

The background of the cover is a dark, almost black, space filled with vibrant, abstract energy patterns. On the left, a bright, glowing white and blue sphere, resembling a star or a high-energy particle, emits a series of concentric, wavy lines in shades of blue, purple, and pink. These waves sweep across the cover towards the right. Interspersed among these waves are numerous thin, curved lines in yellow, orange, and red, which look like particle tracks or light trails. Small, bright points of light, similar to stars or distant galaxies, are scattered throughout the dark background, adding to the sense of cosmic energy and movement.
