Telecommunications Sector in Sub-Saharan Africa and Fostering Competition in Telecommunications Services

Markets Rachel Alemu, 2018-02-02 This study investigates whether the existing regulatory framework governing the telecommunications sector in countries in Sub-Saharan Africa effectively deals with emerging competition related concerns in the liberalised sector. Using Uganda as a case study it analyses the relevant provisions of the law governing competition in the telecommunications sector and presents three key findings. Firstly, while there is comprehensive legislation on interconnection and spectrum management, inefficient enforcement of the legislation has perpetuated concerns surrounding spectrum scarcity and interconnection. Secondly, the legislative framework governing anti-competitive behaviour, though in line with the established principles of competition law, is not sufficient. Specifically, the framework is not equipped to govern the conduct of multinational telecommunications groups that have a strong presence in the telecommunications sector. Major factors hampering efficient competition regulation include Uganda's sole reliance on sector-specific competition rules, restricted available remedies, and a regulator with limited experience of enforcing competition legislation. The weaknesses in the framework strongly suggest the need to adopt an economy-wide competition law. Lastly, wireless technology is the main means through which the population in Uganda accesses telecommunications services. Greater emphasis should be placed on regulating conduct in the wireless communications markets. The Dinosaur Filmography Mark F. Berry, 2015-08-31 From classics like King Kong to beloved B movies like The Beast from 20,000 Fathoms to blockbusters like Jurassic Park, it's easy to see that filmmakers and audiences alike love to see dinosaurs on the screen. This comprehensive filmography, arranged alphabetically by title, contains entries that include basic facts, year of release, country of origin, studio, and running time, followed by a concise plot summary, the author's critical commentary, information on the production, and the people behind it.

and secrets of the often ingenious special effects Three useful appendices feature films with minor dinosaur content planned but unfinished dinosaur movies and the quasi dinosaurs of Toho Studios To be included a movie must depict one or more representations of a prehistoric reptile Inaccurate portrayals are included as long as the intent is to represent a real or fictional dinosaur Not eligible are films featuring prehistoric mammals prehistoric humans or humanoids and beasts of mythology unless of course the movie also has a dinosaur The California Countryman ,1923 The Rotarian:
