THROUGHOUT HISTORY AND ACROSS CULTURES the most common form of violence is that between family members and neighbors or kindred communities in civil wars writ large and small From assault to genocide from assassination to massacre violence usually emerges from inside the fold You have more to fear from a spouse an ex spouse or a coworker than you do from someone you don't know In this brilliant polemic Russell Jacoby argues that violence erupts most often and most savagely between those of us most closely related An Indian nationalist assassinated Mohandas Gandhi the father of India An Egyptian Muslim assassinated Anwar Sadat the president of Egypt and a recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize An Israeli Jew assassinated Yitzhak Rabin the Israeli prime minister and similarly a recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize Genocide most often involves kindred groups The German Christians of the 1930s were so closely intertwined with German Jews that a yellow star was required to tell the groups apart Serbs and Muslims in Bosnia like the Hutu and Tutsi in Rwanda are often indistinguishable even to one another This idea contradicts both common sense and the collective wisdom of teachers and preachers who declaim that we fear and sometimes should fear the other the dangerous stranger Citizens and scholars alike believe that enemies lurk in the street and beyond where we confront a clash of civilizations with foreigners who challenge our way of life Jacoby offers a more unsettling truth it is not so much the unknown that threatens us but the known We attack our brothers our kin our acquaintances our neighbors with far greater regularity and venom than we attack outsiders Weaving together the biblical story of Cain and Abel Freud's narcissism of minor differences insights on anti-Semitism and misogyny as well as fresh analyses of civil bloodbaths from the St Bartholomew's Day Massacre in the sixteenth century to genocide and terrorism in our own time Jacoby turns history inside out to offer a provocative new understanding of violent confrontation over the centuries In thinking about the bad we reach for the good he says in his Introduction This passionate counterintuitive account affords us an unprecedented insight into the roots of violence The Novel: An Alternative History Steven Moore, 2013-09-17 Encyclopedic in scope and heroically audacious The Novel An Alternative History is the first attempt in over a century to tell the complete story of our most popular literary form Contrary to conventional wisdom the novel did not originate in 18th century England nor even with Don Quixote but is coeval with civilization itself After a pugnacious introduction in which Moore defends innovative demanding novelists against their conservative critics the book relaxes into a world tour of the pre modern novel beginning in ancient Egypt and ending in 16th century China with many exotic ports of call Greek romances Roman satires medieval Sanskrit novels narrated by parrots Byzantine erotic thrillers 5000 page Arabian adventure novels Icelandic sagas delicate Persian novels in verse Japanese war stories even Mayan graphic novels Throughout Moore celebrates the innovators in fiction tracing a continuum between these pre modern experimentalists and their postmodern progeny Irreverent iconoclastic informative entertaining The Novel An Alternative History is a landmark in literary criticism that will encourage readers to rethink the novel Shatterzone of Empires Larry Wolfe, Gregor Thum, Dan Diner, Theodore R. Transitions Shahid Yusuf, 2014-07-25 Since the onset of the Arab Spring economic uncertainty in Egypt Jordan Libya Morocco Tunisia and Yemen Arab Countries in Transition ACTs has slowed already sluggish growth worsened unemployment particularly of youth undermined business confidence affected tourist arrivals and depressed domestic and foreign direct investment Furthermore political and social tensions have constrained reform efforts Assessing policy options as presented in the voluminous literature on the Arab Spring and based on cross country experience this paper concludes that sustainable and inclusive growth calls for a two pronged approach short term measures that revive growth momentum and partially allay popular concerns complemented with efforts to adjust the public's expectations and prepare the ground for structural reforms that will deliver the desired longer term performance All Religion Is Inter-Religion Kambiz GhaneaBassiri, Paul

Robertson, 2019-07-11 All Religion Is Inter Religion analyses the ways inter religious relations have contributed both historically and philosophically to the constructions of the category of religion as a distinct subject of study Regarded as contemporary classics Steven M Wasserstrom's Religion after Religion 1999 and Between Muslim and Jew 1995 provided a theoretical reorientation for the study of religion away from hierophanies and ultimacy and toward lived history and deep pluralism This book distills and systematizes this reorientation into nine theses on the study of religion Drawing on these theses and Wasserstrom's opus more generally a distinguished group of his colleagues and former students demonstrate that religions can and must be understood through encounters in real time and space through the complex relations they create and maintain between people and between people and their pasts The book also features an afterword by Wasserstrom himself which poses nine riddles to students of religion based on his personal experiences working on religion at the turn of the twenty first century Cognitive Capitalism Heiner Rindermann, 2018-02-15 Nations can vary greatly in their wealth democratic rights and the wellbeing of their citizens These gaps are often obvious and by studying the flow of immigration one can easily predict people's wants and needs But why are there also large differences in the level of education indicating disparities in cognitive ability How are they related to a country's economic political and cultural development Researchers in the paradigms of economics psychology sociology evolution and cultural studies have tried to find answers for these hotly debated issues In this book Heiner Rindermann establishes a new model the emergence of a burgher civic world supported by long term background factors furthered education and thinking The burgher civic world initiated a reciprocal development changing society and culture resulting in past and present cognitive capital and wealth differences This is an important text for graduate students and researchers in a wide range of fields including economics psychology sociology and political science and those working on economic growth human capital formation and cognitive development On Time On Barak,2013-07-19 Revised version of the author s dissertation New York University 2009 The Story of Reason in Islam Sari Nusseibeh,2016-11-09 In The Story of Reason in Islam leading public intellectual and political activist Sari Nusseibeh narrates a sweeping intellectual history a quest for knowledge inspired by the Qu ran and its language a quest that employed Reason in the service of Faith Eschewing the conventional separation of Faith and Reason he takes a fresh look at why and how Islamic reasoning evolved over time He surveys the different Islamic schools of thought and how they dealt with major philosophical issues showing that Reason pervaded all disciplines from philosophy and science to language poetry and law Along the way the best known Muslim philosophers are introduced in a new light Countering received chronologies in this story Reason reaches its zenith in the early seventeenth century it then trails off its demise as sudden as its appearance Thereafter Reason loses out to passive belief lifeless logic and a self contained legalism in other words to a less flexible Islam Nusseibeh s speculations as to why this occurred focus on the fortunes and misfortunes of classical Arabic in the Islamic world Change he suggests may only come from the revivification of language itself Port Cities of the Eastern

Mediterranean Malte Fuhrmann,2020-10-29 Eastern Mediterranean port cities such as Constantinople Smyrna and Salonica have long been sites of fascination Known for their vibrant and diverse populations the dynamism of their economic and cultural exchanges and their form of relatively peaceful co existence in a turbulent age many would label them as models of cosmopolitanism In this study Malte Fuhrmann examines changes in the histories of space consumption and identities in the nineteenth and early twentieth century while the Mediterranean became a zone of influence for European powers Giving voice to the port cities forgotten inhabitants Fuhrmann explores how their urban populations adapted to European practices how entertainment became a marker of a Europeanized way of life and consuming beer celebrated innovation cosmopolitanism and mixed gender sociability At the same time these adaptations to a European way of life were modified according to local needs as was the case for the new quays streets and buildings Revisiting leisure practises as well as the formation of class gender and national identities Fuhrmann offers an alternative view on the relationship between the Islamic World and Europe Locating Europe Rodolphe Gasché,2021-06-01 Is the idea of Europe outdated The concept of European unity the animating spirit of the European Union seems increasingly fragile in the face of far right populist movements In Locating Europe Rodolphe Gasch attempts to answer the question of how to think about Europe Is it a figure a concept or an idea Is there anything still compelling and urgent about the idea of Europe By looking at phenomenologist and postphenomenological thinkers in the second half of the 20th century Gasch reveals that Europe is more than just one geographical and cultural entity The idea of Europe is based on common foundations a distinctive conception of reason of self criticism of responsibility freedom equality human rights and democracy and it is these foundations that are under threat In

Locating Europe A Figure a Concept an Idea Gasch engages the philosophy of Hans Georg Gadamer Karl Jaspers Karl L with and others focuses on the most significant philosophical representations of Europe and explores the potential and especially the limits of the notion of Europe A Quiet Revolution? Nick Forster,2017-09-07 An irreversible transformation is taking place in the lives of many thousands of university educated professional women in the United Arab Emirates Oman and the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia Drawing on eight years participative research and extensive secondary sources Nick Forster introduces the first extensive study to document this development in the Middle East This book documents the emerging economic and political power of women and how they are beginning to challenge ancient and deeply held beliefs about the correct roles of men and women in conservative Islamic societies and in public and private sector organisations It also describes the vital role that women could play in the economic development and diversification of these countries and the broader MENA region in the future It is an essential read for professionals scholars and students in fields as diverse as economic development international management gender studies and Middle Eastern studies A History of Jews in Germany Since 1945 Michael Brenner,2018-11-01 A comprehensive account of Jewish life in a country that carries the legacy of being at the epicenter of the Holocaust Originally published in German in 2012 this comprehensive history of Jewish life in postwar Germany provides a systematic account of Jews and Judaism from the Holocaust to the early 21st Century by leading experts of modern German Jewish history Beginning in the immediate postwar period with a large concentration of Eastern European Holocaust survivors stranded in Germany the book follows Jews during the relative quiet period of the 50s and early 60s during which the foundations of new Jewish life were laid Brenner s volume goes on to address the rise of anti Israel sentiments after the Six Day War as well as the beginnings of a critical confrontation with Germany s Nazi past in the late 60s and early 70s noting the relatively small numbers of Jews living in Germany up to the 90s The contributors argue that these Jews were a powerful symbolic presence in German society and sent a meaningful signal to the rest of the world that Jewish life was possible again in Germany after the Holocaust This volume which illuminates a multi faceted panorama of Jewish life after 1945 will remain the authoritative reading on the subject for the time to come Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung An eminently readable work of history that addresses an important gap in the scholarship and will appeal to specialists and interested lay readers alike Reading Religion Comprehensive meticulously researched and beautifully translated CHOICE Essay on Islamization Mohamed Cherkaoui,2019-10-29 Essay on Islamization is a study of the Islamization of all Muslim societies their conversion to orthodox Islam which with its chapels soldier monks and holy war leads to fundamentalism as well as to a moral puritanism Cherkaoui gauges the importance of this global phenomenon by analyzing the empirical data of some sixty Muslim and non Muslim societies He also conducts two ethnographic surveys to identify the metamorphoses of Muslim religious practices and their causes Among the dozen theories put forward to explain these planetary phenomena he cites those of secularization modernization the religious market the influence of the media and the policy of donors of unlimited financial resources social mobility geopolitical causes the emergence of fundamentalism and the role of proletarian intellectuals who promote Messianism and social pressure Sacred Languages of the World
