectomy. This book can help you on your own journey with cancer or serve as a guide in supporting a loved one. Everything about Mastectomy Surgery Dorian Karren, 2025-03-08 EVERYTHING ABOUT MASTECTOMY SURGERY is the ultimate resource for anyone facing breast cancer surgery, considering preventive mastectomy, or seeking comprehensive knowledge about this life-changing procedure.
