Love And Violence Love And Violence:

Love, Sex and Teenage Sexual Cultures in South Africa Deevia Bhana, 2017-10-25 Love Sex and Teenage Sexual Cultures in South Africa interrupts the relative silence around teenage constructions of love in South Africa Against the backdrop of gender inequalities HIV and violence the book situates teenage constructions of love and romance within the wider social and cultural context underwritten by the histories of apartheid chronic unemployment poverty and the endless struggle to survive By drawing on focus group discussions with African teenage men and women the book addresses teenage Africans as active agents providing a more nuanced picture of their desires and their dilemmas through which sexuality and love are experienced The chapters in the book conceptualise desiring love material love pure love forced love and fearing love It argues that love is intrinsically linked to cultural practices and material realities which mold particular formations of teenage masculinities and femininities This book will be of interest to academics undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in sociology HIV health and gender studies development and postcolonial studies and African studies For the Love of Beauty Arthur Pontynen, 2017-07-05 For most of the last century the methodology of art history has followed a positivist approach emphasizing form and style fact and history as the means of studying works of art By contrast the philosophical pursuit of truth once central to the fine arts and humanities has largely been abandoned In For The Love of Beauty Arthur Pontynen offers a searching and ambitious critique of modern aesthetic practice that aims to restore the pursuit of the knowledge of reality Being to its rightful place Pontynen begins by addressing the question of why the pursuit of truth be it called Dao Dharma God Logos Ideal etc is no longer acceptable in academic circles even though it has been intrinsic to the purpose of art at most times and in most cultures Lacking the pursuit of truth of some degree of knowledge of what is true and good the humanities necessarily lack intellectual and cultural grounding and purpose Fields of study such as philosophy music art and history are therefore trivialized and brutalized Pontynen s focus on the study of the visual arts details the how the denial of purpose and quality in modernist and postmodernist aesthetics has denied art any possibility of transcending entertainment therapy or propaganda In place of the established narratives Pontynen offers a counter narrative based on a cross cultural pursuit of the good the true and the beautiful He recognizes that substantively different cultural traditions exist and that the truth claims of each may be valid in whole or in part He shows how the history of art parallels the intellectual history of Western culture and how these parallels affect both aesthetics and ethics Pontynen engages with those elements of modernist and postmodernist thought that might be true His purpose is not simply to deny their validity but to engage a viewpoint that does not privilege the notion of a purposeless cosmos For the Love of Beauty will be of interest The Love Commandments Edmund N. motivated by love allowed these figures to resist the injustices of anti-Semitism racism sexism and homophobia leading to the constitutional condemnation of these political evils in the United States Britain and beyond Love and law thus grow together and this book shows how and why Drawing from developmental psychology including studies of trauma political theory the history of social movements literature biography and law this book will be a thought provoking tool for anyone interested in civil rights

A Nonviolent Theology of Love Sharon L. Baker Putt, 2021-02-02 The impetus behind the ease with which the church has periodically justified violent behavior lies in its conceptual image of God as a violent deity This book emerges out of a passion to think differently albeit biblically about the character of God and articulates a theological construction of a nonviolent God an alternative to any image of God that seems to condone human violence It calls the church to rethink theology as something other than what might be termed redemptive violence and encourages Christians to reinterpret Scripture and traditional theological beliefs in ways that are more faithful to the God disclosed in Jesus of Nazareth Students of theology need a fresh glimpse of the love mercy and redemptive power of God through Jesus As it follows the structure of the Apostles Creed through the various theological topics this book reminds Christians to share in God's desires for peace and love and to recommit themselves to the call of God to be ministers of reconciliation and lovers of both neighbors and enemies even while at times responding to violence with nonviolent resistance
