Hangmans Brae True Crime And Punishment In Aberdeen And The North East:

Hangman's Brae Colin Duncan, Norman Adams, 2013-02-21 Hangman's Brae is a vividly written account of the blood curdling crimes and brutal forms of punishment of north east Scotland. The book explores the area's underworld and features the grave robbers, jail breakers, rioters and other lawbreakers whose crimes led them to premature deaths at the end of a rope or at the not so delicate hands of The Maiden, a gruesome decapitating device predating the French guillotine. The stories of the men who enforced the law and meted out sentences to the ne'er-do-wells who broke it can be just as interesting and memorable as those of the criminals and Norman Adams introduces the reader to some of them. Here you'll find some real characters such as the Aberdeenshire sheriff and criminal officer who always got his man, once spending two chilling nights chained to a brutal murderer and rapist. And it wasn't just hangings that these men had to perform; their grisly work also involved execution by beheading and drowning, often with some witch burning for good measure. The many true crime cases in this book shed new light on just how violent and bloody the north east of Scotland's past was. The Guide to

Mysterious Aberdeen Geoff Holder, 2010-11-23 Aberdeen is full of mysteries, marvels and strangeness and this book is a comprehensive guide to them all. Here you will encounter magic, witchcraft, folklore and superstitions, contemporary urban legends, gargoyles and graveyards, graverobbers and murderers, stone circles and prehistoric burial sites, UFOs and freak weather and tales of horror, madness, humour and dangerous porridge. Many forgotten aspects of the city's strange history are here, from the disturbing spontaneous human combustion, William Wallace's dismembered limbs, the man who died of fright after a mock execution and the bodysnatching professors to the downright bizarre: a talking statue, a wedding celebration which was mistaken for an alien invasion, fleet and golf with giant skulls. The Guide to Mysterious Aberdeen is the tenth in Geoff Holder's acclaimed series. As with the previous volumes, it is profusely illustrated with over 100 photographs and draws on both ancient and modern sources. Full access and location details are given for both driver and walker alike, making this the indispensable companion for anyone exploring the Granite City. Capital Punishment and the Criminal

Corpse in Scotland, 1740-1834 Rachel E. Bennett, 2017-12-04 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license. This book provides the most in-depth study of capital punishment in Scotland between the mid-eighteenth and early nineteenth century to date. Based upon an extensive gathering and analysis of previously untapped resources, it takes the reader on a journey from the courtrooms of Scotland to the theatre of the gallows. It introduces them to several of the malefactors who faced the hangman's noose and explores the traditional hallmarks of the spectacle of the scaffold. It demonstrates that the period between 1740 and 1834 was one of discussion, debate and fundamental change in the use of the death sentence and how it was staged in practice. In addition, the study provides an innovative investigation of the post-mortem punishment of the criminal corpse. It offers the reader an insight into the scene at the foot of the gibbets from which criminal bodies were displayed and around the dissection tables of Scotland's main universities where criminal bodies were used as cadavers for anatomical demonstration In doing so it reveals an intermediate stage in the long term disappearance of public bodily punishment Haunted Aberdeen and District Geoff Holder,2010-12-26 From reports of haunted castles hotels public houses chapels and churchyards to heart stopping accounts of apparitions poltergeists and related supernatural phenomena this collection of stories contains both well known and hitherto unpublished tales from around the city of Aberdeen This spine tingling selection includes Fyvie Castle home to the Green Lady Aberdeen Central Library where the ghost of a former librarian still helps customers the Four Mile Inn whose staff have heard ghostly footsteps and His Majesty s Theatre said to be haunted by a ghost named Jake a theatre hand who was killed in a stage accident Richly illustrated with over seventy five photographs and ephemera Haunted Aberdeen is sure to appeal to all those interested in finding out more about Aberdeen s haunted heritage The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2006 Hangman's Brae Norman Adams,1993-01-01 Hangman's Brae Norman Adams,2005 Crime & Punishment in Aberdeen & Stonehaven ,2000

Bland, 2001-12 In this book the author of True Crime Diary and other popular crime book presents a vivid and shocking study of men entrusted with the ghastly duty of carrying out public executions Individual hangmen whose careers are explored in this gruesome history include Gregory Brandon John Ketch John Price John Thrift and William Curry Despite its many horrors this book offers a fascinating gallery of outlandish figures full of authentic details from contemporary sources of information No serious student of crime will want to miss it no connoisseur of the macabre will want to part with it Hangman Brian J. Bailey, 1993 For well over 300 years the chilling figure of the hangman has fascinated and revolted in turns Even the sinister shape of the gallows and the noose fade in comparison with the men who carried out the penalty This book tells the story of the men who put capital punishment into practice A Date with the Hangman T.
